

MRS. MARVIN VINCENT RUEBEL
... Joins Bridal Ranks

Terry Marsteller on the Riviera

Terry Marsteller of Jamaica, son of Carl E. Marsteller, 1314 Date Ave., is now on the French Riviera. From there he will go to Venice and Copenhagen, then to London, where he will board a plane for home on Oct. 10.

Recently the former local resident flew from Jamaica with his houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Tenschart of New York City, who had been visiting him at his estate, the Cottonwood, in Ocho Rios. Others in the party to New York were Lord and Lady Graham of Hermosa Beach, Ocho Rios and their daughter, Miss Jacqueline Ryder.

Mr. Marsteller's guests shared his active life on the north coast, water skiing daily. Mr. Tenschart is an art director for Academy Pictures in New York and did 21 sketches during his Jamaica stay, which will be shown in New York this fall.

Scheduled as houseguests this fall at the Cottonwood Estate are movie star Tab Hunter and his mother, from Hollywood. Terry and Tab have been friends for several years.

Hostess at Cast Party

Miss Mickey Van Deventer entertained the cast of the three one act plays which closed Friday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Van Deventer, 2203 Carson St. The cast was composed of students of the evening drama class of the Harbor Junior College.

After a pot luck supper, dancing in the patio was enjoyed.

Attending the party were John Edward Durand, supervisor and director of theater arts; Dan Desmond, director; and Elsie Pestoff, John Balliff, Merlene Lyden, Harold Wise, Myra Jadd, Patsy Dooley, Faye and Alice Olson.

Others were Seymour Cline, Gary Matlin, Pamela Swire, Van Guelder Waring, Bob Singer, Dennis Goodno, John Beaumont, David Gustafson, Edward Hayworth and Mary Torquato.

Conlin-Camell Rites Read At Nativity

At a 9 o'clock nuptial mass at Nativity Catholic church last Saturday morning, Miss Kathleen Anne Conlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Conlin, 2542 Maricopa became the bride of John Lewis Camell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Camell of Duluth, Minn.

The Rev. P. J. McGuinness officiated at the double ring vow exchange and read the mass.

The bride was lovely in her all lace wedding gown over white taffeta, made with a fitted bodice with long sleeves and a full skirt. Her finger tip veil was held in place with a tiara and she carried a white orchid encircled with stephanotis.

Mrs. Jake Camell was the matron of honor, wearing a pale green net gown and carrying yellow carnations. Jake Camell served as best man. Miss Pat Green at the organ played the wedding marches and accompanied Frank Algarne who sang "Panis Angelicus" and "Ave Maria." Miss Jackie Palao was in charge of the guest register.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where a tiered wedding cake centered the table. The couple left for San Diego to spend their honeymoon. They will be at home in 29 Palms where the bridegroom is stationed with the United States Marine Corps.

The bride was graduated this spring from St. Anthony's High school in Long Beach.

Korneff-Helm Rites Read In Late-Afternoon Nuptial

First Lutheran Church was the scene of the double ring nuptial ceremony of Miss Karen Ruth Korneff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Korneff of 204 W. 220 St., and Lawrence Keith Helm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Welker Williams of Wilmington. Officiating at the 4 o'clock afternoon service, held Aug. 6, was the Rev. Paul Umschweiler.

Preceding the bride to the altar were Judith Rogers serving as maid of honor, Charlotte Rogers and Nancy Landon, as bridesmaids. They all wore lace and nylon tulle gowns in the colors of pale green, turquoise and pink. They wore rosebud head bands and carried cascades of yellow, pink and dark red roses.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white lace and net, accented with a Queen Ann collar. A small lace hat held her finger tip veil and she carried a white orchid surrounded with stephanotis adorning a white lace Bible.

Serving as best man was Clifford Pederson and seating the 150 guests were Richard Helm and Clifford Dunn. A program of bridal music was presented with Mr. C. Ogren singing "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and concluding with the "Lord's Prayer."

