

54 New Families to Move into Southwest Knolls Tract Soon

By AGNES MOSELEY
FR 5-4304

Shortly we residents of Victoria Terrace and Sepulveda Gardens will have 54 new neighbors, those families who have purchased homes in the new Southwest Knolls tract. May I introduce a few of these families to you? Ex-San Fernando Valleyites are the John Hamiltons and the George Millers. Betty and John Hamilton reside at 22617 Ellinwood Dr. John is a civil engineer with Milton Kaufman, builder of the tract. Jane and George Miller and children Mike, Peter, and Pamela live at 5004 Reynolds Dr. The Thomases, Dick and Jolynn and children Rick, Judy, and Bobby have taken up their new residence at 22628 Ellinwood Dr. Margaret and Clyde Miller are already fencing their new yard at 22633 Lupine St. with the help of their children Mike, Steve and Kathi. Clyde Miller is director of Little League in Redondo Beach.

Welcome also to our area are Helen and Jack Hoffoss and their family. The Hoffosses have moved into 22614 Leyte Dr.

Carol and Kenneth Highley and son, Bobbie, 22317 Ellinwood Dr., returned last Sunday from a week's vacation at Lake Tahoe. The Highleys camped in Bliss State Park where they say facilities for camping are the best they have ever encountered. The highlight of their vacation was the boating which they did at Emerald Bay. They also visited friends in Sacramento.

Cliff Thomas, along with his newly adopted mother and father, Betty and Jack Thomas, have also returned from a real "back to nature" vacation in the Tahoe area. The Thomases chose Wright Lake and a wilderness cabin for a fishing site. The trout that they caught at their high-altitude vacation spot tasted twice as luscious when cooked on a wood stove and eaten in the invigorating air of 8500 ft. as the trout which might be purchased in a market and eaten at home. Cliff, who is 7, has made his home with the Thomases at 22477 Marjorie Ave. for the past 7 months, but his adoption was not legally completed until July 13. All three Thomases thought this a fitting milestone in their lives to celebrate with a vacation. All heartily recommend Wright Lake as the ideal vacation spot.

Opal and Elton Appleyard, 22522 Reynolds Dr., have returned home after a four-week tour of some of the Western National Parks and a visit to Nebraska. The Thomases, Dick and Jolynn and children Rick, Judy, and Bobby have taken up their new residence at 22628 Ellinwood Dr. Margaret and Clyde Miller are already fencing their new yard at 22633 Lupine St. with the help of their children Mike, Steve and Kathi. Clyde Miller is director of Little League in Redondo Beach.

The Appleyards' trip came to an unpleasant climax near Grangeville, Ida., when Elton broke his leg while hiking. The break is mending well, however, and the Appleyards have many fine memories of an otherwise perfect vacation.

The Barneys, Lois and Bud, who reside at 22403 Marjorie Ave., entertained 35 business friends at an open house last Sunday, July 25. A buffet repast included baked ham, macaroni salad, assorted cheeses, rolls, cake, and coffee. Marty and Ken Daniels, 22322 Evelyn Ave., were among the Barneys' friends from this area.

Bob Goetz, 5029 Milne Dr., has sworn into the law profession in two very impressive ceremonies on Tuesday, July 27. Along with 187 other new members of his profession, he was sworn into the State Court of California. The oath of office was administered by the clerk and Federal Judge Yankwich gave a dissertation on the defending of the Constitution. Goetz was also sworn into the Federal Court along with a larger group of lawyers.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Meyer have returned to their home in Altoona, Pa., after visiting their son and his family, Harold and Jane Meyer, and children, Dennis and Jacklyn, who reside at 5012 Sepulveda Blvd.

Bernice Boyer, 5030 Sepulveda Blvd., was surprised and thrilled by a call from her Navy husband last week. Fred Boyer contacted his family via a ham radio-telephone hook-up from Yokosuka, Japan. Bernice has been among the busiest of Sepulveda Gardenites this week, having just returned from Mira Loma where she helped her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Elkermann, move into a new home. Rev. Elkermann, moving from Inglewood, will become minister of the Free Methodist Church in Mira Loma.

Upon returning home Bernice greeted her brother, Everett Elkermann, who will visit for two weeks. He comes from Lindsey, Calif., where he is a teacher. He will teach history and science in San Gabriel next year.

Mary Alyce Martinez, 22221 Ellinwood Dr., was hostess to her neighborhood Canasta Club on Wednesday, July 28, at 8 p.m. Artie Lanier, Doris Hooley, Nancy McKeoby, Ruth Lombard, Shirley Philbrick, and Jacques Lewis enjoyed an evening of canasta and delicious refreshments.

Newest Star Arrives on Scene At Harold Rosenberg Residence

By VERA C. WRIGHT
FR 2-3238

Just received in the mail a 20th Century production notice stating that a brand new star, Loretta Bea Rosenberg, made a special appearance at the Torrance Memorial Hospital on July 25. The district father and patient mother, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rosenberg, 18336 Regina Ave., commented that although their star is a newcomer weighing only eight pounds and three ounces, she shows great talent for keeping the center of the stage and that she is capable of boldest as well as a very appealing performance and has already won lifetime fans.

