Four Students Publish Works

Would be writers might make a note of the fact that four students of Mrs. Elizabeth Chater's classes in creative writing at Palos Verdes College have either published works or have won prizes in writers' contests recently.

Hitting pay dirt already were Noble Jones, Eleanor Gilbert, Harold Ralkin, and Marybeth Hornbeck. All were in Mrs. Chater's class last year.

Registration for fall classes at the college gets under way today and will remain open for two weeks. Evening classes are being arranged for creative writing courses and others.

Evangelist Opens Tent Revival in Harbor City

A two-month "Crusade for Christ" opened yesterday at the Bible Tent Auditorium, Pacific Coast Hwy. and President Ave., under the direction of Evangelist Gerry Hardy of London.

"Did a Good God Make a Bad Devil?" will be Hardy's topic Wednesday night and "Heaven" will be his Friday subject. A special youth night will be held Saturday with the movie "In His Name" to be shown and a sermon on "A Bargain Day for Sinners." The crusade is under the auspices of the Seventh Day Adventist Church.

Harbor Tech Drama Class Rosters Open

Enrollment in Harbor Tech's drama workshop class under the direction of Dan B. Desmond will be held this afternoon at 4 p.m., prospective students were reminded today.

The class will consist of basic stage techniques, personality development, and other phases of the theater. A full length play will be produced in the fall, Desmond said.

Desmond is a former drama teacher at Torrance High School.

Obituaries

Pearl Stern

Funeral services were held Saturday for Mrs. Pearl Stern, 66, resident of Torrance for 18 years, who died Wednesday at Harbor General Hospital.

Services were held at Stone and Myers Chapel conducted by the Rev. C. M. Northrup of the First Baptist Church. Interment was held at Inglewood Cemetery.

Mrs. Stern, a native of Ohio, lived at 1904 Andrea Ave. She is survived by her husband, George, of the home address; a daughter, Elizabeth Fankbender, of Huntington Park; three sisters, Georgia Moore, of Oakland, Calif., Hazel Holsted, of South Gate, and Rachel Grubbs, of Rivera; and fourth brothers, Donald Dykes, of San Diego, Jeptha Dykes, of 1639 W. 216th St., James T. Dykes, of Yreka, Calif., and Edgar Dykes, of South Gate.

OK of Budget Is Expected

With formulation of a pay raise plan for employees, the Torrance City Council is expected to adopt a record $1,624,000 budget for the fiscal year at its meeting tomorrow night.

The newly adopted three-step plan of advancement for municipal employees will grant salary increases to about 90 per cent of city employees, according to City Manager George Stevens.

Salary increases will cost about $100,000 a year, Stevens said, with funds transferred from the present unappropriated reserve to individual department allotments. The raises are retroactive to July 1.

Gas Tax Nets County 1.7 Million Revenue

Los Angeles County's share of gasoline tax revenue for July was $1,705,813, according to figures released by State Controller Robert C. Kirkwood.

The total distribution to California counties was $22,224,098, an increase of about four and one half per cent over June, and a 17 per cent increase over the same month last year.

Young Polio Victim Returns Home, Will Not Be Crippled

By VERA C. WRIGHT
FR 2-2888

The Chamber of Commerce should meet Mrs. Chester Adams with her 10-year-old Kathy and 12-year-old Remi, who has been spending an extended vacation since July with her sister, Mrs. Charles Davis of 1213 Amie Ave. She will use her persuasive powers on her husband in October when he will visit them from Chicago, in order that she may also become a resident in our community. Adding further enjoyment to the Davis household was the Aug. 25 birthday celebration for Miss Janie Davis on her first birthday.

Butterfly wings covered with get-well wishes are being flown to young Jerome Lemberger, 4103 W. 174th St., who just arrived home from the Long Beach Community Hospital. He had just returned home from his vacation on Aug. 22 when he was whisked away to the Harbor General Hospital with a slight case of polio. He admits quite readily that the therapy treatments weren't fun but he was extremely excited over passing the contagious stage and is very, very happy that he will not suffer bad effects. He will be able to continue being an active Cub Scout in Pack 953-C.

