It's Your Country

By JOHN W. BECK

Abolish the Red Charter BATTLE LINES: While communist bombers threaten Formosa, shoot American planes out of the skies, and kill American servicemen, that glaze hours of betrayal located on East River, New York, with subsidiaries in Washington, London, and Moscow, is also under bombardment by the American people. Wrathful citizens have become aware of the ugly fact that they were trapped into the communist-spawned United Nations through their fervent desire for peace. Now, with the realization of its sinister character, they want out. Anti-UN sentiment is fomenting all over the nation, even in Congress itself.

the myth of "peaceful-coexistence" and "containment"—not to mention "peace, progress, and prosperity"—it is clear that our desperate need is for more of these experienced marksmen who can and will shoot from the hip. Mr. Eisenhower's advisers seem totally unable to recognize an emergency when they see one—or did they plan it that way?

Strong anti-UN sentiment is also appearing in various important magazines and newspapers across the country. Mr. David Lawrence, in an editorial headed "White Flag for the U. N.?" (U. S. News & World Report, Aug. 27), says, "Maybe the time has come to take the blue—which stands for truth and freedom—out of the United Nations flag and leave it just white. For white is the symbol of surrender."

The August issue of National Republic magazine carries an article by Rep. B. Carroll Reece (R. Tenn.) telling "How Alger Hiss Set up the U. N." And the August issue of TASK FORCE contains an important article by General P. A. Del Valle pointing out that "... the United Nations is, as far as can be ascertained by a close reading of our Constitution, entirely incompatible with our basic law, and therefore unconstitutional."

Senator William E. Jenner (R. Ind.) has described the UN Charter as "the machinegun that looks like a baby carriage." He says, "They (the UN) would abolish our Bill of Rights and replace it with a body of privileges and duties modeled exactly upon the Soviet Constitution." Senator Pat McCarran (D. Nev.) says that any American judge, trying to decide on the constitutionality of a law to void, would have to hold our Constitution in one hand and the UN Charter in the other. The UN Charter is a treaty; and John Foster Dulles, a UN devotee, has said that treaties are the supreme law of the land, that they can override our Constitution, and cut across our Bill of Rights.

PRESS LEADERS: Also on the forefront in the battle for freedom from the UN are some of the nation's most courageous newspaper publishers. Freedom Newspapers, Inc., with many publications throughout the West and Southwest—always ready to stand up and be counted—are distributing lapel buttons saying "Let's Get Out of the UN" and are vigorously supporting the idea on their editorial pages. Mr. Richard Lybue, publisher of the Tulsa Tribune, says in an editorial of July 17, "It has taken a long time for outrage to become articulate. But now the American people are getting mad... Why are we in the United Nations in the first place? It is a congress of treachery and treason."

GREAT CONSPIRACY: Rep. Usher L. Burdick (R. N. Dak.) describes the agreement made between agents of our Government, the UN, and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization as "The Great Conspiracy to Destroy the United States." He says, "The real purpose (of the UN) was to build a world government controlled by the Communists and their dupes in the United States," and he cites irrefutable facts to back his charge. He asks, "Why do we remain in the United Nations when we can plainly see that the whole scheme is directed to our destruction? If the administration officials hide their heads in the sand for security, I am sure that the people will not."

Mr. Burdick is right; the people are getting their heads out of the sand and they are coming out fighting. Recently four congressmen and respected American generals—Mark Clark, James A. Van Fleet, Geo. E. Stratemeyer, and P. A. Del Valle, all retired and therefore free to speak—publicly issued strong and unequivocal statements against the UN. Bolder than their combination testimony says, in effect, that U. S. membership in the UN constitutes betrayal of the American people.

PATRIOTS BELITTLED: President Eisenhower describes such "loyal American" attitudes as "shooting from the hip." But with MIGs shooting from the skies under direction of our UN comrade Russia, while our administration officials pursue the American people are at last awakening to this gigantic conspiracy against them. A recent public opinion poll conducted by A. J. D. Inc., Colorado Springs, Colo., whose final margin of error in the presidential poll of 1952 was less than .02 of one per cent, revealed that 68.8 per cent of those polled did not believe the UN was promoting peace, and 97.9 per cent were against allowing the UN to take precedence over our Constitution.

PRESIDENT NEEDED: In the face of all this, it does not seem far-fetched to predict that the man who has the will, the courage, and the ability to lead the fight to rescue this nation from the UN, could be our next President. Millions of anxious Americans are looking for that man. Who is he?

JUST DIAL '81'

Long Beach Phone Calls Possible With New Code

Fairfax and Davenport telephone users will be able to dial directly to telephones in Long Beach and Whittier starting Sunday, Dick Pyle, Pacific Telephone manager, announced today.

Calls to those numbers now are placed through the "0" operator.

A numerical "code" must be dialed in the case of the Long Beach numbers, as that exchange has not yet been assigned a prefix name, like FAIRFAX in the Torrance area. "Dial the numbers 81, then the regular Long Beach telephone number," Manager Pyle instructed.

On calls to Whittier, however, subscribers may dial in the normal manner using the prefix "OXford."

Plans were nearly complete today for the Sixth Annual Sportsmen Club barbecue scheduled for next Sunday at El Retiro Park, a spokesman for the Hollywood Riviera men's club said this morning. The annual barbecue, used to raise funds for the club's youth activities programs, will be held from 12 noon until 6 p.m. Adults will be served barbecue beef and fall the trimmings for $1.50, children over four will be charged 75 cents, officials report. A carnival atmosphere will prevail and supervised games will be offered for the youngsters, as well as other entertainment and refreshments for the older sportsmen officials say.

