Bradford presents Old Testament stories through the means of ventriloquism with an object lesson at the end of each. One of the best known is "Daniel in the Lion's Den" with imitations of the lions roaring. The Sunday night meeting will be the kick-off rally for Vacation Bible School. Mrs. Naomi McVey, 3825 W. 176th St., hosted the June 28th party of the North Torrance Canasta Lasses. First prize was won by Vera Wright, while booby prize was carted home by Enid Runsted. These are the group of gals that won a third prize ribbon at the Torrance Hobby Flower Show for their humorous patio arrangement. They say "en masse" not bad for canasta players! We think so, too!

Moira Louise Boell is the smart 7 lb. 1-oz. girl in our midst who cleverly picked Mr. and Mrs. William Boell, 4231 W. 174th St., as parents. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. A. L. MacKenzie, 4322 W. 179th St., on their 13th anniversary today, July 4th. Could this have been the reason for the gala private party given in Mrs. MacKenzie's honor at her home last Wednesday, June 30?

Mrs. R. W. Dohner, 17311 Prairie Ave., entertained 15 guests Tuesday, June 29, who dropped in to meet her mother, charming Mrs. M. Cable from Akron, O., who will be vacationing here till the middle of August.

Den 3 of Pack 953 spent Pirates Day last Monday the 28th in the Palos Verdes Estates Cove hunting for odd rocks and shells. Making sure that spear fishing was on the agenda for their boys to view was Mrs. John Hamilton, den mother, and her assistant, Mrs. Glenn Blake. Lucky boys were Dennis Ballou, Kenny Smuland, Mickey Brooks, Billy Mangiagli, John Hamilton, Jerry Blake and Norman Wagner.

Queen Carol Winter, 3880 W. 182nd St., of the North Torrance Civic Improvement Association, has Fair tickets available at her home for those interested in procuring them. Her phone number is MElo 4-7532.

All North Torrance residents will be eligible for an array of gifts, according to plans being formulated by the Fair committee of the NCTIA, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Clara Craine. Aside from untiring efforts being redoubled in order to keep their queen on top, a further incentive has been offered in the form of a prize being given by the civic group to the person selling the most tickets each week, and after the six-week period, the person selling the largest overall amount of tickets, will procure an additional prize of $75 in merchandise or $50 in cash. These high finances intrigue me, how about you? MElo 4-7532!

Neighbors and friends of the D. Dorns and their three young ones, Lois, Elaine and Roger, of 16937 Eastwood Ave., are busily welcoming them back from their two-week vacation trip in Winona, Minn.

Birthday greetings are going out to Janice Parsons, of 18311 Regina Ave., who became 11 years of age last Friday and also her sweet 6-year-old sister, Connie Jean, who is a Fourth of July dimpled miss. Handsome, energetic Gary Parsons completes the birthday happy household when he becomes 16 on July 5. All birthdays in the Parsons Manor are celebrated with neighbors and family eating birthday cake and all the trimmings.

Kindness personified was the setting for the baby shower held for Rita Mae Rosenberg when all her neighbors hosted the event, which was held in the home of Mrs. W. As we look back at our calendar July 4 changes to men attending a Service Club, building homes, playing with their children, going to work in new automobiles, choosing one candidate from many, marking their ballots secretly, going to their church; the scene changes. Out of the past we see a document come into sharp focus; it is the Declaration of Independence. Men of all faiths, from all corners of the world, proudly hold it aloft, embrace its tenets, work harmoniously for the good of themselves and their neighbors, their sons proudly wear the uniform of their Country, fight to perpetuate a freedom found nowhere else on earth.

We bow our heads and who would rather die than wear the shackles of servitude, whose patriotism is an irresistible force from which Freedom was born.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Blake and son, Jerry, and Frieda entertained in their exclusive patio setting of 16825 Thornburgh Ave., for the very first time in a very informal al fresco manner. Feeling very delighted and honored were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. MacKenzie and sons, Kenny and Freddy, and Mrs. Margaret Garrity, with daughter Rita from San Pedro. Friend of everyone, was the title bestowed on Mrs. Garrity, when she lived within Northwest Torrance a year ago. Her friends will be greatly interested to know that she is now the president of the Barton Hill PTA in San Pedro. Good luck to a very deserving person!

We know that the worst is over for patient 3-year-old Teddy Slatten, 18329 Roslin Ave., who had to have a boil removed from his knee. Nary a sound from his lips, but just a trace of a tear could be seen escaping from the eyelid.

Miss Judith Daly of Chicago, Ill., is the houseguest of the Jack White's, 4308 W. 178th St., and will call her vacation to a halt the second week in August. Welcome to our community, Judith, and good luck to you, David White. Young David recently underwent eye surgery and is in the midst of convalescing.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack White, among other neighbors from 178th St., were both surprised and excited at seeing former neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stubblefield, from Roseburg, Ore., on their short stopover visit on their way home after vacationing in Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Erich Schuster and son, Richard, and Mr. and Mrs. John Metzler of 182nd St., had fun galore at the picnic in Sierra Madre, held by the "Froh-sinn" singing club, of whom Mr. Schuster is a member.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Baillie, 4222 W. 179th St., entertained Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Steele and children, Debbie, Richard and Jimmy from Lebanon, Mo., on their four-day stay, and immediately turned around and hosted a dinner party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. John Avensmeyer with daughter, Sandy; Mrs. Lopez, Mrs. Hedrick and son Bobby. All this and college, too! Yes, Baillie is taking training to become an elementary school teacher.

Reflections
By J. HUGH SHERFEY, JR.

4th OF JULY
Church bells ring joyously. We see children, all happy, going to the church of their choice. We see a white-haired man, erect, proud, affectionately holding the arm of a dainty snow-haired lady, enter the door of their sanctuary; we hear them sing songs of praise to Him, - that's a freedom. A mail train streaks to its destination; not one, single, letter has been censored - that too is one of our freedoms.
