

Mrs. Acker Flying to Norway For Reunion After Fifty Years

By ALICE PERKIN
FA 8-3265

Enjoying a vacation trip that most of us only dream about is Mrs. Inza Acker, who resides with her daughter and son-in-law, the James Hills, of 1315 Teri St.

Mrs. Acker left last Easter Sunday from Torrance to visit Norway. She flew from New York to Paris June 1, then on to Copenhagen where she will visit with her brother and five sisters whom she has not seen in 50 years. Mrs. Acker will rejoin her family, Dorothy and James Hill and her grandchildren, 7-year-old John, and 22-month-old Tony, around the first part of October.

This is the final notice of the Gardens and Plaza Homeowner's Assn. The association board members voted to disband the organization several weeks ago.

At that time, it was decided that after three notices in this column, and no interest was shown by some individual or group, the remaining general fund would be given to some worthwhile charity.

There has been no interested party to carry on the work of the association at the time of this notice. Several persons have called board members and inquired about the distribution of the general fund. If there are any comments or any interested groups, please contact Rocky Janasik at FA 8-0612.

and Johnny Belzer, Kenny Hall, Riana Bell, Marilyn Berning, Debbie Brown and Judy's 7-year-old brother, Clark.

Under gaily lighted Chinese lanterns, a pot luck dinner was enjoyed by neighbors last Saturday night at the Armistead residence, 2759 Onrado St.

Among those attending the patio party were:

Messrs. and Mmes. Don Barker, 2756 Eldorado; John Beahan, 2752 Onrado; Robert Schooley, 2760 Onrado; Lester Murdoch, 2768 Onrado; Ed Urein, 2755 Onrado and Bill Dreger, 2764 Onrado. Rounding out the evening, everyone went next door to the Urein's patio and danced while they enjoyed the warm, outdoor fire.

most of their time fishing at Lake Rodriguez. Bev and daughter Dieder shopped for souvenirs. Both the fishing and the souvenir shopping were successful.

The Dyers are presently enjoying a visit from their nephew, Willis Solis, of Monterey Park. Willis is 12 and is thoroughly enjoying the beaches.

William Crooker, of 809 Cranbrook, has recovered successfully from a kidney operation performed at Torrance Memorial hospital by Dr. Jack Lynn. While convalescing, Crooker and his family went to Laguna and saw the Art Festival. Their daughters Patricia, 11, and Beverly, 9, swam at the beach and the hotel pool.

The Crookers attended a swimming party at the home of Francis Hardy, of Altadena, upon returning from their Laguna holiday. Besides swimming, the Crookers and the other 24 guests enjoyed a pot luck dinner of chicken, casseroles, pie and garnishes.

What could be more appropriate than a Davy Crockett theme for a boy's fifth birthday party? Which is exactly how Steve Wood, of 3033 Onal, celebrated the occasion. The children had cake and ice cream outdoors and later played games.

Among the 24 guests were Melina and Terri Gilbert, Michel Earle, Anthony Romero, Cheryl Pylant, Nikki Harstad, Cheryl and Jimmy Stokum, Russell Leedy, Jackie Huff, Kathleen Momo, Billy Kautto, Robie Davey, Richard Diemer, Jeannie and Jeri Cook, Dana Garet, Steve's cousin, and Steve's sister, 2-year-old Erica.

Attending an outdoor barbecue in Manhattan Beach this week end were the Clair Johnsons, of 614 Cerise, and the Fran Lehms of 2540 Sierra. The outdoor party was held at the home of Ed and Ruth Lire, and was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hatter.

The party was in the form of a mixed personal shower celebrating the Hatters' third addition to the family. For a nice change the husband enjoyed opening the gifts. Also attending were the Fred Smiths and Russ Gilberts.

Returning from a three-day trip to Yosemite are Mr. and Mrs. Norman Baker, of 821 Cerise. Accompanying them on their trip were their sons, Gary, 7, and David, 4; and sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Potridge of Inglewood.

They stopped in Madera to visit Baker's grandmother and went to Yosemite for a day. At Yosemite they took pictures of the tame deer, viewed the falls and enjoyed watching the squirrels scamper about. Leaving Yosemite they stopped again at Madera and brought the senior Mrs. Baker home to Inglewood.

The Sarah Circle of the First Lutheran Church met at the home of Helen Crooker, 809 Cranbrook, this week. Mrs. Crooker, president of this circle, entertained her group with an outdoor barbecue of wieners, salad and dessert. After devotions, which were held inside, Mrs. Crooker and her 30 guests went outdoors again and were entertained with a game planned around the fashions of 1920. The primary purpose of the party was to create interest for the new members of the circle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ev Robertson, of 2825 Onrado St., enjoyed a week end visit from her parents, the H. Kellys. The four some went to Santa Ana Park and enjoyed a picnic and boat riding.

ful outdoor chicken barbecue this week end were the Richard Beechers, of 1024 Felbar. Their guests were Beecher's parents, the W. A. Beechers and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hanson, an aunt and uncle from Covina.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelly, of 926 Felbar, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beecher, made a four some last Saturday night and went to see "Streetcar Named Desire" put on in Manhattan Beach by the Chapel Players.

Norman Bailey, of 2826 Onrado, was taken ill recently with a case of food poisoning. Bailey is a member of the Lawrence Welk orchestra. The Baileys have just returned from a trip to Canada.

Dr. and Mrs. Allen Pycatt, of 804 Cerise, are enjoying a visit from Dr. and Mrs. Daniel, of Indiana University. The men are renewing a long association as college friends at Denton, North Texas, and as Army buddies. Dr. Daniel, a professor of music at Indiana University, is a godparent to the Pycatts' son, Ralph.

Following her mother's example in a small degree, Mrs. James Hill took the children and visited her sister, Mrs. Ray Holt in Sanger, Calif. and her brother, Gerald Acker, in Merced. Her trip, however, was much less successful as the children contracted mild virus infections on the trip and Mrs. Hill had to return home.

Judy Osborn, of 1208 Maple, celebrated her fifth birthday with her friends and family. Her guests enjoyed a doll cake made by Mrs. Lorraine Berning in her honor, ice cream and hot dogs.

Those attending were Michel and Danielle Musdick, Glen and Jackie Amos, Barbara McElhiney, Bonnie Schmidt, Mike

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Wilson, of 805 Elm St., have just returned from a month-long vacation spent enroute and at Minneapolis, the Wilsons managed to visit with both her relatives, the Silaschs, and his relatives.

On their return trip they went by way of Glacier and Mount Rainier National Parks. The scenery was spectacular.

Another vacation trip for the traveling Lou Dyers, of 2838 Onrado, and their children, Tijuana, Mexico, to visit Dyer's brother, who runs a popular dress shop there. Lou and his brother, along with the Dyer boys, Dione and Dennis, spent

KNOW HIM ?

Juvenile delinquency was just a term until they sent the boy down the street to what they politely termed a "training school." Then it became real, because this boy wasn't just a statistic but a kid who had played with your kids. Why, only last Sunday you had gone fishing with his father.

So now... you wondered why. The boy came from a good home—or did he? There was money enough, luxury enough, but it's true that his parents sometimes left him pretty much to his own devices. There were his mother's clubs and his father's business, and they led an active social life.

You asked yourself why... and in your heart you knew the answer. It lay in those gaps that had been left in his upbringing—great chinks, that should have been filled with faith, spiritual guidance, and solid enduring values. Thinking about it, you made up your mind to start taking your own kids to church on Sundays without fail—no matter how good the weather was for fishing.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
