

Square Dancers To Meet Tuesday

It's "do-si-do" time again in Torrance.

Every Tuesday night, beginning next week, for the next 30 weeks, the Torrance Recreation department and the Torrance Adult Club will sponsor adult square dances classes. At the end of the period, members of the class will receive diplomas.

Gerald Reeser, veteran South Bay caller, will conduct classes again this year. He has conducted square dances for adult education classes for many years, and last year headed adult and teenage square dance classes for the Recreation Department.

Monthly parties will be held, as well as other special features. The charge for each evening is $1. per couple. Couples were urged to enroll early, since there is a limit on the number of students, due to available facilities. Meetings will be at 8 p.m., with registration accepted at 7:30.

Advanced square dancers can join the Torrance Recreation Square Dance Club, which meets on the first and third Wednesday nights in the Civic Auditorium. George Borden heads the club, known as "Dudes and Dolls," and Darrell Brown will be the caller.

Strip Street Session Set

Proposed improvements for streets in the Shoestring Strip will come up for hearing before the Los Angeles City Council, Sept. 20.

Officials said an assessment district is planned for work along Plaza Del Amo, Harvard Blvd., 220th St., Denker Ave., and Western Ave. Cost is estimated at $34,088.

Another district is proposed for work on Halliwell Ave., 209th and 211th Sts., with cost estimated at $3,702.

County Reveals Plans To Widen P.V. Street

Appropriation of $22,802 for acquisition of necessary property for the widening of Palos Verdes Drive South was approved last week by the Board of Supervisors.

According to Supervisor Burton W. Chace, the County plans to widen the boulevard into a four-lane highway from Palos Verdes Estates to San Pedro. The program will be carried out over a two-year period, Chace said.
