

SQUARE DANCERS . . . Members of the fifth grade classes at Riviera School are becoming enthusiastic square dancers. The class, which is studying the "western movement and colonization," read about the folk dances of the early Americans and decided to give them a try. They liked them and now combine the dancing with their music and physical education classes.

Boys In Hot Auto Nabbed

Two young boys, one an escapee from a forestry camp, were nabbed in a stolen car by Torrance police officers Harry Owens and John Hahn last week. They were arrested at Senfield and Newton Sts. in south Torrance. One of the youths, a former Walteria resident was wanted in connection with four recent car thefts, officers said. The car they were driving had been stolen from Long Beach.

Square Dancing Popular Now at Riviera School

Members of the fifth grade classes at Riviera School have gotten into the swing of things. As part of a study into the "western movement and colonization," they learned that folk dancing was the highlight of the day.

Teacher Vic Kilburn decided to give the kids a chance to learn these dances themselves, just as the pioneers of America did in their westward expansion.

Another class, that of Mrs. Elizabeth Parino, joined in, and now the classes use their physical education and music periods on square dancing.

In just a few sessions, the youngsters were twirling and do-e-do-ing like professionals. Principal Robert Dexter, said. Other classes now have asked to participate in the program. Music is provided by phonograph records, and the activity takes place on a paved playground area.

Kilburn said he will teach the children new dances as their studies advance to modern times.

CHP Reveals New Number For Service

The California Highway Patrol emergency telephone number, ZEnith 12000, will be in practically statewide use by Feb. 1, according to an announcement released today by the Patrol.

"This special service is designed exclusively for reporting traffic emergencies outside cities to the Highway Patrol," declared Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell. "There is no charge for the service even when the Patrol office called is in a toll zone."

"In order to keep the ZEnith 12000 line open for real traffic emergencies, routine matters should continue to be reported in the usual manner using the regular telephone number assigned to the Patrol office in the area," Caldwell continued. "This will enable the Patrol to handle emergencies more expeditiously."

"Motorists are urged to carry the emergency number on their persons or in their cars for ready reference. Additional information concerning this program may be secured from any Highway Patrol office," the commissioner added.

Lost Youngsters Found In Big Packing Carton

Two small boys and a little girl who were listed as missing from downtown Los Angeles were found huddled in a packing crate at the rear of a downtown store, one night late last week.

Found by Jimmy Salisbury, of 2906 Opal St., a HERALD circulation department worker, the children were taken to the police station where they were held for their parents.

Police said the youngsters, Alonzo Ponce, 11; Kenneth Yamagata, 11; and Christine Yamagata, 9, were reported as missing from Georgia St. juvenile bureau. They lived on Exposition Blvd. in Los Angeles.

Apparently they had gone for a walk, and wound up in Torrance.

'Friend' of Blind Man Takes $$$

An acquaintance who befriended a blind man and accompanied him to his home made off with a portable radio and $40 in cash, according to police.

Victim of the theft was Don Miller, of 1443 Post Ave. He said he met a man named "Joe" at a downtown cafe, and asked the man to accompany him home. He later found that the radio and money had been taken.

(See Story, Page 1) FORCED LANDING . . . An airliner spotted this wrecked plane from the air Friday morning, and radioed information about an air crash. Deputies came on the run, only to find that the plane had crash-landed 12 hours earlier. Pilot Gerald Erdman's ship developed engine trouble and he dumped it in the field. Deputy George A. Cooper, of Lennox station, looks over the damage.

AN ELEPHANT WAS HERE . . . Harvey Aluminum officials inspect a bone which Museum officials believe is that of an elephant which lived at least 20,000 years ago. The bone was found in the course of digging a 110-foot hole at the plant. Shown in front of the hole are George Buckley, vice-president of the Vinnell Construction Co.; Rea B. Wiekler, general superintendent; and Lawrence A. Harvey, executive vice-president of Harvey Aluminum.

Ancient Bone Unearthed in Digging Here

More evidence that mammoths or elephants once roamed this area was found recently in construction work at the Harvey Aluminum Co. here.

