Kathleen Forrest celebrated her ninth birthday by inviting nine little girls to a glamor dinner party. They had the time of their lives all dolled up in their mother's high heels and long dresses. Patty Potter won first prize for being the most glamorous. She came in a long black taffeta dress that opened down the front showing a beautiful ruffled petticoat, long black tafleta dress that opened down the front showing a beautiful ruffled petticoat, long black tafleta dress that opened down the front showing a beautiful ruffled petticoat, long black tafleta dress that opened down the front showing a beautiful ruffled petticoat, long black tafleta dress that opened down the front showing a beautiful ruffled petticoat, long black with mylon stockings. She also wore long gold earnings and I can't forget to mention her beauty mark!

Debby Struble was no less faccinating in one of her mother's strapless summer dresses. It's a guess as to how she ever held it up. She also won a glamour prize.

Other young Ellinwood Belles included Linda Calahan, Becky McLeod, Janis Struble, Dee Dee Twilliger, Marilyn Wilson, Karen Balley and Janet Dee Robinson.
