Confusion Reigns as Boy Asks 12 Guests to Birthday Party

By BETTY MITCHELL DA 6-4438

It's never dull around the house when there are children present. Mrs. Robert Waegner, of Winlock Rd., can testify to that fact since her son's seventh birthday last Sunday, Sept. 25.

Robby decided to really have a celebration so he invited 12 guests to a birthday party in his honor, then kindly informed his mother that they were coming. From the resulting hurry and confusion came a wonderful party two hours later.

Hot dogs, potato salad, cake, ice cream, and punch were served the happy guests at the impromptu celebration, and all were happy with the success of Robby's idea.

Little guests who came were Susie and Cathy Brown, David Birmingham, Kenny Pfau, Jack and Bonnie Farmer, Jimmy Hull, Bruce Richardson, sister, Sharon, and cousins, Herman and Kevin Rogers. Also guests at the Waegner home on the more than eventful day, were Mrs. J. Taylor and son, James, and Herman Miller.

In the midst of the gaiety and company, the Waegners received word that they had a brand-new nephew, Ernest Rogers, Jr.

Boy Scout Troop 240, which has been so ably led by Robert Waegner, now has a new Scoutmaster in the person of William Reed. Reed lives in Ellinwood, and is a very welcome addition to Scout activities in this area.

General WSCS meeting was held on Sept. 20, at the local Methodist Church.

Fifty women were present, including guests from the Lomita Wayside Chapel's Women's Society Guest speaker for the evening was Mrs. Lawrence Brown, president of the Long Beach District. Mrs. Brown was accompanied by Mrs. Vincent Bailey. Another guest was Mrs. Daisy Dalton of Redondo Beach.

Enjoyment of the evening was increased by a vocal selection, "The Lord Is My Shepherd," by Mrs. James Gaz. The business of the meeting was carried out as quickly as possible, after which, refreshments of pineapple upside down cake and coffee were served.

Co-hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Stewart Rose, Robert Cramer, Glenn Maxwell, William Mitchell, William Taylor, and Mary Kifer.

The JFF Club held its monthly meeting on Sept. 20, at the home of Mrs. John Minor, with Mrs. Louella Lassen, president, presiding. Guest for the evening was Mrs. Martha Cramer, of Robinson, Ill., mother-in-law of Mrs. Georgia Cramer, one of the club members. Lucky winner of the evening was Mrs. Jim Laughridge, who won the raffle. Bunco was played for entertainment, with Mrs. Lassen walking off with first prize and Mrs. Martha Cramer winning second. The pleasant meeting was ended with the serving of banana cream pie and coffee by the hostess.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Eva Kelly at 23863 Park St., on Oct. 18. The occasion will mark their annual Halloween party, with pot-luck dinner being the menu.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Burgener, of Neece Ave., were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kingery, of Highland Park. The Kingerys visited over Thursday and Friday, with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kingery of Hollywood, joining the group for dinner on Friday evening.

A surprise visit headed for Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stephens of Newton St., ended in a tragic mishap. Mrs. Stephens' mother was on her way here from San Francisco, to pay the Stephens a surprise visit when she was involved in a traffic accident in Santa Barbara.

Fortunately she suffered only a broken nose and several cuts and bruises although her car was severely damaged. She will stay at the Stephens' home until able to make the trip back to San Francisco.

The South Torrance Association for Scouts held its meeting recently at Seaside. Elected to serve the association as chairman for the coming year is Mrs. Edithmae Perkins. She will be assisted by Mrs. Helen English as chairman of Program Education.

Working under Mrs. English will be two troop organizers, one for this area being Mrs. Robert Waegner, of Winlock Dr. The association will hold its meetings every third Tuesday at the El Retiro Park Clubhouse at 9:30 a.m.

A more than pleasant surprise came to Mickey Cumiford and son, Mike, this last Friday when they receive a phone call from International Airport.

The call was from Lou Comiford, husband and father, who had just returned from Saudi Arabia, where he had been sent by his company. Since he had not been expected till the last of November, it was a happy surprise for his family, seeing him this much sooner.

The Walteria Business Women were more than pleased with the results of their rummage sale held last Friday and Saturday in Torrance. Chairmen for the sale were Mmes. Virgil Hancock, Maze Moton, and Robert Waegner.

A Mothers' Club meeting for a new Intermediate Girl Scout troop was held last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Roger Graham, 2819 Danaha St. Mrs. Graham will be the leader for the new troop.

Mrs. Jean Cramer, of Las Codonas St., has been very ill with an attack of asthmatic bronchitis.

Of interest to all is the Youth Committee formed in this area. A short time ago Governor Goodwin Knight sent letters to all municipalities requesting their assistance in the forming of a state-wide youth program which will provide activities for the youth and combat juvenile delinquency.

Chairman for the Torrance area is Rev. Nathan Bond. Sgt. D. C. Cook of the Torrance Police Force is working with the committee, along with representatives from different communities.

The committee has sent letters to all groups dealing with youth activities and is now working on a digest of all the information sent them from these groups.

On Oct. 2, an old time "Town Hall Meeting" will be held in Torrance, at which time problems and solutions will be discussed, each person being granted one minute in which to speak.

The result of this Town Hall meeting and subsequent parleys will be a report sent by the committee to the state government. It is hoped by many that this report, along with those from other municipalities, will enable the state government to form an efficient and worthwhile state-wide youth program.

Mrs. Clara Temple, recently arrived here from Chicago, Ill., is in the Torrance Memorial Hospital undergoing surgery. It is hoped that she will return home the end of this week.

Brea Canyon was where the Tom Fitzpatrick's of Danaha St. enjoyed themselves last Saturday night. They were there attending a stein fry given by Tom's employers.
