

BEVERLY BROWNING, JOHN TIPPIN Married Here Saturday

Local Miss Gets Diploma, Wedding Ring; Husband Just-returned Army Vet

Their wedding following shortly after she was qualified to don a nurse's cap and he exchanged Army khakis for civvies, the new Mr. and Mrs. John Richard Tippin, nee Miss Beverly Joanne Browning, will make their home temporarily at 2309 Torrance Blvd.

Daughter of the Wayne W. Brownings, 1050 Acadia Ave., the bride received her diploma from the Bishop Johnson College of Nursing, an affiliate of the Good Samaritan Hospital in Los Angeles, Sunday of last week.

WED SATURDAY

Marriage for the THEE squad, who also attended Pepperdine College, and Tippin, Manual Arts High School graduate who is the son of Dr. and Mrs. John W. Tippin, 122 Fremont Ave., and just returned from a tour of duty in Japan, followed last Saturday morning at Methodist Cathedral Church.

The newly-weds, who honeymooned at an undisclosed destination following the nuptials and reception, held at the parish hall, are expected to return here today.

All-white blossoms and candlelight provided an effective background for the marriage service, performed by the Rev. Robert Gera in the presence of 200 guests.

ENSEMBLE TRADITIONAL. Gown of the Civil War days found echoes in the bridal costume, fashioned of tulle and white satin and lace with fitted bodice and floor-length hoop skirt train. Her veil of illusion was held in place with a pearl-embroidered coronet, and on her white prayerbook she carried white stephanotis entwined with a white orchid corsage.

Rainbow colors of pink, aqua, and yellow took the color spotlight in costumes of her attendants.

Mrs. Robert W. Browning of Waltham, serving her sister-in-law as matron of honor, wore a pink net over satin gown with matching bouquet of pink roses.

Troop 416 Scouts Star in Film at Neighborhood Meet

A film produced by Girl Scout Troop 416, sponsored by St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, highlighted the program at the combined Matrons-Torrance neighborhood meeting held Monday evening at the Scout house.

Girl Scout laws and the activities of the troop were highlighted by the youthful stars. The film was made for the recent Court of Awards, and was directed by Mrs. Gerald Grubb, and Girl Scout leaders Mmes. Mathlin and E. M. Dilkus.

Girls participating in the old-time show were Rita Bacon, Edyth Blackwell, Lynn Barrett, Paula Blankenship, Gracie Condit, Geraldine Dilkus, Linda Grubb, Virginia Krausner, Carole Mathlin, Barbara Howard, Karen McFee, Carolyn Nelson,

Three Arts Revue Ducats Selling Now

Tickets are now on sale at the studio box office for the two evenings and by students for the 10th Annual Dance Revue to be presented by Three Arts Dance Studio next Wednesday and Thursday, June 23 and 24, at 7:30 o'clock at the Torrance Civic Auditorium.

Four sets of scenery, colorful costumes, and the latest in fluorescent lights, with snappy and clever dances in tap, ballet, vaudeville, and character will be featured in the two shows, both of which carry different themes. Wednesday's performance will highlight the "Dance Shop" with some one showing the outdoor activity at a little shop near Broadway, and some two spotlighting the shop interior.

"At the Fair," with two scenes depicting the entrance to the grounds and the Three Arts Bazaar Midway, will be theme of Thursday's show.

Photo Arts Photo

Students swing out on the number, "Satin" the Woods on Monday, one of the featured routines in Three Arts Dance Studio's 10th Annual Revue, to be held Wednesday and Thursday, June 23 and 24 at 7:30 p.m. at the Torrance Civic Auditorium. Left to right, back row are Virginia Ellen Gots, Mary Sue Pollock, Karen Brunel, Mary Lynn Crowder, Joan M. Eley, Diane Wray, Martha Frances (Gardner), Susan Birmingham; front row, Sandra King, Diane Dean, Jacqueline Pagan, Geraldine Daniels, Jean Yvonne Sorrell, and Sandra May Lamp. The group also will dance "The Breeze and I."

Ice Cream Social Set By Rebekahs

An ice cream social scheduled for next Wednesday, June 23, is next on the agenda for the Rebekah Lodge No. 291, according to Mrs. Robert Jacobs, press chairman.

Event will begin at 8 p.m. at the California Hall in Lodi, with The Subordinate Lodge Fellowship Lodge an special guests.

