

WESTERN BEAUTY MEETS EASTERN BEAUTY... Sandra Lea Constance, last year's "Miss Torrance" and this year's "Miss California," pauses for a moment as she embraces Karen Hultman, "Miss New York." Both girls are competing in the "Miss Universe" contest now being held at Long Beach.

The short tempers due to parking difficulties, were soon cooled by the warm sea breeze as the Cub Pack 761-C met for its July meeting at Playa del Rey.

Cubs, fathers and mothers ran sack races and played softball. Wieners and marshmallows were roasted over a campfire.

Later the following awards were made:

Wolf badges: David Bruce, Bill Cunerty, Bill Langston, Carey Hubert, Jimmy Jensen, Edward Davis, Gold arrows, Carey Hubert, Jimmy Jensen, Silver arrows, Jan Osnes, Eric Cortez, Michael Towell, Jimmy Porter, Jimmy Jensen. Bear badges: Clifford Crain, Wayne Farris, Walter Davis, Assistant danner stripes to Bill Cunerty, and Danner Stripes to Jimmy Porter. Den 6 will get to attend the month's special outing because of highest parent participation. Cubs in Den 6—David Bruce, Glen Terry, Jan Osnes, and Wayne Farris, Clifford Crain, Michael Towell and Eric Cortez are eagerly awaiting to hear when they are to go!

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moss, 1708 Ermanita Ave., entertained 14 guests at a canasta party in their lovely garden Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Moss' culinary specialties are dishes from her native Hungary that are a delight to her friends.

The Larry Dorseys, 17512 Falda Ave., spent a recent weekend in Phoenix visiting his sister, who was seriously ill.

Peggy Sale, 17092 Ainsworth Ave., decided to take advantage of her freedom while her two children, Cheryl and Billy were vacationing in Texas, and spent four days in Phoenix with her sister.

Since husband Bill has been on vacation, however, they have been playing golf, from miniature to regular. She, of course, and Bill has covered the greens in a little motor scooter! A real outdoor girl!

One day they motored to the San Diego Zoo to see how the other half lives!

All of you Fuchsia Society numbers and garden lovers will be glad to hear Lorna Paulson, past president of California Fuchsia Society and friend of many in our North Torrance branch, will appear on the Naval Gillespie TV show to plug the California Fuchsia Society show at Hollywood Park on July 31 and Aug. 1.

Two other North Torrance entries in the Soap Box Derby in Long Beach are Gregory Harris and Mark Sherwood.

Bald Sewell, son of Cassius Sewell, Patronella Ave., is at YMCA camp for a week.

Ann West, 17567 Glenburn Ave., was the recipient of another shower on Sunday.

Hostesses were Mesdames Mildred Pansy and Carol Amendola, and it was held at the latter's home in Gardena.

Table appointments were beautifully carried out in blue and rosebud yellow.

There was a floral centerpiece of blue carnations and a stork carrying a baby in a yellow rosebud diaper.

Blue tapers were surrounded by yellow daisies.

Receiving the yellow rosebud diaper invitations to the luncheon were: Nancy Norminton, La Rue Brooks, Colleen West, Jerry Lockmann, Corinne Clement, Bea West, Jan Besse, Pat Stamm, Connie Gustum, Margaret Minck, Vera West, Mary Manich, and Viola Mansuette.

A ham buffet supper was served to Jan and Ken Bass, Marlene and Bob Doyle, Pat and Stu Avera, Peggy and Bill
