

Tartar Teen Talk

By LINDA THISTLE
FA 8-3223

Torrance High campus has been invaded by 15 junior girls in very unattractive outfits this week. The girls, who are being initiated into Tri H.W. come to school every day dressed in print skirts, print or striped blouses with slip-over short sleeve sweaters pulled over the blouses, bobby socks, and casual flats. The first event of initiation week was the Potluck Installation Dinner provided and served by the pledges, Monday night at the YWCA. Many comical events have been planned for this week and are being carried out by the initiates. The new members of the Tri H-Y are Ann Bayless, Chick Dawson, Sue Dukeman, Vicki Hagan, Linda Halberg, Alex Mero-la, Pat Mitchell, Helen Roberts, Nancy Rodgers, Jofran Ruben, Jerry Rusk, Marilyn Sanders, Audrey Stevens, Pat Wingard, and Linda Thistle. The initiation will be climaxed sometime Friday night.

First Bay League game of the season will be played on our home field tomorrow night against Centennial. The game promises to be an exciting one, since both schools have good teams and our team will need the support of the entire student body. Don't forget to be on your best behavior, Tartars. Points are being added up for the Bay League Sportsmanship Trophy. The trophy is given to the school in the Bay League with the best sportsmanship during football season. The following are a few of the rules we will be judged on:

1. No smoking in student section.
 2. No booing of officials.
 3. No cheering when opposing team is being penalized.
 4. No alumni in student section.
 5. Remaining for visiting school's Alma Mater.
 6. Exchanging yells and decorating both student sections.
 7. No cow bells or noise makers.
 8. No throwing of papers from stands.
- Extra points are also given for half-time activities. Two years ago we won this trophy. Let's see if we can't have a repeat performance, and we can, with everyone's cooperation.

Following the Torrance-Centennial game, the Debs are sponsoring a dance at the YWCA. Tickets are on sale today and tomorrow at the shack for only 25 cents. If you want to have a swell time, be sure to attend.

Soft candlelight and yellow mums set the scene for the Debutante Y-teen installation last Thursday night. The newly-installed officers are Dana Cecil, president; Jean Brimley, vice-president; Judy Nash, secretary; Betty Martinez, treasurer; Ann Stelbaugh, chaplain; Mary Baszkovich, historian; and Leah Stanton, sergeant-at-arms. Recognized as new members of the Debs were Joy Pearman, Judy Wright, and Pat Flanagan. Acting as mistress of ceremonies was retired president, Peggy Wood. Proceeding the ceremony the accomplishments of last semester were read. Mrs. Rogan, advisor and Dana Cecil, president, were presented with pink carnation corsages. The impressive installation, held at the YWCA, marked the beginning of a full semester of activities for the Debs.

Before leaving for last Friday night's game, many song queens and majorettes visited Fred Diesel, to show him their new costumes for the year. Fred is improving and is keeping up with his studies through his home teacher. He certainly enjoys the visits paid to him by members of the student body and Tartars are welcomed to visit Fred at his home, 1608 Post Ave., at any time. Best wishes from all of us, Fred.

Although our Varsity football team lost to the mighty Lynwood Knights last Friday night, our Bee team came through with flying colors in a 18-7 victory for Torrance, Thursday afternoon. Good luck on today's game.

The latest styles in fall fashions for teen-agers will be shown tonight at the Marquette Fashion Show at the YWCA. The affair will start at 7 and refreshments will be served at the close of the program. Hostess for the evening is Marquette president, Linda Halberg. Mistress of ceremonies will be Vicki Hagan. Modeling the chic fashions, donated by the Rensie Shop are Karen Hostler, Carlene Sandstrom, Marilyn Sanders, Jerry Rusk, Darlene Wolverson, Diane Berry, Alex Mero-la, and Janel Beeman. Invited to attend the show are many Torrance High coeds. The affair will provide an enjoyable evening for all those attending.

Electing officers for this semester at their first meeting Monday night were members of the Junior Hi-Y. The officers are as follows: president, Sherwood Florman; vice-president, Jeffrey Hughes; secretary, Jim Schmitt; treasurer, Bill Montgomery; chaplain, Tom Kulp; sergeants-at-arms, Skip Smith and Gary Knox, and delegate-at-large, Dick Dawson.

Cliff City Sorrento, in southern Italy, is built on cliffs 100 feet high.
