

Two Refinery Employees Receive 30-Year Pins

Two General Petroleum Corp. employees mark 30th anniversaries with the concern this month.

C. H. Freeman of Lynnwood, reaches the end of 30 years on May 22, and Patrick Coyne, of Inglewood, on May 21. They have received commendation from the board of directors, and diamond lapel pins will signify their period of service.

Freeman, a native of Montana, has been in engineering and refining operations since 1925, and is currently employed as a painter leadman at the Torrance refinery.

Coyne, native of Ireland, joined the company on refinery operations at the Vernon plant, transferring to the Torrance refinery in 1931. He is presently employed as a relief shift foreman.