Open-Ending Mortgages Protect Homeowner From Repair Sharks

Millions of dwellers in mortgaged homes have a new protection against the high-pressure salesman of home improvements, who sometimes sells a job that doesn't live up to his promises. This is the provision in the new housing act for open-ending home mortgages.

What this phrase means is this: The home owner buys his home on mortgage. By the time he has paid, say, $1,000 on the principal, his home needs repair, or he thinks of a desirable improvement. Under the open-ending arrangement, he can get the money from his mortgage lender, and add it back to the principal of the mortgage. Thus he need not shoulder a separate short-term loan.

Total cost will be no less, may even be more because the money is paid over a longer time. The money's-worth protection will come from the closer supervision the mortgage lender is pretty sure to give to the added obligation. Commercial banks have neglected to police adequately some unwise FHA loans. First, it wasn't supposed to be their job; second, they don't have the facilities. But the mortgage lender generally does have men to check up—and he will have the incentive of keeping value behind his mortgage commitments.

TIME FOR A CHANGE—Judging from recent sales figures released by the distilled spirits industry, whiskey drinkers think it's time for a change.

The change, in this instance, is from blends to straight. Six years ago, according to Stanley B. Giraitis, national sales manager for straight whiskies of Melrose Distillers, Inc., spirit blends enjoyed 88 per cent of the whiskey market. Today, he adds, that proportion has been whittled to 62 per cent, with straight now accounting for four of every ten bottles of whiskey sold in the United States.

Giraitis reported that during the ten months ending June 30, 1954, demand for a number of straight whiskies, including Echo Spring and James E. Popper, was up about 20 per cent. He credited the increase to forceful selling by retailers and stepped-up consumer advertising.

THINGS TO COME—An attachment for your vacuum cleaner will brush off venetian blind slats with two little power brushes. Textile colors suspended in water are designed for home decoration of fabrics. A toy doctor's bag of plastic holds a toy stethoscope, thermometer, ear flashlight, medical scissors and hypodermic syringe. A new-type seal makes plastic bags for storing your summer things so tight you can stand on one filled with water, and not squeeze out a drop. A spun aluminum corn popper doubles as a fruit bowl when popcorn is out of season.

City-Wide Drive Needed for Pool

By HARRY Von BELLEHEIM Director of Recreation

Generally speaking, it is easy to get a large percentage of the citizens of Torrance to agree that Torrance would be benefited by having a swimming pool in the city. These same people will agree that a swimming pool provides real benefits; however, it is not easy to convince them that they should put forth the effort required to see such a project through to a successful conclusion.

The last time the swimming pool bond issue was placed on the ballot, it was defeated by less than 200 votes. Nearly two thirds of the voters were in favor of the bond issue. These 200 voters must be convinced of the following need for a swimming pool in Torrance.

- 1. To provide sound healthful recreation for children and grown ups alike. 2. To promote the general well being of all. 3. To teach youngsters and grown ups how to swim for self-protection. 4. To keep children occupied in the wholesome fun of swimming. If the citizens of Torrance who believe in the need for a swimming pool in Torrance will work to convince others of this need, the bond issue will be passed. However, if no one takes the initiative in promoting the swimming pool, it will be defeated again. There must be support all over Torrance in support of the pool. This means that the different sections of Torrance must join together to secure a swimming pool, centrally located in the city and handy to all. Each area must realize that in order to secure a swimming pool in town, they must join forces or the pool will be defeated and the real need outlined above will not be met.

Vandals Mark Truck His 1954 pickup truck was scratched on the hood, door, and top by vandals, Chester C. Root, of 2325 Lomita Blvd., told Sheriff's deputies Monday. About $75 damage was done to the truck, which was parked in front of his house, he said.

Sportsmen Plan Annual Barbecue

Friend Plea Due Sept. 27

The case of Howard Dean Friend has been continued until Sept. 27, when he will enter a plea to the charges that he assaulted his wife with intent to kill last Aug. 3. The 30-year-old Lawndale man is charged with shooting his wife, Patricia, through the head last Aug. 3, after a family argument. He was arraigned in Department C Long Beach Superior Court.

Food, Drink, Smokes Taken From Malt Shop

Food, drink, cigarettes, and a toaster, with a total value of $196, were stolen from Bea's Malt Shop, 24515 Narbonne Ave., sometime early Monday, owner Beatrice Thompson reported to Sheriff's deputies. Thieves pried open the back door to get $50 worth of meat, $66 in cigarettes, $30 in candy, and smaller amount of coffee, soft drinks, and ice cream. The toaster was valued at $25.

Lomita Dogs Have Enemies

One Lomita dog was poisoned, and another had a chain wrapped tightly around his neck in an apparent effort to choke him, two men told Sheriff's deputies. Robert R. Reagan, 24600 Cypress Ave., Lomita, told deputies that when he returned home Monday, his boxer, "Roy," appeared to be sick, and soon died. Someone apparently entered his yard and poisoned the dog, he said. A chain was wrapped tightly around his neck on two separate occasions, Ben Giacuzzi, of 26020 Pennsylvania Ave., said. Leaving the dog on a leash, he would return to find it cut, and the chain about the dog's neck.
