What Started Out as Dull Night Becomes Surprise Birthday Party

By ADALINE CORTEZ DA 4-6876

Four representatives of the male population of North Torrance celebrated birthdays this week!

Reese Holbrook, of 17512 Cerise Ave., walked into a dark house and was greeted with flash bulbs popping and yells of "Surprise!"

After a full minute of paralyzed awe, he managed to pick up his lower jaw and join his friends in merrymaking.

Among his many gifts was a new shaver, a set of barbecue pottery, and a barbecue cutlery set.

That same Saturday night, Windy Towell, of 17512 Ermanita Ave., celebrated his birthday at Welch's in Long Beach.

In the party were the Ralph Gastulows, Red Bramletts, Peter Bruces, and Ray Krumwiedes.

The next two celebrants won't mind if we tell their age!

They are: Bradley Walker, of 3417 W. 175th St., who just started kindergarten and is five years old, and Jeffie Isaacson, corner of Glenburn Ave. and 174th St., who was also five!

Jeffie invited Jimmie Streetmaker, Darlene Moon, Pamela Holmes, Vicki, Linda and Hazy Dougy; Arrow, Andrea, and Joe Andrews; and sister Janet, to a luncheon to mark his day!

Nadel Holmes and friends attended a luncheon and fashion show given by her sorority, Delta Chi Sigma, at the Whittier Country Club Wednesday.

The models shown were originals in cocktail and semi-formal moods.

Attending were: Mmes. Bob Mahoney, Boyd MacDougal, George Fleming, Naomi Hackworth, Jerry MacDougal, and Jean Monahan.

Mrs. Monahan won an elegant, sequined fly swatter, and Mrs. MacDougal won a card table.

Peggy Ball, of 17402 Glenburn Ave., spent two weeks in the business world recently.

While her father vacationed, she managed his paint store in Lomita.

The Rudy Bunics, 4119 W. 173rd Pl., hosted a barbecue shower for the Mike Orozcos who are, as Winchell puts it, "their conditioned."

Six families attending were the Dale Isaacsons, Fred Sullivan, Norb Myers, and Walt Smiths.

We certainly sympathize with the Orozcos, as their little girl has been stricken with polio!

Mabel Ruff, of 17519 Cerise Ave., who became a citizen of the United States a year ago, was one of the 700 honored guests at El Capitan Theater during "I Am An American" festivities.

Mabel was a war bride of the Second World War and is from England.

Clarence DeCamp, of 17003 Falda Ave., managed to arrive at Huntington Lake for the hunting, in spite of losing his pickup's transmission enroute.

He met and camped with Ben Kinda, of 17002 Falda Ave., and his party.

Cub Pack 761-C spent Saturday morning at the Los Alamitos Naval Air Station with some of their fathers.

With the group were: Hamilton Black, Cassius Sewell, Cubmaster Jerry Cunerty, J. Horan Cortez, Peter Bruce, R. W. Gladdys, Lynn Pierce, Walter Buffington, Walt Smith, Frank Johnson, Johnny Miller, W. Taylor, and R. Graham.

The group was allowed to lunch in the cafeteria, an almost unheard of privilege for civilians.

Little Jan Mangiagli, of 17002 Corday Ave., is in mommy's arms almost continuously. She broke a leg while skating and can't get around otherwise.

Mary Jan Bates, of 17039 Glenburn Ave., celebrated her tenth birthday by treating friends to the Ice Follies and coming home filled with popcorn, hamburgers, and Cokes only to have birthday cake and ice cream.

The group, which included mama and papa Bates, were Donna Morgan, Joan Vann, and Morine Wiener.

Jerry Downing, son of Mrs. Alex Bates, has returned to the Santa Barbara campus of the University of California, where he is acting as counselor for a boys dormitory this year.

Leading a group of planned money-raising events by committees planning the forthcoming October Country Fair at Evelyn Carr PTA, Helen Ferrin, of 17503 Faysmith Ave., co-chairman of the fish pond committee, hosted one of those barbaric affairs known as "come as you are" breakfasts!

Those whose beauty secrets were offered in sacrifice Monday morning were Helen Leichter, Peggy Sale, Martha Sherwood, Ruth Davidson, Doris Babb, Ruth Towell, Janice Bates, Ilene Allison, Lynn Hale, Viola Kinda, Barbara DeCamp, Janice Beeton, Marie Terry, Connie Gastelum, Anna Kelling Betty Fletcher, Edna Patterson, Abbie Williams, Pat Stamm, Dorothy Willis, Eileen Hall, Millie Osnes, Maxine Crosby, Barbara Welker, Gerri King, Jo Jensen, Millie Mooney, Emily Preevie, Maxine Reynolds, Clara Brown and Adaline Cortez.

Genevieve MacDonald and Barbara Simmons attended the fashion tea given by Mrs. Simmons' sorority, Phi Kappa Chi Alpha, at Bullock's Westwood.

At last! Helen French has had her baby! William and Helen French and three year old Suzy were quite happy to welcome little Julie, who weighed 7 lbs. 2 oz., and was born at Torrance Memorial.

Half the neighborhood trokked to the hospital Thursday night to look through the windows for a glimpse of the baby.
