

Chest Movie To Be Shown On Thursday

Peter Graves, star of "Endless Days," 1954 Community Chest film which will be shown at the Torrance Theater next Thursday, Sept. 23, at 8 p.m., will accompany the film to town, according to Mrs. Ella Schwartz.

Interesting sidelights on filming of the 1954 drama will be given by Graves. The showings will be for the entire Harbor area. Graves will appear on a full hour program preceding the 15-minute film.

Angela Ackerson, 19-year-old Red Feather representative from the Honor Toberman Settlement in San Pedro, will act as emcee for the program, and interview four local Community Chest volunteers.

The 1954 Red Feather story—the new "Fair Share Plan"—will be given by Area Chairman Tommy Thompson. Entertainment will be furnished by members of the local chapter of the "Sweet Adelines."

Fly-Over Here Slated Sunday

Pilots from the Torrance area are expected to join with hundreds of other plane owners Sunday in a combination Air Rally and Fly-Over originating from East Long Beach.

The Flying Finn Twins, recently detained in Federal Prison while investigation was made regarding purchase of a government surplus plane, will speak to the air minded group prior to the flight.

Plane owners will pass over Torrance Municipal Field shortly after 2:15 p.m., according to a schedule released by the East Long Beach Airport Management Club.

Fury Feline Trapped In Mail Box Rescued By Torrance Officers

Tradition has it that cat's have 9 lives. Here's one cat that has only 8—he used up one Saturday.

Rescued from a sure week-end death in a postal box at Dalemead St. and Weston Rd., by Torrance policemen Eugene Erbetta and R. C. Wright was a small cat, evidently placed in the container by juveniles.

Thomas Moran, of 2936 Dalemead St., notified officers when he heard the animal crying.

No-Fund Check Charge

Stacy Carlson Spilan, 26, of 3128 W. 187th Pl., has pleaded guilty in Los Angeles Superior Court, to charges that she wrote checks with insufficient funds.

Obituaries

Virginia Stallings

Funeral services for Miss Virginia Cestelle Stallings, 42, WALTERIA school teacher, were held at Pacific Crest Cemetery Wednesday. She died Monday of cancer.

Miss Stallings, of 22003 Moneta Ave., had taught at the Walteria School since 1950. She had previously taught in San Antonio, Tex., schools.

A native of Texas, she graduated from the University of Texas, and did post-graduate work at UCLA.

She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Stallings, and a sister, Mrs. Georgia Mae Brown, all of San Antonio.

The ashes will be sent to San Antonio following cremation. The McMillan Mortuary, of Gardena, handled funeral arrangements.

Elizabeth Brown

Funeral services were held for Elizabeth Caroline Brown, 85, on Tuesday at A. M. Ganby Chapel in Lomita, with the Rev. Eldon Durham conducting the services.

The deceased, who lived at 25105 Walnut Ave., Lomita, and had been in Lomita for the past 30 years, died in Long Beach, September 11th. She was born in Lancaster, Wis. Interment was at Green Hills Memorial Park.

Mrs. Brown is survived by two sons, John Edward Brown and Archie A. Brown, both of Lomita; two daughters, Edith Blackburn, of Wisconsin, and Isabelle McCuiston, of Woodlake, Calif.; five grandsons; and nine great-grandchildren.

Elmer S. Connett

Funeral services for Elmer S. Connett, former Torrance resident and father of realtor Perry Connett, will be held in Stone and Myers Chapel at 2 p.m. Saturday.

Mr. Connett, who lives in Yucaipa, died Tuesday in Beaumont, Calif.

William Eriksson

William Emil Eriksson, 70, a resident of Lomita for 25 years, died Sept. 8 at his home at Big Bear Lake, where he has lived with his wife, Ethel, for the past two years.

Reverend Clarence D. Scott conducted the services for the deceased at A. M. Ganby Chapel on Sept. 11. Interment was at Green Hills Memorial Park.

Mr. Eriksson, a native of Germany, was a member of ILWU #13.

Other survivors, besides his wife, are his four sons, George W. Eriksson, of Lomita, Emil William Eriksson, Daniel Eriksson, and William Eriksson, all of Seattle, Wash.; four daughters, Dorothy Helke, of Grants Pass, Ore., Ann Camandona, also of Seattle, Betty Weinteer of Fullerton, and Barbara Veilleux, of Garden Grove, and 18 grand children.

Local Committee For Ike Named

Mrs. M. L. Rudnick, 1328 Acacia Ave., has been appointed chairman and Mrs. P. G. Smith, 2204 Torrance Blvd., co-chairman for the Citizens for Eisenhower campaign in Torrance, according to an announcement today from the organization's Southern California headquarters in Los Angeles.

The appointments were made by David G. Saunders area chairman.

Within several weeks the new appointees will meet with other Southland leaders to outline a program for bringing out the vote for pro-Eisenhower candidates in the coming senatorial and congressional races.

Girl Resists Attempt To Drag Her into Car

A 12-year-old Lomita girl successfully resisted attempts of two youths to drag her into their car Saturday, she told Sheriff's deputies.

She said one of the youths had previously driven by and asked her if she wanted a ride. When she declined, he drove away, and later returned with a companion, who aided in the attempt to force her into the car.

The incident occurred near Lomita Park.

Robert Finch to Meet Members of Area Press

Congressional Candidate Bob Finch, who is seeking to unseat veteran Cecil R. King in the 17th District, will meet members of the Harbor Area press corps this noon at a luncheon scheduled for the Fish Shanty on Pacific Coast Hwy. in Torrance. The meeting will be an informal affair with the coming campaign issues providing the table topics.
