'Yard Improvement Plan' Makes Homes in Area More Attractive

By SUE BURK FR 5-4519
With the Seaside Hi-Lighters' "Yard Improvement Plan" about half-way through, yards and homes in this area are really looking a lot better. The contest, designed to run for three months, will feature a handsome prize to be awarded to the home which shows the most improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Caudill recently returned from a three-week vacation tour through Missouri and Oklahoma, where they visited many relatives. Their son, Larry, remained in the Middle West for the summer, where he is enjoying farm life.

Mrs. Garrett Eustice Jr., of Bindewald Rd., was saddened last week by the death of her mother. Final rites were held last Tuesday.

Two birthdays and an anniversary were celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Milanowski, of Zakon Rd., this month. Dick celebrated his birthday on the 7th and Diana on the 9th, with their anniversary falling on the 18th.

Although they celebrated by staying home and relaxing, they received many nice gifts, including a pressure cooker, of which both are extremely proud.

The Robert Gramhams, of Sepulveda Blvd., have been spending their vacation by staying at home and taking short trips to the mountain areas.

Mrs. Erman Sharp Jr., of Palos Verdes Blvd., has been in bed for several months. She would welcome visitors and perhaps a good book or magazine.

The Robert E. Whytes, of Zakon Rd., welcome a new baby girl into their home recently. Leslie Diane weighed in at 6 lbs., 15 ozs. Brother Stevie is pretty proud of the new baby as are her grandparents, Mrs. Besse Grey and Mrs. Lou Parry.

It's a big boy for Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Findley, of Sharynne Lane. The infant is named Thomas Paul. Beaming

LINDA SELLS . . . Representing Quality Market in the final judging for "Miss Torrance" tomorrow evening will be Miss Sells, who seeks to gain the title now held by Norma Quine. Winner of the contest will be selected by a panel of Hollywood beauty experts.

GEORGIA SANFORD . . . Competing for the chance to reign as "Miss Torrance" during the next year is Georgia Sanford, sponsored in the annual contest by National and Torrance Barber Shops. Contest finals will be in the Civic Auditorium here tomorrow evening.
