Orange Pep, Coconut Cookies Mrs Jansson's Favorites

The HERALD'S favorite recipe series is back again this week, thanks to Mrs. Evar Jansson of 24459 Ward St., WALTERIA. This busy woman, who is publicity chairman for the American Field Service International Scholarship and magazine-emblem chairman for both Walteria and Torrance Council PTAs finds time out from club work to cook tasty dishes for her husband and daughter, Cynthia, who is a sophomore at El Camino College.

The first hint she gives to housewives who want to titillate the palates of their husbands or children is to whip up "Orange Pep Dessert."

"This is an inexpensive, unusual dessert very easily made," Mrs. Jansson says. "It can be made the day before and keeps very well. It is especially good after a heavy meal or for a shower or party refreshment."

Here is the recipe for:

ORANGE PEP DESSERT

1½ cups orange juice and 25 marshmallows, cut, boiled until melted. Let congeal (takes about two hours in frigidaire) and add ½ cup cream (whipped). Whip all together well. Chill several hours. Serve with whipped cream flavored with crushed after dinner mints or mint flavoring. Garnish with fresh mint leaves if desired.

"Either fresh oranges or frozen orange juice (diluted two parts water to one part orange base) may be used," Mrs. Jansson says. "I have never failed to have wonderful comments and requests for the recipe every time I have served it. This recipe has been given to visitors in my home from all over the United States. Everyone remarks, 'This is just the type of dessert I have wanted to serve so many times but did not have a suitable recipe. Delicious!'"

Coconut cookies, Mrs. Jansson's second food formula for the week, makes a good accompaniment for this dessert. Here's how she makes them:

EVERYBODY'S FAVORITE COCONUT COOKIES

1 cup shortening (may use 1 cube oleo and ½ cup shortening)

1 cup brown sugar 1 teaspoon salt

1 cup white sugar 2 teaspoons vanilla

Cream, then add: 2 eggs, unbeaten

Mix well and add

2 cups all purpose flour sifted with 1 teaspoon baking powder.

Add

2 cups wheaties 2 cups oatmeal

2 cups medium grated coconut

Stir above in with a table knife, drop by teaspoons on greased cookie sheet and bake at 325-350 degrees until golden brown (about 15 minutes). Let cool slightly before removing from sheets. Makes seven dozen.

"For economy," the attractive baker says, "two teaspoons coconut flavoring may be used. If so, add ½ cup more of oatmeal and wheaties (½ cup each.)"

"Nuts or grated orange rind may also be added. These cookies are especially good and healthful, and very easy to make and transport—they do not break up!"

(Ed. Note: We at the HERALD office tasted samples of each recipe—and can testify to their tastiness!)

TURN-ABOUT . . . Five-year-old Linda Louise Lindley of 24463 Ward St. helps her next door neighbor, Mrs. Evar Jansson, bake tasty coconut cookies on her very own cookie sheet, which Mrs. Jansson used when she "helped out" her own mother at that tender age. Linda volunteered her services after the busy AFSIS and PTA worker sewed the "kitty" dress for the little girl. Part of the finished product was served Friday night when the AFSIS committee honored its two foreign students, Max Will and Lena Malstrom, at a reception at the YWCA.

South Seas Set Faculty Fete Motif

In South Sea Island atmosphere, Evelyn B. Carr PTA honored teachers at the elementary school with a luncheon last Monday.

A buffet luncheon of meat loaf, candied sweet potatoes, fruit salad, rolls, and cake were served beneath a South Sea Island thatched hut, and table decorations were carried out in the island motif with palm leaves, miniature thatched huts, and volcanoes that erupted smoke as centerpieces. Name tags held in the hand of a fierce-looking monkey were pinned on each guest.

Honored guests, Donald Robison, principal, and Mrs. Eldon Morgan, president, were presented with flower leis. Also attending the luncheon were executive board members.
