

PV College Prexy Speaks

"Citizenship turns out to be exactly what we believe it to be," stated John Howard, president of Palos Verdes College in speaking at the reception for new citizens at the YWCA. He went on to say that to some citizenship is an event, something that happens to us once. To others it is a process, something that goes on and on. "It is not just a document, but something that effects our family, our finances, our job, and our religion," he explained.

Approximately 70 new citizens from 12 countries were received as citizens when Miss Reata Rogers and Mrs. Julia Lucock, Americanization teachers in the Harbor District, presented their classes, and Mrs. Mary Michel, YWCA program director pinned a red, white, and blue corsage on each. Mr. Glen Gardner, principal of the San Pedro Adult School, extended greetings and Mrs. Maria Inez from the Philippines gave an eloquent testimonial as to what citizenship means to her.

The meeting was opened with the advance of the colors by members of the U.S. Marine Corps. Sgts. Arthur L. Driscoll, William H. Marquette, Melvin R. Ricks, and Wallace T. Sorenson.

There were new citizens from Columbia, Guatemala, England,

Shower Fetes Mrs. Lessing

Mrs. Paul Lessing was the honoree at a pretty pink and blue stork shower given by Mrs. Paul Rowe, Ethel Risk and Gloria Edward on the evening of May 27 at the home of Mrs. Carl Bower, 1640 Iris.

The refreshment table was centered with a sheet cake decorated with miniature storks and babies. Blue cradles as nut cups added to the decorative theme. After an evening of games, the honoree was presented a white bassinette filled with gifts. The party colors were further carried out in the refreshments of jello and cake.

Guests attending the affair with the hostesses were Mrs. Vilma Perlewitz, Norman Dobrick, Jean Schultz, Shirley Mantych, Alice Ayala, Kate Mantuch, Laura Dumont, Sophie Duncan, Ethel Sayer, and Edna Nelson of Denver, Colo.

Germany, Italy, Mexico, Japan, Norway, Philippines, Poland, Scotland, and Yugoslavia.

Following the program refreshments were served by members of the American Association of University Women. Mrs. Virgil Keith, Edna Hainline, Henry Laurel, and Donald Mitchell.

The event was sponsored by the Nationalities committee of the YWCA with Mrs. Robert Sharp as chairman.

Jobs Daughters to Install New Officers Saturday Eve

Jobs' Daughters Bethel 50 will holds its annual installation of new officers Saturday evening at 8 p.m. at the Masonic Temple.

Miss Sally Speck will be installed as Honored Queen succeeding Miss Carol Maloy.

Heinz-Miller Nuptials Read In Home Rites

A decorative design of white satin ribbons and white wedding bells arched above the fireplace which was banked with palms, ferns and arrangements of white carnations, stock and gladioli, formed the exquisite setting for the home nuptial ceremony of Ella Mae Heinz and Louis Miller on May 25 at 8 p.m.

Double ring rites were read by the Rev. C. Howard, Navy chaplain, at the home of the bride's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. William Crow of 20955 Brighton St., Torrance.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. LeRoy Crow of San Pedro, exchanged vows attired in a poudre blue lace, off the shoulder gown in the ballerina length with matching short jacket. She carried a nosegay of white orchids.

Sister of the bride, Mrs. James Muths, in a pink, nylon gown styled with a fitted bodice, v-shaped neckline, and full, gathered skirt, and carrying a pink nosegay, served as matron of honor.

Bridegroom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Miller, Sr., of San Pedro, was attended by Larry Miller. Giving the bride in marriage was her brother, at whose home the wedding took place. Coming from Chicago for the wedding was the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Robert Nicol.

Bridal music was presented by Mrs. Forrest Armstrong who sang the bride's request song, "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer" at the benediction. Pianist was Mrs. Clara Martin.

A reception for 40 guests followed the ceremony. An all blue wedding cake centered the table. Edging the table was fern entwined with baby breath and blue flowers.
