WHERE'S GINGER?

Mexico, Fair Queen, Park On NTCIA Meeting Agenda

Mexico will be the theme of the North Torrance Civic Improvement Assn. meeting next Wednesday according to John Crain, publicity chairman. The meeting will begin at 8 p. m. in McMaster Hall on 174th St. at Vinton Ave.

The Lady chosen to represent the association must be over 21 years of age, a resident of north Torrance, and have free time to devote to the contest. Interested persons should contact Mrs. Carolyn Bentzen, DA-34897, by tomorrow, for personal interview.

Semaphore Planned
Plans are now underway for the permanent recording in a bound book of the activities of the Civic Association since its beginning. Its compilation will be under the joint direction of Jack White and Edith Trunstead, long-time active members.

Part claimed that it is difficult to obtain time for the various organizations in north Torrance to meet.
