Revival Services

Continue at Harbor

James H. Jones, often referred to as "The Walking Bible" because of his ability to quote scriptures at length, will continue revival services at the Harbor Bible Church, 1920 E. Pacific Coast Hwy., each evening including Sundays at 7:30, church officials announced yesterday.

The evangelist has traveled most of the United States and Canada on revival tours and is able to draw extensively on this experience in his sermons, church spokesmen reported.

NEW MARKET OFFERS... A new Safeway Store, five times the size of the former market, opens today in Wilmington, at 1955 N. Avalon Blvd. and Pacific Coast Hwy. Designed for "finger-tip shopping," the store has a parking lot which will accommodate 170 cars. The store has a number of new features designed to make shopping easier.

Wilmington Safeway to Open Today

The newest in super food markets is scheduled to open today as new "magic carpet" doors at Safeway Stores, 1955 N. Avalon Blvd., at Pacific Coast Hwy. swing open.

The new store is about five times as large as the Safeway store which was formerly in Wilmington. With 22,000 square feet of sales and display areas, the store is equipped with many new features.

Shelves are designed for "finger-tip shopping," to allow customers to get merchandise without reaching or stretching. Every special corner is engineered to keep foods at the proper temperature.

Display cases are constructed to afford an easy view of any part of the store. Partially surrounding the market is a parking lot with space for 170 cars.

Thomas C. Sheehan, a veteran of 20 years with Safeway, will manage the store, and its 50 employees. He has been manager at Gardena since 1953.

'Good Turn Day' Proclaimed for Scouts by Mayor

December 4 has been proclaimed as "Good Turn Day" for the Boy Scouts, by Mayor Nicholas O. Drake. It was revealed this week. The Mayor penned his signature onto a document that declared:

"Saturday shall be known as 'Good Turn Day' and that all housewives shall be urged to cooperate with the Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, and Explorer Scouts of this community by accepting and filling a Boy Scout 'good turn bag'."

Torrance scouts have undertaken the collection of clothing and shoes to be turned over to agencies like the Salvation Army, Goodwill, St. Vincent de Paul Society, and Volunteers of America.

These affiliated agencies produce annually $3,000,000 value in welfare services from the reclamation of household discards and other wasted commodities. It was stated.

Reception Honors Ben Todds on Fortieth Wedding Anniversary

By BETTY MITCHELL DA 6-4338

The last two weeks have been busy ones for the Willie McFarland home on Danville St. Just one of the affairs held in their home was a lovely reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. Todds, of Rita Grove, who were visitors at the McFarland residence. Over 40 guests dropped in to wish the couple many more happy years together.

Theme of the afternoon was set by the couple on the reception table in the shape of a "40" cut out of styrofoam and surrounded with many carnations. Mrs. Todds wore a corsage of the same color. On either side of the flower arrangement were two white tapers decorated with colorful ribbon pom-poms. The table settings done in crystal and silver, presented a very lovely picture indeed, made even more colorful by the lovely sheet cake decorated with "Happy Anniversary, Mom and Dad" and sprays of red roses. The cake was served with delicious fruit punch.

On Thursday the McFarland home once more was filled with guests when Dr. and Mrs. D. D. Todd, of La Jolla; George Dodds, of Monrovia Beach; the Milligates, from Alameda; and the Milligates from Rita Grove, all sitting around the beautifully laden table.

Charles Johnson, of Newton St., recently suffered a stroke and had to spend several days in the hospital. He's waiting the best of speedy returns to health.

Another name on the sick list is that of Bill Bugener of Neese Ave. Bill has been suffering from a circulatory disorder, but is home now and improving.

The choir of the local Methodist Church announced this week that they will give their Christmas Cantata on Thursday, Dec. 23, at 7:45 p.m. The presentation this year will be "The Adoration," by George E. Nevin. Soloists will be Mrs. Joyce Sears, Mrs. James Gay, Mrs. Herbert Ranspley, Mr. Frank Hunter, Mr.