Vacationing in Balboa was exciting to Mr. and Mrs. R. Bunick but not half as exciting as returning home just in time to greet Mrs. Bunick's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dobrinich of Hawthorne, Nev., who had decided to pay them a surprise visit. Can't help but wonder what would have happened if the Bunicks had not arrived home on that particular day and the Dobrinichs would have found the 4119 W. 173rd Pl. Bunick home empty? Oh well, all's well, that ends well.

They say that the proof of the pudding is in the eating, and so reluctantly I must admit that Sequoia has something that Northwest Torrance does not have, and the reason that I must admit that is because over two-thirds of the people in our community vacationed at least a portion of their vacation time, if not all of it, in Sequoia. It's no wonder that there is where Mr. and Mrs. Andrew L. Hanson, of 17288 Eastwood, with their five youngsters—Lory, Mark, Teri, Lynn, and Carl pitched a tent and are still exclaiming that they had a wonderful time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carnello were the happiest residents in San Diego last week with the unexpected visit of relatives from our community. Mr. and Mrs. William Boell and their children Gregor, Willy, and Moira spent part of their vacation with the Carnellos.

The Labor Day week-end was a busy and enjoyable one for the A. Kupka family, of 4274 W. 178th St., who spent it at Barton Flats. Judy, Sharon, and Jerry are still thinking mom and dad Kupka for their week-end of pleasure.

Mrs. Juanita Alford, 17230 Atkinson, is all set to play hostess to the Alpha Society at their September meeting where they will catch up with all their hand-made articles which will be sold at their annual September bazaar. I do not belong to the Alpha Society so am not prejudiced when I say that if you haven't been to one of their bazaars, you are missing one of the finest things in life.

Lake Tahoe was enhanced with the presence of that handsome couple, Mr. and Mrs. M. Love, from 18221 Thornburgh Ave., who spent a week within the comforts of a beautiful mountain cabin and enjoying the many diversions offered at the spa.

Motoring along the coast highway provided them with beautiful scenery enroute to Montecito, San Francisco, and Oakland. On their return trip the inland route was taken to provide them with opportunity to visit with relatives at Turlock and Modesto for a few days.

Little does 13-year-old Judy Daily of Chicago realize how much she is missed at the Jack E. White household, 4300 W. 178th Pl., not only by Mr. and Mrs. White but also by young Deanna, Leo, and David. Judy spent the entire summer with the Whites and flew back to Chicago on the 31st of August. Among her precious treasures this smart young lady took back was a swim award which she received by taking advantage of the lessons at Alondra, sponsored by the Kiwanis.

Wrightwood was the location selected for a friendly picnic by Mr. and Mrs. A. Young, of 3767 W. 174th St., and Mr. and Mrs. G. Blake and son Jerry. They left our community in the midst of a heat wave and arrived at Wrightwood at the end of a summer rainfall. The scent of the wet pine needles and the sight of the evergreen trees with water still dripping off their branches provided a picturesque background for the cool, clear air that was breathed in by the happy group.

Sincere get well soon wishes are extended to Mrs. H. Verris, 4234 W. 181st St., who has been very ill. Her son, Art Verris, is recuperating from an illness also, and his wife Agnes is still working.

Reflections

By J. HUGH SHERFEY, JR.

"STOP! BE STILL"

"Be still and know that I am God," is an imperative command.

We have periods (.) as an indication of a stop. We have rest periods in music. A fruit-tree has a rest period. The earth revolves around its axis to give us night—a rest period. Stop! Be still. Rest! Gain poise and peace in your everyday affairs.

During the greatest trials any President ever faced, Lincoln closed his office door to be alone with his soul and his God. Grandeur, alone, is not the lure of mountains or giant redwood trees; there it is still, you feel the peace of nature's cathedral.

"Be still and know that I am God," need not be in a forest or lonely mountain dell; you may be still where you are, on the busiest boulevard or humble room where noise batters at your door. You are close to God in your church; go often.
