

Unique Birth Announcement, New Card Craze Highlight Busy Week

By VERA C. WRIGHT

Happy birthday wishes are winging their way to the home of Ericka Schuster, 2954 W. 182nd St., who will celebrate her 12th birthday in Monterey Park doing whatever her charming little self desires. This young lady's taste in gorgeous earrings is the talk of the town!

Mr. and Mrs. W. Boell, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Arensmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McVey, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Phillips, and Gordon Cambridge met at the William Wright home for a pre-dance cocktail hour before proceeding to the Fifth Anniversary North Torrance Civic Dance held at the Club Alondra. All ladies in attendance were provided with orchid corsages as planned by Ev Carstrom, committee chairman.

Theresa Schuster departed from the Nov. 8 party of the North Torrance Canasta League triumphantly holding first prize while Le Eta Metzler walked away with booby prize. "Samba" is the new card craze taking precedent at the home of Glenn Blake, 18225 Thornburgh Ave., as was proven by Claudine when she hosted an exciting game of the above mentioned on Tuesday evening, Nov. 9.

I wouldn't mind having a birthday every day if it would make me look as radiant and lovely as Audrey Herring, of 18312 Roslin Ave., as was proven by a beautiful rhinestone earring, necklace set given to her by generous husband, Paul.

Have you been wondering what to do with all those old papers and boxes of rags which have been taking up room in the garage or den? If so, please contact me and they will be picked up by an organization who will appreciate your donation!

Most enchanting baby announcement of the month was the original one printed by the Carl Metzlers, of 2054 W. 182nd

St., who titled it Metzler Press Publications, Volume 1, No. 2, and went on to report the size, shape, health, etc., of the baby then proceeded to do the same about mother, Frances Jean and three-year-old sister Doretta. Happy landing newcomer Cynthia (Fran)!

The John W. Arensmeyer's sojourn took them to Pfeiffer Bog Sir, Carmel and Monterey. They also took the trails to the parks and falls and meditated while eating at Fisherman's Wharf.

I didn't feel a bit guilty about overhearing Lois Mubersack, of 4735 Cadi St., comment to her neighbor that although she did not approve of her husband's fit attack that she was still happy to have him home.—Ah, young love! Lucky Jack!

Edith Kuhn provided the reason for the surprise baby shower given her by the Regina St. ladies

Lieutenant and Mrs. Abbott Gatt and daughter Cindy of Santa Ana were the weekend guests of the Delno Hart family, of 4247 W. 181st St., who did all within their power to provide sister, Mrs. Gatt, and family with many memorable surprises.

A birthday party that was unique as well as loads of fun was the one planned by David McVey who hosted a theater party. After treating guests to the city show they returned to 3825 W. 176th St., where ice cream and cake were served to Patricia Chase, Sandra Bailey, Christine Warner, Gloria Stinger, Keny MacKenzie, Ricky Smith, and Bob Lynn. Originality plus merit reigned high at this pre-teen party.

Edith Kuhn provided the reason for the surprise baby shower given her by the Regina St. ladies at 18320 Regina Ave. Many lovely baby garments along with well wishes were presented to the surprised lovely mother-to-be.

Have you become faint from hunger here lately just after passing 18327 Roslin Ave.? The reason is not a mystery any longer! It seems that Mrs. Clara Davis has indulged in bread making—rye, white, wheat—or what have you. Ambitious lady!

The happiest Sunday we've know since last Christmas was spent with gracious Gloria Carlstrom and husky Tricia Diane. Little Tricia makes 3754 W. 175th St. the bright spot of the neighborhood, for those who enjoy indulging in loving a lovely little lady. Love that girl! Her mom's nice too!

Never have seen a prouder husband and father than Robert H. Carse, of 4223 W. 182nd St., accompanying his beautiful wife and pretty daughter who are sporting lovely new fashionable hair-dos. Mother and daughter are quite proud of handsome dad too, and rightly so, for he is a very nice gentleman!

Lucky indeed will be the persons who will be able to listen in while the North Torrance Vallants practice their choral work so that they can provide a bit of happiness for persons in hospital wards who otherwise would not be entertained. Wonderful teenagers with big hearts! Good luck!

Bill T. Muramoto, of 4139 W. 182nd St., should be the proudest gentleman in our community because he not only has a beautiful, gracious wife to share in his activities but also three charming little daughters who resemble precious character dolls! If you have any doubt, see for yourself!

Our heart goes out to Alice Mac Kenzie whose mother has been ill and so has had to travel back and forth from Los Angeles in order to lighten the burden in the family household. We are all hoping for her speedy recovery, Alice!

Mrs. T. V. Bullera sported a new hair dress which caused many oohs and ahs in the community. This sweet matron in our midst is well liked and neighbors are very happy now that she is no longer a working career girl.

Ravishing redheaded Mrs. Ella Killian should be a model in the general consensus of those neighbors who live close to her 18337 Arnie St. domain. Home made cookies and cakes take first place in this adorable gal's agenda.

Little League activities are progressing at a fast pace and remember if you are interested in signing up your son or wish to acquire more information about it, the person to contact is Joe Setting, DAVIS 4-1062.

Honestly, you couldn't find a more active family than the Russel Nortons, of 4171 W. 190th St., if you traveled, the seven seas. Although they just returned from a missionary meeting they are carefully planning their Thanksgiving holiday trip when they will go to Lancaster where the Victor Youngs will put them up for a three-day visit. Mrs. Norton's gracious mother, Mrs. Giarratano will accompany them much to the delight of youngster's Ronnie, Gary, Sharon, and wee Christie. We are happy to report that their uncle Arthony Bullara is recovering from that heart attack he suffered recently.

Get well wishes are pouring out of every raindrop in the sky for Master Jerry Blake who has had a siege of the flu and has had to stay in bed. We know it isn't very pleasant, Jerry, but your mom and dad are very proud of the fact that you can follow orders!

I was fortunate enough to have been visited by 11-year-old Jack Peron so he could introduce me to his little puppy named "Bullet." I realize the name somehow seems inappropriate for a husky pup but after rickochetting throughout this hacienda I know my young friend is wise beyond his years!

Reflections

By J. HUGH SHEPHERD, JR.

OUR CHEST NEEDS YOU Community Chest isn't a stranger; it's a friend, an indispensable friend to worthy organizations. Reader's Digest and Post claim that millions of dollars are taken from us in the guise of charity; we listen, or read plausible statements, write a check—and it goes to a promoter. Community Chest knows where every cent of our money is going, and why.

The organizations to which Community Chest is repository are local. We know them, endorse them. Their affairs touch us, we know why our money is being invested and what it will bring in return. The advantage of Community Chest is that we give once rather than many times.

Your contribution to Community Chest is the democratic way. Your neighbors spend their time without thought of compensation. Help them by having your check ready and waiting.