Also expected among those at the festivity are five new Rebekahs, who were initiated at last week's Wednesday meeting. Neophytes are Charles Barber and Ray Fennel Mues, Lillian Haupt, Arnel Barber, and Lillian Young.

Also admitted to membership in this by deposit of dues were Mrs. Edith Bench and Penny Cole. The brothers are members of the Tor Subordinate Lodge.

Evening commenced the official visit of Deputy Grand Master Arthur Tibert of the Grand Lodge of California, and Florence Bennett, past president of California. Other highlights included the appointment of Mrs. Blaine Schneider as good fellowship chairman for the ensuing year.

Fast noble grands, hostesses for the evening arranged a picnic supper of potato salad, sandwiches, pickles, and olives.

Torrance Families Plan Variety of Vacations

Vacation time is in the air and Torrance families have planned to spend their weeks in a variety of ways. Some are taking trips, others prefer to spend their vacations at home.

Carolina Island will be the summer home of the John Bell family, 4122 20th Street Ave. This morning the Bell family left on the steamer for Avon, Bill, Suzanne, Margaret and Mrs. Bell will enjoy the sea and sand of Catalina, and husband John will take time off from business for occasional weekends.

Friends of the family will visit the Bell family at their summer home in Avon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bartholomew, 3423 Acadia Ave., are calling their vacation a "concentration on education." They plan to take Karen, 8, and Bill, 5, in their car and trailer and travel northward. Among the sights they plan to see are the Redwoods in Northern California.

Painting and work in the garden has claimed the vacation of

Mrs. E. Brest Honored at G.S. Luncheon

Public function was served to honor Mrs. E. Brest, chairman of the G.S. Luncheon Monday at the home of Mrs. Edith Brest, 2207 W. 28th St. A lady luncheon was presented to Mrs. Brest by her committee chairman.

Mrs. Carl Ostlund, section committee chairman for 1954, discussed plans for the coming year. The women tested 25 varieties of cookies in preparation of the selection of the choice for the sale.

A public speaking workshop is on schedule for Junior High and Senior Scouts, who will meet with organizations in order to sell cookies as refreshments for the group. Six troops in the district area will be able to participate.

Among those attending the meeting were Mrs. Frank Wilson, Gardenia, Odell Fanning, E. C. Dismarsh, Paul Christman, Torrance, Francis Ford, and Peter, and C. F. Chittwood, Lomita.

In an effort to keep the program on a yearly basis, the group will meet in July and August.

Tomorrow Night Curtain Time for 'Cancioneros'

Curtain will go up on the fourth annual concert of Los Cancioneros, Hollywood's famed mixed chorus, tomorrow and Saturday nights at 8:35 o'clock at the Redondo Union High School auditorium.

Musical fare with a dramatic flavor from South America

RAY WALLACE — BARBARA MABIN Concert Production Chiefs

Gerald Photos

NEW AND OLD . . . Edith Smith, new president of the Torrance-Gardena Soroptimist Club, and Watson Ellis of Torrance, charter leader of the club and regional director for 1954-55, both seated, talk over the 13th biennial convention of the American Federation of Soroptimist Clubs which they plan to attend June 27 through July 2 at Bland, Can. Pictures with them are new officers, left to right, Helen Parrish, vice-president; Pearl Groat, corresponding secretary; Edna Salinas, recording secretary; Mary Lumbarger, treasurer; and Helen Dell, two-year director.

Soroptimists Seat New Chiefs, 'Graduate' Old

"Good Soroptimist" degrees were conferred upon outgoing officers of the Torrance-Gardena Soroptimist Club during an installation dinner Tuesday evening at the Western Club in Gardena.

Edith Smith, Charvagher, charter president of the Harbor District Soroptimist, conducted the graduation and also installed the new leaders, Mrs. Watson Ellis, outgoing president, was presented with a president's pin and a watch from the club.

Decorations for the event were centered around the club's colors, royal blue and gold, and Mrs. F. L. Parks was mistress of ceremonies for the occasion.

Installed into office were Mesdames Edith Smith of Gardena, president; Helen Parrish, vice-president; Pearl Groat, corresponding secretary; Edna Salinas, recording secretary; Mary Lumbarger, treasurer; Helen Dell, two-year director; and Edna Salinas, regional delegate.

Approximately 50, including members of the Harbor District Soroptimist Club, shared in the festivities.

