

112 Students Named to NHS Honor Society

There is a grand total of 112 members in the National Junior High Honor Society at Narbonne, announced Miss Sara Vaubel, sponsor, recently.

To be a member of this highly honorable club, a student must have a total of at least 17 grade points, having only one "C," at least seven "E's," not more than four "S's," no "U's," and no "R's" on the final 20-week report card.

Grade points are as follows: Four points for an "A," three points for a "B," and two points for a "C."

The B-8 class has the largest number of Honor Society members with a total of 43. The A-9s have the smallest with only four honor students.

Schools Open Office Annex

Added personnel have forced the Torrance School District to open a temporary annex to administrative offices at 2335 Plaza del Amo, according to School Superintendent J. H. Hull.

This year, the special services director, psychologist, visiting teacher, doctor, and cafeteria director will be housed in a nearby bungalow formerly used as a classroom, he said. The building also includes a counseling room.

Expanding enrollment is due to the hiring of new personnel, he said, causing an overflow at the 8500-square-foot school offices built in 1949.

State Moose Lodge Honors 2 Local Men

Two members of the Torrance Moose Lodge, Daniel Desmond and James Stiles, were recently awarded membership in the Fellowship Degree of the Order, at the state convention in Fresno.

The awards were made "for outstanding work in the Order's program." Desmond is past governor of the local lodge, and Stiles is a former junior governor, and is now chairman of the ways and means committee. Eight men attended the convention, and three women represented the local chapter of Women of the Moose.

The delegation included Joseph Platt, governor of the Torrance lodge; James Evans, junior governor; James A. Evans, secretary; William Amback; Daniel Desmond; Charles Schiffer; James Johnston, and James Stiles.

Mrs. George Clav, senior regent; Betty Purcell, and Martha Evans represented the women.

Burglar Takes Cash, Leaves Small Change

A big-time thief who left the small change behind took $17.75 from a cash register at the Pat and Bess Cafe, 3810 Pacific Coast Hwy., according to police reports.

Owner Patrick Cooney told Officer Tom Pattishall that several dollars in loose change was left in the register.

Entrance apparently was made through a rear window in the building.
