

Torrance Film Wins Applause

The Torrance Chamber of Commerce film, "Torrance, the City of Industrial Opportunity," brought down the house when shown at the Western Institute of Management and Trade Association Executives, according to Secretary Dale Isenberg.

Isenberg, who attended the institute on the Stanford campus, persuaded officials to let him show the film. It received much applause, he said, and the institute paper called it "one of the best produced and edited films we have ever seen."

"That's a million dollar picture," Isenberg commented. More than 200 representatives of chambers of commerce and other executives, from 11 western states, Hawaii, and Alaska, attended the week-long meeting.

Hobo Winners At Park Told

Winners in a Hobo Day contest at Torrance Park Friday were revealed this week by the Recreation Department. Judges Doris Avis and Vern Wolfe named the following winners:

Funniest hobo—Mark Tolo, Felicia Ripley, Walter Clark.
Most appropriate—Margaret Ripley, Ann Cassetta, Walter Iseleb.
Hobo's Hobo—Billy Piercy, Denny Ripley, et al. between Delpha Elliott and Terry Korth.
Oldest—Paul Thornton, 12, youngest—David Elliott, 2.

A treasure hunt, with lollipops as prizes, wound up the afternoon.

Pick to Postal School

The San Pedro Post Office will be represented by Adolph Pick, 25606 Belle Porte, Harbor City, in the Post Office Department's national motor vehicle accident prevention instructor's program.
