AROUND THE GARDENS & PLAZA

Cookie Sale, Excursions, Parties Highlight Activities of Area

By BEVERLEY DYER
FA 8-1380

The Girl Scout cookie sale begins this week with Mrs. Helen Osterlind of 2813 Sonoma Ave. serving as chairman of the Harbor Finance District, which covers the area from San Pedro to Gardena. There are five troops participating from the Madrona area; three are Brownie troops and two are Girl Scout troops. Mrs. Eleanor Campbell of 1122 Fonthill Ave. is chairman of Troop No. 1730; Mrs. Carl Peterson, of 1212 Cranbrook Ave., for Troop No. 1293; Mrs. Ruth Planz, of 1605 Juniper Ave., for Troop No. 835; Mrs. Barbara Hardinghaus, of 808 Fonthill Ave., for Troop No. 707; and Mrs. Florence for Troop No. 1719.

The leaders have been putting forth every effort to make this a most successful drive, with the cooperation of the community. Two cents from every box sold will remain with each troop. The remaining profits from the sale will help to establish a new Girl Scout camp at Glendora.

On Saturday, six Girl Scouts from this area were fortunate enough to be included in a group of 500 girls from the Harbor District who went by bus to Glendora to explore their new camp, which is being made possible through the cookie drive. Those going were Linda Rowe, Nancy Hornbeck, JoBeth Jackson, Jan Planz, July Bishop, and Janet Coleman. They were accompanied by Mrs. W. W. Jackson and Mrs. Helen Osterlind.

The Osterlind home, not bustling enough, was overpowered by a severe case of measles, which daughter Carla sadly contracted at school. She even had to forego the pleasure of viewing the camp at Glendora but, at least, is now on the road to recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Maury Hattim arranged their business affairs this weekend so that they and their two children, Craig and Donna, could enjoy the snow at Crestline.

It's good to know that parties and fun never cease. On Feb. 7 Vickie Hayes entertained a group of friends for her seventh birthday. The party was held with mother, Mrs. Harold Hayes, serving luncheon to the seven guests. She had prepared a doll cake, seen illustrated in one of the recent magazines, and had down place cards and balloons to carry out the festive decorations. Those attending the party at the Hayes residence at 2846 Onrado St. were Steve Knutson, Herbie Ratzloff, Jimmy Day, Dickie Weststead, Robin Major, Julia Takayama, Pam Cantile, the hostess and her sister, Vickie and Margaret Hayes.

E. O. Dahlen, who live in Los Angeles. Friends and relatives gathered for the occasion to congratulate him upon receiving the Bachelor of Arts degree from Long Beach State College. His wife, Edith, took time out from her studies at the same college to give birth in December to their fourth child. She is active in the Madrona P.T.A. as telephone chairman, and is well known in Torrance as a fashion moderator and model.

On Feb. 10 Mrs. Roland Petrat, of 2942 Opal St., hosted a baby shower for Mrs. Hugh Brady. Mrs. Petrat used pink and blue in her decorations, with pink and blue storks pictured on the nutcrackers, blue booties and storks molded on top of the cake, and the presents were centered around a baby. Mainboard stork standing on the floor. The guests were Meses. Gordon Routh, W. M. Burrows, Robert Emma, Mathew Iacovelli, Ralph Schmidt, Edward Peters, Carl Huff, Marion Momo, Harold McGuffin, William Crocker, Harold Hayes, E. C. Osterlind, Mrs. Don Porter, W. W. Jackson, and the honored guest, Mrs. Brady.

Jan Planz, of 1605 Juniper Ave., was twelve years old on Feb. 7 and entertained at a hot dog supper for a group of her schoolmates. Following a dinner served at a rainbow decorated table, the group listened to records and danced. Those present were JoBeth Jackson, Joyce Radford, Linda Rowe, Janet Coleman, Judy Bishop, Barbara Campbell, Michele McCutcheon, Sandra Bridges, Dion Dyer, Kenny Eilers, and a cousin of Jan's, Lynne Bridges, of Harbor City. Laurie Planz also was in attendance at her sister's party.

Houseguests in the H. M. Burrows home, 2838 Opal Ave., are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Chaney of Portland, Ore., who are en route home from a trip to Mexico City.

Mildred and Bill McDade celebrated their twelfth wedding anniversary on Feb. 14. Another heart taken over on Valentine's Day!

While attending the Hi-Fidelity Show last Friday, the Paul Haresteads of 2849 Onrado Ave., coincidentally met their friends the Robert Kelseys, who live at 808 Cerise Ave.

Phyllis Kelsey is in charge of the decorations for the St. Patrick's Homeowners Dance. Her committee is as yet unannounced, but I'm sure she would welcome any offered assistance.

Observation Class Starts

A new child observation class began Friday in the First Methodist Church, El Prado and Manuel, from 9 to 12 noon, Torrance Adult School Director Vernon Sheblak announced.

Mrs. Barbara Hardinghaus, UCLA graduate and child study leader, will teach the class, which will meet every Friday. The mother of two children herself, she was a member of the Torrance Cooperative Nursery for two years.

In the classes, the mothers study the child's behavior while playing with other youngsters. Enrollment will be at class meetings, with no tuition charge.

North Torrance Kids Keep Building Log

A daily log of construction activities at North Torrance Elementary School is being kept by Mr. Brown's sixth and seventh grade class as a part of their studies.

A weekly picture of work was taken, and the class interviewed the engineer and contractor. Stories were written about the work, and class members computed the amount of material needed for the portable classrooms.
