

THE WEEK ENDER

New Building Record Seen For Torrance

Torrance gave every indication in September of continuing its steady climb toward a new construction record when it passed the total building permit valuations for the year to $27,338,898.

Schools Hit 15,000 Enrollment in the Torrance Unified School District climbed over the 15,000 mark last week, according to Warren Hamilton, director of special services for the district.

Police Program Set Some 2000 local youngsters will begin studying their second police course this week, and monthly health officials will conduct Friday, the administration program, which will complete the series of courses begun last spring.

Tennis, Saxons Lose North High Tennis, in its first game since the fall season, defeated the Torrance High Saxons 1-0 in a game Friday night.

Rabies Ordinance Controversy continued to rage over the city's rabies ordinance and the HERALD Monday afternoon editorial comment on the matter.

Armory Fete Set Military Band and city officials are hurrying last minute plans for the annual dedication of the Torrance National Guard Armory at Caliente and Lincoln.

Just About People Columnist Vera Wright gathered up all the neighborhood news for Monday HERALD readers in her North Torrance area.

Special Notice In addition to the above stories carried in detail in the Monday, Oct. 3, issue of the Torrance HERALD, this newspaper carried two pages of social news, including engagements, bridal parties, Women's Club activities, stonors, DeMolay Mothers Club, a schedule of the Christian Women's Fellowship Circle for October, the birth of 15 babies to Torrance area residents at Torrance Memorial Hospital, and news of PTAs from Meadow Park, Howard Wood, Halldale, Riviera, Fern Greenwood, Waltham, Crestshaw, Torrance High School, Evelyn Carr, Perry, Lomita, Harbor City, North Torrance, and Torrance Elementary.

Perry PTA Asks End to Double Sessions

4TH GRADE PARENTS ANGERED BY CHANGE

A resolution demanding an immediate end of all double sessions at Perry School was passed Thursday night at a stormy meeting of the Perry PTA.

Parents Want More After five years of double sessions and crowded classrooms, caused by phenomenal growth in the North Torrance area, aroused parents demanding more school facilities.

Schools Crowded Several speakers claimed that despite the fact that $15,000,000 is being spent to build new schools in the area, the present school situation is still a disaster.

Many Building One parent suggested that no further building be allowed in the vicinity of schools until provision is made for additional classrooms and teachers to provide for hundreds of new students.

Girl Still in Critical Condition Little Judy Ann Woodhouse, 7, of 19065 Burn Ave., still was in critical condition at Harbor General Hospital yesterday.

Edison School Planned Plans for Edison School, near 12th and Doty Ave., are being hurried, the letter stated.

Building Going Fast As Possible, Board Says The Torrance Unified School District is doing the best it can to relieve congested classrooms in the city.

Five Persons Hurt Yesterday Five persons received minor injuries in two separate traffic crashes in Torrance yesterday.

Here At Home

Suit, Skirts, and Neighbors Our domestic story in the one about a grocery man here in our town. Seems his friend walked into the store one day...

At the Pacific Coast showings of National Manufacturers we told you about last week, there was a man who told women's friends...

People are talking, incidentally, about a scene in the picture where an American tourist character makes a nasty crack about Italian people and Italian food.

Woman's Side We'll tell you more next week, but for an exciting preview of a wop of a bag for that new Fall outfit, stop at the Reg Counter and ask about the Theodor line.

Man's Side What can you get that Rosendo Braxd hasn't got? Our new-fangled cuff links that convert any shirt sleeve into one with French cuffs.

MARIE'S CAFE 24646 MARBONNE - LOMITA We Bake Our Own Pies * Open 5:30 A.M. to 7:30 P.M.

Newberry's 44th ANNIVERSARY SALE

Smartest thing around the house! COLORFUL PRINTED COTTON FLANNEL DUSTERS PACKED FULL OF Newberry VALUES $1.77 REG. $1.98

Sweet Buys For Girls! KNITTED COTTON SKI PAJAMAS 99c REG. $1.29 Two-tone top which picks up color of pants. Rib knitted cuffs on sleeves, waist, and pants. Pink-and-blue; maize-and-gray. 4-8.

MISSES' IMPORTED SLIPPER SOX 99c PR. REG. $1.59 Genuine sheepskin leather soles. 100% worsted tops. Hand-embroidered insteps in assorted colors. S-M-L.

CHILDREN'S 'JINGLE BELL' SLEEPERS SIZES 2 to 6 Colors—Blue, Maize, Turquoise 97c SUEDE MOCCASINS 88c REG. $1.29

Newberry's BRINGS YOU HOT VALUES FOR COLD NIGHTS! ATTRACTIVE FLANNELETTE GOWNS $1.47 REG. $1.98

that decorator look! INEXPENSIVELY YOURS CUSTOM-CRAFT DRAPERIES Van's Maple Shop 2083 TORRANCE BLVD. FAIRFAX 8-3352

J. J. NEWBERRY CO. TORRANCE OPEN FRIDAY AND SATURDAY NIGHTS 'TIL 9 P.M.