Bank of America Gives Office to Clarence Clark

Promotion of long-time Torrance resident Clarence E. Clark to an officer's post at Torrance branch of Bank of America was announced Friday by Dean L. Sears, branch manager.

Clark was only two years old when his family moved here from Idaho in 1921. While attending Torrance High School, he accepted a part-time banking job and worked after school and on Saturdays. He liked the work, and after graduation continued on a permanent basis.

Clark now has the title of assistant cashier and is serving as lending officer in the installment credit to an department at Torrance branch of the bank. His 19 years of banking have given him experience in virtually every department of branche banking, filling assignments in various branches in this area. At one time he was in

Inoculations To Be Urged 000

Dr. Clinton H. Thienes, president of the Citizens Committee for Better Health, and director of Huntington Memorial Hospital. Pasadena, will be guest speaker at tomorrow's luncheon meeting of the Lions Cliub. He will advocate a rabies inoculation ordinance.

Warren Hamilton, president, said arrangements are being made to have a speaker on the other side of the question at a meeting soon. A petty theft charge has been filled against a grocery checker at a market in south Torrance for allegedly undercharging her sister, a customer.

Released on $100 bond each are Pearl Williams, $315 Newton St., the checker, and Agnes Anderson, her sister, also on a theft charge, formerly a Torrance resident and now living in Redondo, according to Detective Capt. Ernest Ashton.

The two women will appear Friday in South Bay Municipal Court.

Filling the complaint was Dick Allen, market supervisor.
