

Mr., Mrs. Willard Irwin on Southern Honeymoon Enroute to Georgia Home

In a 9 o'clock ceremony at Wayfarer's Chapel, in Palos Verdes, last Saturday evening, Miss Jane Quinlivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don J. Quinlivan, 23227 Robert Rd., exchanged wedding vows with Willard Eugene Irwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Irwin, of 1408 Engracia. The picturesque chapel was further enhanced with white baskets filled with white chrysanthemums and gladioli for the ceremony at which Rev. A. T. Knox officiated.

The bride, who came to the altar on the arm of her father, wore a gown of tulle and satin. The satin fitted bodice had a matching jacket and the full skirt was of white tulle. Her illusion veil was held by a coronet of stephanotis which matched the bridal bouquet, a cascade of stephanotis.

Miss Joyce Bernhardt wearing a poudre blue tulle gown with a taffeta bodice and carrying pink dianthus was the maid of honor. Miss Elaine Piguet in an aqua gown and Mrs. Leo Lewis in pink net and taffeta and both carrying bouquets of pink dianthus were the bridesmaids.

Jack Garland served as best man and ushers were Gene Eppen, Jerry Monahan, Carl Irwin and Bob Koenike.

A reception was held at La Vista Inn which was elaborately decorated with the pink and white decor. A large heart shaped wedding cake centered the bride's table. Miss Michele Silver was in charge of the guest book.

The couple then left on their trip to their new home at 2705 Bellevue, Aurora, Ga. Enroute they plan to visit the Carlsbad Caverns, Juarez Mexico, and New Orleans.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High School and has been attending the University of Southern California, where she was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi, women's club; Phi Chi Theta, women's commerce fraternity and Sigma Alpha Sigma, honorary secretarial. She plans to continue her education at the University of Georgia.

The bridegroom was also graduated from Torrance High School. He then attended El Camino College and USC, majoring in commerce. Mr. Irwin is serving with the United States Army in Georgia.