The distinguished looking gentleman residing at the 4224 W. 178th St., who has been named "Camp Counselor" of the garden branch of the YMCA and he has been assigned to a week's camping trip in that capacity and he leaves on the 2nd of August.

Persons living in the vicinity of the R. Mackin, 18244 Roslin Ave., home, who keep hearing the record, "Rock-A-Baby" and "You've Got Me Crying Again," please keep in mind that 16-day-old Cheryl Ann Mackin has a mind of her own. Although she only weighs eight pounds, two ounces, she can really throw her weight around for she is the only youngster in the Mackin household. She is interested in these particular musical interludes!

The happiest El Nidoan of the week is Mrs. Stanley McDowell, 18311 Greville St., upon the visit of her sister and niece from Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Meredith, 18312 Greville St., were entertained by their five-month-old niece Janice Meredith who spent a week with them. Other vacationers who have landed at the Meredith home were her sister Mrs. C. Griffin and niece Debbie from Milwaukee, Wis. They were treated to see the sights within the South Bay District and enjoyed Knott's Berry Farm immensely.

Having the courage to stick to their convictions is a virtue to be proud of and rightly so in the case of Mr. and Mrs. A. Kupka, 4239 178th Pl., when they decided to paint their home oxide trim trimmed with cream in the midst of friendly protests. It's different, it's gay and we like it.

It really rained bundles from the August meeting of the North Torrance Civic Improvement Association at McMaster Hall, 8616 W. 174th St. This fine organization emphasizes the fact that anyone residing in North Torrance can become members upon paying their dues of two dollars per year. Such a fine group of citizens deserve the cooperation of all North Torrance citizens. Everyone in the area who has a problem whether it be large or small can be assured fair treatment regardless of whether they are members or not. Their interest sincerely lies in civic improvement. Good luck to a swell group!

Keeping young men in order is a pleasure to Larry Cornwell, 4347 W. 180th St., who has been named "Camp Counselor" of the garden branch of the YMCA and he has been assigned to a week's camping trip in that capacity and he leaves on the 2nd of August.

heaven in July and the happiest little bundle in the form of Charles Lindsay, Jr., landed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lindsay, 18330 Greville St. Congratulations!

Fairy tales can come true as discovered by Juliette Ann McVey, 3825 W. 178th St. when sixteen of her friends gathered at her home Saturday, July 24, to celebrate her birthday. Center of attraction was the story-book cake which was decorated with gum drop windows and doors and had suckers with faces depicting persons coming out of the story book home. The motif was carried out so effectively that Miss McVey did not receive her ten birthday spankings!

Mr. and Mrs. Mary B. Brummett, 4308 W. 178th St., happily welcomed mother Stella Price who arrived from Colorado Springs on an extended visit. It is difficult to realize that this is the same dear lady who was so badly burned and so near death and had to undergo plastic surgery who now travels cross country spreading happiness along the way. Good luck Mrs. Price and God bless brave people like yourself.

Douglas Mowe, 18254 Kingsdale Ave., is busily preparing for his camping trip to Camp Round Meadow on the 3rd of August. Douglas's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mowe are among the most active couples in El Nido. Mrs. Mowe is not only president of the El Nido Womens Baptist Missionary Circle but also vice-president of the El Nido Civic Association, while Mr. Mowe is the president of the Men's Brotherhood of the El Nido Baptist Church.

Mrs. A. B. Cowie's friends will be delighted to know that she is now up and around and was last seen trying to fill up all the pickle barrels at 4418 - 152nd St. Good luck and please stay well, Mrs. Cowie.

Mrs. Enid Runsted, ways and means chairman of the El Nido PTA, would like to know if there is a jigsaw available to be used by the unit in getting prepared for their carnival. If you own a jigsaw that this group could borrow, will you please contact Mrs. Runsted at FR 9-5065.

Luckiest person in town is Agnes Verris, 4234 W. 181st St., whose mother-in-law sent her one of the loveliest hooked rugs in town.

Herald Staffman Leaves to Join Inglewood Paper

William E. King Jr., associated with the display advertising department of THE HERALD for the past six years, has joined the staff of the Inglewood Daily News.

King, who has many close friends in Torrance where he has been a member of the Kiwanis Club and other fraternal and social groups, will continue to reside here. King's position as advertising manager will remain open for the present, Glenn Pfeil, general manager, has announced. Joining THE HERALD advertising staff this week was Mel Murphy, formerly of the Glendale News-Press.

Tract OK'd by Planners The Regional Planning Commission has approved a subdivision containing 13 acres and 55 lots located in the Avalon-Sepulveda District. It was reported Friday. The tract, being subdivided by E. N. & C. G. Frame, of Redondo Beach, is located south of 228rd St. and west of Main St.

North Torrance business men were in luck Friday, July 23 with the N.T.C.I.A. serving them breakfast at 7:30 a.m. It is hoped that this will become an annual affair. Hot cakes, bacon, orange juice and coffee with delicious home made syrup made up the menu to delight the business men's palates.

Walter M. Bugbee of the Ames Painting Co., 1854 Jaybrook Drive in San Pedro, is pictured above with his partner Carl Boerschig who handles the interior decorating end of the business which has been in this area since 1941. Both partners offer guaranteed work on everything they do from spray and brush painting to paperhanging and waterproofing. A call to TE 3-4802 or TE 3-2220 anytime will receive prompt attention.
