New Nativity Group Slates Dance Tonight

Their very first social event—a dance—will be held tonight by members of the newly-formed Young Peoples' Group of the Nativity Catholic Church.

Scheduled from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock, the affair will be held at the church parish hall, 1420 Coia Ave. Prospective members, who must be between the ages of 15 and 30, are cordially invited to attend, according to Mary Jean Hazlett, secretary. Refreshments of punch and cookies will be served.

The new group was organized last Tuesday evening when officers were elected. Father P. J. McGuinness officiated at the meeting, and rules and procedures were discussed. Membership will be for the senior age group, between 18 and 30.

The club hopes to enable young people in the church to become better acquainted, and social activities such as beach parties, recreational sports and trips to various plays, etc. are on the prospective social agenda.

Tomorrow

Babies, Pre-school Tots Go on Playground Parade

Beautiful babies and pre-school tots will vie for ribbons tomorrow when El Nido Playground, located at 186th St. and Hawthorne Blvd., holds its first baby show.

Ribbons will be awarded in three groups, and prizes will go in each one to babies having the darkest, reddest, curliest and longest hair; bluest, darkest, longest lashed and prettiest eyes; fairest, most tanned, most freckled skin; best postured; most talented; and best-behaved. Ribbons will also be awarded to the youngest baby and the child who comes from farthest away.

An outstanding boy and girl will be chosen from each group and awarded a rosette. From these finalists a King and Queen of El Nido will be chosen.

Judging will begin at 1:30 p.m. This event will be co-sponsored by the Los Angeles County and Torrance Recreation Departments and the Torrance Unified School District.

Dr. Davies Enters Navy; Optimists Say 'Farewell'

Navy duty has called Dr. William Davies temporarily away from his 1220 Teri Ave. home, where his wife and children will stay during his two-year service term.

The Torrance physician left Monday afternoon for Corona for his indoctrination. He will be stationed there from four to six weeks, as a lieutenant senior grade.

Torrance residents for about a year and a half, Dr. and Mrs. Davies have three children, Catherine, aged 4, Mary, 2½, and Johnny, who is just eight months. The couple lived at 906 Patronella Ave. before moving to the Teri Ave. home.

Dr. Davies is a general practitioner and his office was at 2406 Torrance Blvd. An active member of the Optimist Club, he is also a member of the Los Angeles County Medical Association, Knights of Columbus, and the Sacred Heart Society.

Saturday night fellow Optimists feted their departing member at the David Figueredo home, 1730 Date Ave. Saying farewell were Messrs. and Mrs. Figueredo, Forrest W. Meyers, Clyde Anderson, Reid Bundy, Cliff Graybehl, Vern Lovelady, Hal Massie, Allen Pyeatt, Chris Sorensen; Tom Westfall, Paul McPheeters, H. G. Trezise and Earl Tucker.

THS Grads Reveal Nuptials; Establish Home in Monrovia

Announcing their wedding to the HERALD this week were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Eugene Edmonds (nee Sally Anne Collins), who were married July 16 at 9:15 a.m. at Highland Park's Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd.

The bride, a Torrance High School graduate, is the daughter of Walker Holland of Modesto.

Housewarming Party Fetes Don Hartels

Getting together at Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hartel's 22646 La Deene Ave. home Saturday night were friends and neighbors to welcome the new residents at a housewarming.

Buffet dinner, with cool summer dishes, was served. For dessert there was a large cake topped with a miniature house, carrying out the motif, and inscribed with Don and Nancy.

Arranging the party were Mmes. Merritt Hartel, Paul Woofler and James R. Wilkes. There for the evening were Messrs. and Mmes. George Roy, Merel Johnson, James F. Wilkes, James R. Wilkes, Finley McKay, Merritt Hartel, Paul Woofler, James Cicchini, Mrs. Dolores Lambert, and Miss Dorothy Whiting. Invited but not able to attend were Messrs. and Mmes. Glen Madsen, Merle McPherrin and Curley Evins.

Miss Shearer Engaged to Spokane Man

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shearer of 2816 Gramery Ave. are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Phyllis, to Marvin Maxwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Maxwell of Spokane, Wash.

The bride-elect received her early education in Parson, Kansas and was graduated in 1950 from San Pedro High School. She is a graduate of El Camino College and has been attending UCLA.

Maxwell is a graduate of North Central High School in Spokane and is a senior in the Industrial Arts Department at the University of California, Santa Barbara College. He served 23 months with the Army engineers.

The affianced couple will exchange vows on Sept. 5 at the First Methodist Church in Torrance.

C. Curtiss Family Attends Laguna Festival of Arts

Laguna's Festival of Arts was on the vacation agenda of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Curtiss, 1321 Engracia Ave., when they took a five day trip to the beach city last week.

Daughters Kathie and Adele enjoyed swimming in the hotel pool and the living pictures, part of the Festival of Arts program. The Curtiss family returned to Torrance Thursday.

Inner Powers Topic Tonight

"Unfolding of Inner Powers" will be the topic tonight at 8 o'clock when the Aquarians hold their weekly meeting at the Neptunian Club, 920 Highland Ave., Manhattan Beach.

Ernest McBride, writer and lecturer from the Glendale Metaphysical Center, will take the speaker's rostrum for the evening. McBride also speaks at the Metaphysical Library and Book Shop in San Francisco. He believes that there are latent powers in every individual that can be developed and will emphasize this point in his lecture.

There is no admission charge and the public is invited to attend. Further information may be obtained by calling FR 4-7798 or FR 2-9869.

Hold Birthday Surprises for Riviera Tots

Two birthdays were celebrated at the Hollywood Riviera School recreation room recently.

Monday, July 26, the recreation group was surprised when Mrs. Robert Palmer, 2223 Paseo de Granda, brought lighted birthday cakes to celebrate the fourth birthday of her twin children, Lawrence and Elizabeth Palmer. Games played after refreshments rounded out the festive occasion.

One week later on Monday, Aug. 2, Margaret Palmer celebrated her 10th birthday. A large chocolate cake, which the birthday girl baked herself, was served with punch and candy sticks.

MADRONA DRAWS UP TENTATIVE BUDGET

Madrone PTA board members met last Thursday for their first meeting since school dismissed in June to ratify new chairman for the coming year.

Those who will serve are Mmes. Paul Schetanus, art; Sam Borland, coffee; Walter Max, inspiration; Leonard Radford, hospitality; Ralph King, legislature; Elbert Steele, magazine; Marge Norma, membership; W. W. Jackson, publicity and record book; Jack Hadley, mimeograph; Lou Burrows, newsette; Joyce Turner, music; Phil Patton, room mother; and Bud Dahlen, telephone.

HAGANS HOME WITH SIERRA TROUT LIMITS

Back to Torrance with three limits in High Sierra trout, are Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Hagan of 1751 Elm St. and their daughters Bonnie, 8, and Judy, 11.

The two-week vacation also traveled to Reno, Carson City, and Virginia City, Nev., during their trip. They camped and fished in the June Lake area in the High Sierras.
