The church sanctuary was banked with arrangements of white pom-pom chrysanthemums and gladioli in white vases and tapers. Tall standards held white candles which were lighted before the ceremony by Misses Bonnie Domanoske and Beverly Cole.

The wedding marches were played by Mrs. Dorothy McDonnell at the organ. Miss Virginia Stephens sang "Because" and a little Sandra Batson played a violin solo "Because You Are Mine."

They were followed by the maid of honor, Miss Zonna Hammond wearing pink satin with an overskirt of orchid tulle and carrying a shower of pink carnations tied with orchid satin ribbons.

Then came the bride, on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. Her wedding gown was of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle fashioned with a tulle overskirt and an elongated torso designed with nylon ruffles offsetting the fitted lace below. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a seed pearl tiara. The bride bouquet was of white orchids and carnations tied with white ribbons.

The bride and her father were met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Daniel Cole. The Rev. Walter Graham officiated at the vow exchange.

The 200 wedding guests were seated by Don Treese, Frank Hillemeier, Malcolm Wyatt, Tommie Meyers, and Dean Domanoske.