Harbor City PTA Honors School Staff

Faculty and school personnel of the Harbor City School were honored at a luncheon given by PTA executive members Wednesday of last week in the school auditorium.

A spring motif was carried out in table decorations, and a luncheon complete to strawberry shortcake was served by the principal and faculty of the school.

Honored were Misses Avis Crouch, principal; Marian White, Ruth Brown, Mary Ann Brown, Alice Goddell, Violet Crawford, Gertrude Olson, R. Wilson, Mildred Dudley, Mary Griff, Julia Cuccel, Judy Border, Marnette Mastate, Susan Phippen and H. Hall; Messrs. R. Metcalf, Wilbur Cleary, Harold Ball, Sol Levy, John Young, and John McClintock, all members of the faculty.

Mrs. Myrna Drovica, school nurse; Mrs. A. Jenkins and Mrs. M. Kitcher, cafeteria manager and her helper; Porter and Mrs. Wilkins, custodians.

93 Graduate From North City School

Ninety-three graduates of North Torrance Elementary School got diplomas last week against a backdrop of an enormous diploma with the entire stage banked with spring flowers.

Professional, played by the school orchestra, led by Mrs. Doris Croser, opened the program. Ronald Tremain gave the welcome and class presentations, then the eighth grade choral group sang several selections.

Commencement speeches were made by Tommy Steinemann on "What Democracy Means to Me"; Sue Mills on "What America Means to Me"; and Mary Jensen on "Democracy in My Life."

The production will feature solos by Robert Werley, baritone, and Jean Sutton, contralto. A special feature will be piano solos by Burton Karson, recent graduate of Redondo Union High School. Karson is now a student at the University of Southern California School of Music and has been a student of Viola Niland and Paul Stoye.

All seats for the performance are reserved, and reservations may be made by calling FR 5-1633.

SOLOISTS TOLD The production will feature solos by Robert Werley, baritone, and Jean Sutton, contralto. A special feature will be piano solos by Burton Karson, recent graduate of Redondo Union High School. Karson is now a student at the University of Southern California School of Music and has been a student of Viola Niland and Paul Stoye.

All seats for the performance are reserved, and reservations may be made by calling FR 5-1633.

DON WRIGHT'S HOME AFTER 2-WEEK TRIP Home again at 1621 Juniper Ave. after a two-week vacation in the Midwest are Mr. and Mrs. Don A. Wright.

The local couple visited her mother, Mrs. P. A. Larson, at Columbus, Neb., and his sister and her husband, the Marvin Gosages at Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Clothes Topic For Y-Wives Tomorrow

"Clothes to suit the personality" will be the topic of Mrs. Bud Dahlen when she addresses the Y-Wives tomorrow morning, June 18 at 10:30 o'clock at the YWCA, 2320 W. Carson St.

The guest speaker was a former teacher for Rita La Roy Y-Wives will begin their Friday morning meeting at 9:30 o'clock with groups interested in crafts, volleyball, and table tennis getting together.

On schedule for the summer program are Thursday evening card parties, handicraft sessions, a beach party and a potluck supper for husbands and families. Information about the Y-Wives can be obtained by calling the YWCA at FA 2-5914.

Girl Scout Mothers Take Spotlight at Honor Court

Four mothers took the spotlight at a Court of Awards held by Girl Scout Troop 1006 last Friday night at the YWCA.

Tokens of appreciation were given to Mmes. Willis Castle, Albert Fredrickson, Frank Osterbach, and U. G. Tindmarsh for their services on trips and help in sewing, First Aid and textile painting.

Janice Fredrickson welcomed parents and guests to the meeting, and Donna Reids gave the three patrol leaders their badges. Kiyoko Takeuchi, Karen Crossman and Kimmye Takeuchi gave each girl the badge she had earned.

Songs by the Scouts, accompanied by Mrs. Roy Gore, included "Girl Scouts Together," "My Home's in Montana," "Call of the Fire" and "Taps." The girls served their parents and guests cookies, punch, and coffee. Mmes. P. M. Crossman and Dore Stanton, Scout leaders,

REVEAL SON'S BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Denny Redwood formerly of Torrance and now residing in Florida, are announcing the arrival of their first child, born June 4 at West Palm Beach.

The infant male, named Danny Michael, weighed 6 lbs. 10 1/2 oz.