Catholic Laymen Saluted By State and County Officials

Catholic men of Torrance received a pat on the back yesterday when Governor Goodwin J. Knight extended his congratulations to them. In a letter addressed to George W. Schneider, General Chairman of the Catholic Laymen's Night, sponsored by Los Cruzados Council of the Knights of Columbus, to be held tonight at the Knights of Columbus club rooms, 214 Avenue I, Redondo Beach, Governor Knight stated:

"May I take this opportunity to extend my regards and commendations to the members of the Knights of Columbus and other Catholic laymen in the South Bay and Torrance areas for their public spirited efforts on behalf of their friends and neighbors. They have made important contributions to the civic, cultural and religious life of their community, state and nation."

Supervisor Burton W. Chace added his congratulations along with those of the mayors of Redondo Beach, Hermosa Beach and Manhattan Beach. Mayor Albert Isen, of Torrance will express his thanks in person at the festive occasion.

Several hundred Catholic men are expected to attend the monthly social affair saluting their zealous efforts in behalf of church and state. Sean Meaney, noted Irish tenor and comedian, will provide sparkling entertainment. Sean has just finished an engagement at the Mocambo, in Hollywood, and has been signed to co-star with Tyrone Power, Maureen O'Hara, and Barry Fitzgerald in John Ford's latest production, "Three Leaves of a Shamrock."

Following the entertainment, a buffet of hickory smoked ribs, baked beans and cinnamon apples will be served. Gerry Revell, chairman of refreshments, stated his crew will start smoking the 150 pounds of meat this afternoon, in a smoke house erected specially for the occasion on the Knights of Columbus property.

Grand Knight John McVey expressed his regrets today that he could not invite the Catholic ladies as well as the men. In a statement issued today, he said: "If our facilities were large enough, to accommodate a greater crowd, we would be happy to have the ladies as our guests." He wanted to remind the Catholic men of the area that everything will be on the house, with no donation requested.

El Nido First Graders Give Comic Circus Performance

By Sarah R. Hooker FR 2-2288

Celebrating Christmas in April is great, proclaims William Drake, of 3304 W. 158th St., recipient of a pair of company service emblem cuff links which his lovely wife Peggy, had specially made for him. Children Scotty, Susie, Michael and Danny joined the celebration at a family dinner party given for him by Mr. and Mrs. James Paddock at their Los Angeles home.

Speechless but happy was Mrs. Ashley, of 18320 Ashley Ave., honoree of a surprise party held by the Ladies of the Chiopeo Council 267 who presented the lovely lady with an automatic peeler.

Much laughter and gaiety was enjoyed by the happy troupe of Mrs. W. A. Wright, Mrs. Glen Runsted, Mrs. Paul Herling, Mrs. Philo Mellor, and Mrs. John Huback on their recent jaunt to Whittier.

Adding rhythm to our community is the rumba band, consisting of El Nido school students from the fifth, seventh, and eighth grades. In the band are Joann Runsted, Eddie Morales, Sandra Pearl Colby, Raymond Grim, Frances Hon, Ronnie Mazza'o, John Silbey, Wayne Sullivan and Douglas McKeen.

Happy wishes are extended to Nancy and James Brawner, of 4531 Narrot Ave., who we hope will soon bannish the colds they're been sporting all season.

It seems unbelievable that Helen Hon of 4254 182nd St. was such a sick little girl recently, for her face is now eager to catch sight of Mr. Stork, who will be the gentleman who is soon visit the Hons. Papa Ira very active in scouting.

Congratulations to lovely teenager, Joann Runsted. The entire neighborhood was drooling over the beautiful cake papa presented her with.

Happy to hear that little Fati Shrigley and young Norman Rosenblatt, of 173rd St., have recuperated from a long siege of measles.

You haven't seen anything unless you chanced to glimpse Carl Davis, of 18327 Roalin Ave., in his "Lil Abner outfit!"

Happy to hear that little Fati Shrigley and young Norman Rosenblatt, of 173rd St., have recuperated from a long siege of measles.

We felt very proud to be a friend of El Nido teacher, Mrs. Shirley Phillips, as her first grade students, performed for the El Nido PTA, meeting last week. The circus activities had the audience rolling in the aisles!

Divisional and departmental representatives have been appointed to serve on the steering committee and will conduct the campaign from May 2 through May 10. Donald E. Fisher will act as representative of the firm's western division and local area.

One of the most attractive matrons in our community, Mrs. Cleo Wagner, hostess of a Turquoise Jumbo party last week. "Piece de resistance" of the evening as always, was the viewing of her lovely decorated home.

Instruction in the presentation of the program was given to the committee by Clare E. Harp, state deputy director of the Savings Bond division, in the meeting which initiated the drive," Vaupel added.

Be fitting the glad season of the year, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Phillips and son George, of 3805 W. 176th St., decided to revel in a spring fairland of loveliness at Palm Springs on their recent three-day vacation.

Harp pointed out that during the 20 years that United States Savings Bonds have been offered, purchases have totaled approximately 20 billion dollars. Bonds valued at over $38 billion are still in the hands of individual savers.

John Baird To Address Optimists

John Baird, special consultant to the Southern California Gas Co., will be guest speaker this evening at the dinner meeting of the Torrance Optimist Club.

Recognized as one of the Southland's leading lecturers, Baird in his talk on "Laughing Gas" will outline some of the numerous aspects in the business of supplying gas service and some of the problems of this evergrowing industry.

Baird is currently featured on both radio and television and can be heard each Sunday evening at 5:45 on KABC and at 5:30 on KMPC.

President C. A. Woodcock will preside at the meeting.

Savings Bond Meeting Held Last Tuesday

To obtain a majority of employees in a United States Savings Bond payroll deduction plan is the goal of eight General Telephone Company representatives who held a "kick-off" meeting Tuesday, in Santa Monica, according to H. C. Vaupel, local manager.

Divisional and departmental representatives have been appointed to serve on the steering committee and will conduct the campaign from May 2 through May 10. Donald E. Fisher will act as representative of the firm's western division and local area.

Refreshments were served by the Women of the Moose with a dance following the installation.
