

LADY WITH 1000 POCKETS... None other than Principal Alfred Artuso will be the main attraction at the WALTERIA PTA Carnival to be held tomorrow evening at the school. Filling the pockets are Mrs. Carl Gramer, kneeling, PTA president; Mrs. Harold Wrigley, assistant ways and means chairman; and Mrs. Hector Herrera, ways and means chairman.

Walteria PTA Carnival Marks Fun Day Tomorrow

Tomorrow has been declared official "Fun Day" at Walteria school when the PTA sponsors its annual Halloween carnival. A costume parade will begin the festivities, which get underway at 5 p. m. and will continue until 9 p. m.

There will be 28 gaily decorated booths at this year's carnival and among the main attractions will be the "lady with a thousand pockets." Children attending, for a small sum, may pick her pockets for various novelties.

Skit Given at Perry PTA Meet

"Knowing Your Community" was the theme of the October Assn. meeting of Perry PTA held at the auditorium last Thursday. A comedy skit, "If Men Played Cards as Women Do" was presented by John Bush, Sam Freeman, Milton Damerow and Andrew Hansen. Mrs. W. A. Wright, Torrance Council president, was a guest. In her talk she pointed out that the council provides inspiration, information and instruction to local units and their leaders and also help to guide the units to follow policies and procedures of PTA.

Mrs. John Arensmeyer, president, welcomed Mrs. Glenn Runstead, council financial secretary. Mrs. A. F. Kupka, membership chairman, announced that 539 persons have joined the PTA to date. Richard Welte, vice principal of Perry School gave a talk on the growth of Torrance as a community and the outlook of schools of the future.

Mrs. A. L. MacKenzie, courtesy chairman and Mrs. Betty O'Brien and Doris Wittee won attendance prizes. Cake and coffee were served after the meeting.

Nurses Give Annual Ball

Bids are out and preparations are complete for the annual Harbor area nurses tomorrow evening at the Fort MacArthur Officers Club.

In keeping with the occasion goblins, black cats and witches galore will be on the prowl with prizes for the most outstanding costume. Mrs. Y. J. Melanson is chairman for the ball, assisted by Mmes. Anthony T. Flamingo, Vernon Walters, C. J. Smith, W. V. Linder, R. E. Doherty, Roselee Bartowski, Jean McAlary and Miss Sarah Regan. A buffet supper will be served at 11 p. m. Proceeds from the affair will go to the nurses educational fund. Patrons and patronesses are Mrs. and Mmes. E. L. Cassidy, Holt J. McCracken, C. A. Dahl, Leonard Thompson, Roy Smith and George Zugsmith.

259th Pl. PTA Has First Meet

The first 259th Pl. PTA Assn. meeting was held on Thursday, Oct. 21. The Scouts of the school presented the program. Colors were posted by members of Troop 115-C, one boy from each den. A chorus of eight Girl Scouts and Brownies sang several songs with Mrs. C. R. Dexheimer conducting and Mrs. P. M. Wilkins at the piano. A minstrel show skit was given by boys from Den 9 of Cub Scout Troop 115-C. Mrs. J. M. Gasser was in charge of the program.

During the business meeting the budget was approved for the coming year. Mrs. Floyd Jeck, ways and means chairman, announced a paper and rag drive to be held on the school grounds on Nov. 16. Membership chairman, Mrs. R. P. Boderman, gave the final results of the PTA membership drive. There were 831 members, of which 307 are men. Miss Frances Dastarac introduced the new faculty members.

On display at the meeting were books used by the sixth grade students. In telling about sixth grade activities, Richard Strickland, teacher, said that the books of today as compared with the books of several years ago, are made more interesting with better printing and good pictures. Mrs. Caroline Blake and Mrs. Loren White, also sixth grade teachers, helped with the display. Shown also were handicrafts made by the various Scout troops. Each association meeting will have a classroom display so that parents may become better acquainted with the activities of their children.

Card Party

St. Lucy's Guild of the St. Margaret Mary parish in Lomita will entertain with a card party this evening at the school. Games will begin at 8 p. m.