In digging a 110-foot hole for a new quenching tank, workmen at the plant found an old bone 86 feet down, when Dr. Theodore Downs, curator of vertebrate paleontology at the Los Angeles County Museum, identified it as that from an elephant or mammoth of the Pleistocene period, some 20,000 to 40,000 years ago.

The mammoth, which reached a height of nearly 14 feet, lived in the temperate parts of the northern world during the ice age.

The hole is reportedly one of the deepest in this area and will be used as a quenching tank for heavy press aluminum extrusions.

Lester F. Inman, 44, of 2431 Cabrillo Ave., was taken to Harbor General Hospital last week suffering a head injury. He told police he was hit with a hard object following an argument in a downtown bar.

Leontyne Price To Appear Here On February 21

Tickets for the Leontyne Price concert on Feb. 21 will be on sale to the public at special "guest night" prices, Chairman Eichel Derouin announced yesterday.

The concert, sponsored by the Torrance Area Youth Bands, are usually open to season ticket holders only. However, 300 seats will be sold to the general public for $1 each. Performances are at the Civic Auditorium.

Miss Price, a soprano, sang the title role in "Porgy and Bess" on Broadway last year. Last Sunday, she sang the title role of Puccini's opera, "Tosca" on the NBC-TV Opera Theater.

She is married to William Warfield, prominent entertainer, and toured Europe with "Porgy and Bess" for two years. Her Torrance appearance is part of her first west coast tour.

The Torrance Area Youth Band will play selected numbers for the first half of the concert.

Newton Bid Is $304,000

The bid for construction of Newton School, at Newton St. and the Hudson Construction Co. with a low bid of $304,000, school officials announced Tuesday.

Officials hoped to have the building ready in September. It will contain 16 classrooms, a double kindergarten, shop and home economics facilities, administration offices, and lunch patio. It was designed by Thomas Russell of Long Beach.

Bids for Steele School will open on Feb. 3.

Father-Son Team To Lead EUB Meetings

A father-son team, the Rev. Roland Myer and his 14-year-old son, Daniel, are conducting preaching and musical services at the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church, 1543 Marcelina Ave.

The services will be held every night at 7:30 except Saturday, until Feb. 13. They will also conduct Sunday morning services.

The boy will lead musical services with selections of the trumpet, trombone, concert accordion, harmonica, and piano. He will also introduce "Beze," a puppet clown, who plays the trumpet, and "Little Oscar," a one-inch harmonica.

Rev. Myer opens each service by singing a solo, accompanied on the accordion. Services will close each night at 8:45 p.m.

Six Pigeons Turned Loose

Six show pigeons, the pets of Dale, Don, Kent, and Freddie Ferchald, disappeared from their pens at the boys' home at 2403 W. 237th Place, their mother reported this week.

All but one strutter, two of the birds were white, two gray, and one brown and white and one black and white. One of the spotted ones was such a strutter he had been seen to fall over backwards, the boy's mother reported.

Someone, apparently entered the yard and unlatched the doors on the pens to release the birds. All were banded.

Surface defects disappear when oxygen and acetylene team up to provide a Smooth, flawless skin . . . for steel

YOU KNOW the steel in your automobile and refrigerator is smooth and perfect.

BUT DID YOU KNOW that to get these smooth, flawless surfaces the steel had to be "conditioned"? This means removing the rough scale and surface defects that form on the steel ingots as the molten metal cools.

To remove these defects by hand methods required further cooling of the steel. This was a costly and time-consuming process—a bottleneck to steel production.

THROUGH BLAZING HEAT—Today, as steel travels through the mill, it passes through the 6,000-degree heat of oxy-acetylene flames. Then, while still moving at speeds up to 160-feet per minute, streams of pure oxygen are directed against its blazing hot surfaces. The scaly, scarred surfaces are instantly burned away.

The slab emerges clean—ready to be rolled into flawless sheets for your car, refrigerator, and many other useful products that serve you.

ANOTHER JOB OF UCC—Producing oxygen and acetylene for this and many other uses is one of the important jobs of the people of Union Carbide. It is one more way in which they transform the elements of nature for the benefit of all.