Sherrill Helm attended the guest book at the reception following the ceremony. Following their return from a honeymoon tour of the California coast, they will live at 162 1/2 W. 220 St. Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Banning High School. The new Mrs. Helm is a former member of GAA, Tri-B and past president of the Damsels Club.

FROM ST. LOUIS

Arriving tomorrow by TWA from St. Louis, Mo., will be Mrs. William Stock and daughter, Mrs. Elvira Watts, who will spend about three weeks here with Mrs. Charles Stock, 1412 Manuel Ave.

MRS. DAVID E. McDONNELL
... Beautiful Bride

(Bob Roberts Photo)

Two Prominent Lomita Family Names Linked in Marriage on Sunday Evening

Against a picturesque background of white summer flowers, artistically arranged in trumpet baskets and vases, interspersed with myriads of candles, Miss Marylyn Jane Cracknell became the bride of Marvin Vincent Ruebel in an 8 o'clock ceremony Sunday evening in the First Presbyterian Church of San Pedro.

Both the bride and bridegroom are members of families who have resided in Lomita for a number of years. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Cracknell of 25607 Lucille Ave., and he is the son of Roy Ruebel, formerly of Lomita.

Singing the bride's request songs was Mrs. Richard McNulty. The Rev. Andrew Waugh McCormick officiated at the double ring vow exchange.

Lighting the candles marking the center aisle pews, in the chancel and on the altar, were Mrs. Dan Chambers and Mrs. Crin Pollock, who were gown-ed alike in yellow brocaded satin in the waltz length, and fashioned along princess lines. Crowns made of velvet and pearls completed their ensembles. They also served as leaders of the wedding procession.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride's blond beauty was enhanced in a gown of white, chantilly lace styled with a long, pointed bodice with billowy skirt over white taffeta. Her finger tip veil was held by a single strip of nylon ornamented with pearls and sequins. She carried orchids surrounded with stephanotis and lilies of the valley showered with ribbon streamers.

Serving the bride as her honor attendant was her sister, Miss Barbara Jule Cracknell. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Phillip Butterfield and Mrs. Olaf Baker. All were gown-ed alike in white figured nylon over baby blue satin, fashioned with long torsos, full skirts, trimmed with blue bustles at the back featuring large bows. They carried picture bouquets of white carnations circled with blue satin tied with blue ribbon streamers.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was his brother, Ray Don Ruebel. Seating the 300 guests were Charles Hawley, Jack Hammond, Larry Gimenez and Carl Strong.

A reception followed in the church hall. A pale blue wedding cake of five tiers based with white camellias and fern was served with yellow punch, which accented the blue and yellow theme of the wedding. Mrs. Shelley Madison and Gordon Speight were in charge of the guest book.

Upon the couple's return from a motor trip to Carmel and Santa Cruz mountains, they will reside on Arlington Ave., in Torrance. Their romance began at Narbonne High School, where both were members of the winter graduating

Bridal Couple Now at Home After Honeymoon in Mexico

Mr. and Mrs. David Daniels returned recently from a honeymoon in Mexico, which followed their marriage July 16 in the Wayside Chapel of Lomita.

The bride, the former Barbara Jean Goar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Goar of 25356 Woodward Ave., Lomita, will return this fall to Narbonne High school where she will complete studies for graduation in February. Her bridegroom who is the son of Mrs. Edna Daniels of Compton, also attended Narbonne prior to serving the medical branch of the U. S. Army at Fitzsimmons hospital in Colorado where he is now stationed. His bride will join him there in February.

Their nuptials were read in a formal ceremony at 8 p.m., with the Rev. Howard Rosene officiating at the double ring service. Bouquets of pink and white gladioli decorated the church and a program of bridal music was sung by Shirley Washburn, including the bride's request selections of "With These Hands," "Because" and during the benediction the "Lord's Prayer."

Lighting candles for the ceremony were Betty Hornung in a full length gown of satin and net in the rose shade and Connie Daniels, sister of the bridegroom, in blue.

