

PTA Activities

Harbor City

Representing the Harbor City PTA. Mmes D. G. Cheek, Leland VanBuren, James Triffon, Carl Gregory, Charles Hlizer, George Weeks, and Avis Creech, principal, attended the Lomita-San Pedro Council meeting held at the Lomita Elementary school last week.

At the April board meeting held in the school cafeteria, Mrs. Avis Creech, principal, gave a written report of the items purchased for the school with money given by the PTA. This report will be read at the association meeting on May 19, at 12:15 p.m. Mrs. Creech also announced a paper drive (no rags) to be held on June 1, the proceeds to be given to the PTA Health Clinic.

Mrs. James Triffon, ways and means chairman, announced that finger paintings will be made by the school children and sold at the May Festival to be held on May 17, from 1 to 2

HOWARD WOOD

Second annual "Open House" of Howard Wood School will begin this evening at 7:30 p. m. preceded by a short business meeting in Room 9.

All school rooms will be thrown open and parents are invited to visit not only their own children's room but all of the rooms, stated Robert Evans, school principal.

Recent announcements included a spring carnival to be held on the school grounds May 7 from 5 to 8 p. m. All kinds of booths will be set up and entertainment for all ages will be provided.

p.m. The children will perform under the theme "Westward Movement," after which a bake sale and concessions will be open. Members attending were Mrs. Michael Travers, John McGulre, R. E. Griffith, A. G. Sipes, Stephen Silkotch, James Triffon, D. G. Cheek, Leland VanBuren, James Alexander, Carl Gregory, Charles Hlizer, and Avis Creech, principal.

Meadow Park

Meadow Park PTA met Wednesday evening, April 20, at the school with Mrs. William Foser, president, in charge.

Rev. George F. Cain of the South Bay Baptist Church gave the spiritual.

The school orchestra entertained with several numbers led by Jerry Andrews. This group which has accomplished so much in the since they have been organized, have been practicing in the school yard due to classroom shortage.

E. L. Adams held open discussion on the School Bond Issue. Meadow Park School will benefit with new permanent classrooms if this Bond Issue should be passed, Mr. Adams pointed out.

A "Meadow Park School" sign is displayed in front of the school. Several of the boys in Dale Wickstrom's shop class made the sign and presented it to the school at the PTA meeting.

A fashion show and shop display was put on by the 7th and 8th grade boys and girls.

Mrs. Frank Weir's fifth graders did a one-act skit entitled "Johnny Applesseed." They also won the PTA attendance award for the month of April.

Evelyn Carr

Saturday, May 7, has been proclaimed "Kids' Day" at the Carr Elementary School when the Johnny Strong Circus will present its "big top" show to the children from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. There will be trained animal acts, clowns and jugglers to entertain the youngsters. "Circus tickets will be 25 cents and may be purchased on the school grounds the day of the circus," said Mrs. J. R. Allison, Ways and Means chairman. Between acts of the circus the Thompson Marionettes will present "Jack and the Beanstalk." PTA members will be on hand to serve hot dogs, soft drinks, popcorn and peanuts to the children.

"Proceeds from this circus will go to the Carr School's Donald Robison Memorial Library fund," said Mrs. Wm. Sale, Co-Chairman of Ways and Means.

Refreshments provided by the 4th and kindergarten classes were served by Mrs. Jack Thomas, hospitality chairman.

Crenshaw

Larry Nelson, known as "The Children's Magician," will present his Bag O' Tricks at Crenshaw school on April 29.

Considered an expert at entertaining children, his repertoire will include such bits of whimsy as "The Giant Dwarf," "Run, Rabbit, Run," "The Balloon Mystery," "Flight of the Doves," and many others. Parents and pre-school children will enjoy the fun as well as the juniors, and are invited to attend. A small admission will go to swell the PTA treasury. Performances will be at 7 and 8 p.m.