Honor attendant for the bride was Miss Kay Brown who wore a blue gown of satin and net with matching floral crown. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white lace and satin styled with a fitted bodice, and double tulle skirt decorated with scattered clusters of lily of the valley. Her finger tip veil was held by a heart shaped crown of pleated lace and lillies of the valley. She carried a white Bible adorned with an orchid and stephanotis.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was Joe Kiley and seating the 175 guests were Jackson Pearson and Don Miller.

A reception in the church hall followed the ceremony. A four-tiered, decorated cake in the colors of pink and white, the wedding theme, centered the bridal table. Presiding over the guest register was Miss Mary Pearson.

MRS. DAVID DANIELS
... Summer Bride

VACATIONING

Mrs. Laura Felker and daughters, Sharon and Andrea will leave this week end for Balboa where they have taken an apartment for the next two weeks. Mrs. Felker and Andrea returned last week from Catalina where they had spent a week at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. John Melville.

FRIENDS HERE

Jack Hudson entertained as his week end guests two fraternity brothers from the University of Kansas City, Ken Wilson and Harry Klutz. Joining them for dinner Saturday evening was another Kansas City friend, Miss Georgana McLarnan, who is visiting friends in La Jolla.

Joan Demonet Recites Marriage Vows With D. E. McDonnell at Nuptial Mass

Miss Joan Marie Demonet, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcel L. Demonet of 2817 Sonoma St., became the bride of David E. McDonnell, at a 10 o'clock nuptial mass, Saturday morning, in the Nativity Catholic Church, with the Rev. P. J. McGuinness, officiating.

As the 150 guests were being seated by Wayne McDonnell and Henry Burmester,

FROM SAN DIEGO

Mrs. Don Moyer and children, Christine and Doug of San Diego are spending a few days here with Mrs. Moyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paour. Mr. Moyer was here for the week end.

Patio Party At Post Home

The patio at the home of Mrs. James Post, 1448 El Prado was the setting for a delightful pot luck barbecue supper and party Saturday evening. After the supper games were played.

Together for the evening were Messrs. and Mmes. George Post, Bob Leech, Kenneth Miller, Bob Tolson, John Barrington, Jim Post, Van Sommers, Bob Kerber and Don Moyers of San Diego, who spent the week end here.

This group which meets once a month will hold their September get-together at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Van Sommers.

MRS. LAWRENCE K. HELM
... August Bride

(Crotty Studio Photo)

a program of bridal music was presented by Frank Algarne who sang the "Ave Maria" and the "Lord's Prayer." He was accompanied by Mrs. N. L. McCologogue who played "Panis Angelicus" and the wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attractively gown-ed in white chantilly lace over nylon net and white satin. A pearl tiara held her finger tip, nylon veil and she carried a white orchid encircled with white rosebuds and stephanotis.

Attending her sister, as maid of honor, was Claire Ann Demonet, wearing a floor length gown of aqua crystalline with matching net halo. Her flowers were pink carnations.

Standing with the bridegroom was Matthew McDonnell who served as best man.

A reception in the church hall followed the ceremony. Centering the serving table was a white tiered cake, topped with the traditional bride and groom. Presiding over the guest book was Mrs. Matthew McDonnell.

Upon their return from a honeymoon at Santa Barbara and Yosemite, they will reside in Torrance. The bride is a graduate of Torrance High School and Whittier College. She also attended El Camino College and is a kindergarten teacher in the Torrance school district. Bridegroom, who is the son of Mrs. Elizabeth McDonnell of Hawthorne, attended Wayne University of Detroit, Mich., and is continuing his education at El Camino College.

Give Party In New Home

Mr. and Mrs. Garth Belknap entertained a group of friends at their new home, 17822 Bailey Dr. in North Torrance, last Friday evening. Mr. Belknap is a teacher at the Torrance High school.

The group presented the couple with money to purchase a gift for their new home. After a social evening refreshments were served.

Guests were Messrs. and Mmes. William Moore, Leonard Liston, John Steinbaugh, James Halle and Dick Oliver.

TO BALBOA

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Derouin will leave today for Balboa where they will spend the week end with Mr. and Mrs. George Moore, former Torrance residents.