

David Fierce Gets Three Cakes To Celebrate Fourth Birthday

By ALICE PERKIN
FA 8-5285

Everyone had plenty of cake at David Fierce's birthday party.

Marking up his fourth year, David sported not one, or two, but three birthday cakes. The first was made and decorated with cowboys, by Mrs. S. Nelson, David's grandmother. The other two were deliciously contrived by his mother.

David's little guests were entertained with outdoor games and each received a gay party hat, a toy boat whistle, and favors. For winning the pin-the-tail game, Gregg Perkin was awarded a prize paint set, and the clothespin game winner, Pamela Klinzing, walked off with an ABC Game.

Accompanying the bevy of birthday cakes, were tumbler of lemonade and colorful cherry ice-cream. Those attending the party at 2834 Eldorado St., were Christopher Nohr, Christine Clifford, Danny Miller, Gregg Perkin, Pam Klinzing, Timmy Smith, Donnie Norris, and brother's Bobbie, Donnie, and baby Steven. Adults attending were Mr. and Mrs. S. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Klinzing, Mrs. J. L. Clifford, Mrs. Kenneth Perkin, and Mrs. Frank Norris.

The ACCENT Theatre opening night of "The Road to Rome" was well attended by many of our friends and neighbors. Hosting in the candlelit foyer was Mrs. Allen Pyeatt, of 804 Cerise, in a lovely pink net formal. Those enjoying the evening of wonderful entertainment were Messrs. and Mmes. Robert Kelsey, Donald Barber, William Boswell; Mrs. Ed Knutson, Dr. Allen Pyeatt, and a host of others.

The traveling H. M. Burrows, of 2938 Opal St., did it again. Hopping into their new sporty stationwagon they "got away from it all" over the week end. Traveling past Azusa and on up to Crystal Lake, the family enjoyed themselves just resting and taking a few sprints.

An aura of mystery surrounded the meeting of the Tally Hi Bridge club last Friday held at the home of Mrs. J. Peters.

No one seemed to know what dessert they enjoyed, not even the hostess! However, they all confessed that it was a delicious concoction of frozen lemon "something," and almonds, in a crust of graham crackers, served with coffee. Mrs. Peters not only kept them guessing on the dessert she walked off with first prize in the card game.

Those attending were Mrs. J. Norris, Mrs. F. Willis, Mrs. William Pipkin, Mrs. C. R. Zabrowski, Mrs. R. Clark, Mrs. Mrs. J. Klinzing, and G. Capps.

Carrying out a theme of pastel pink and blue, Mrs. Royal C. Penner, of 1216 Teri, helped her daughter, Linda celebrate her sixth birthday.

After outdoor games, the children enjoyed chocolate ice-cream and birthday cake. Larry Galisky and Linda Link won prizes in the games, but none walked off empty handed, as Linda Penner awarded each guest a gift of "paddle-balls and bat."

Those attending were Glen Amos, Kathleen Kelly, Toni Lynn, Larry Galisky, Linda Link, Kathy McCune, Dianne Dragatto, and a sister Sandra, 11.

Enjoying an outdoor steak barbecue and a pleasant week end as the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harestad, of 2849 Onrado, were Mr. and Mrs. William Hughes and son Patrick, 2½. After the barbecue, the two couples attended the Civic Auditorium where they enjoyed the ACCENT Theatre's presentation, and later returned home to cocktails and conversation with other friends gathered to discuss the play. Those attending were Messrs. and Mmes. M. Sagenkahn, Ed Cantle, Charles Grey, and of course the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Hughes.

Entertaining her bridge club at an afternoon luncheon last week was Mrs. William Boswell, of 2842 Onrado. Serving her guests a foreign cuisine of taglierini, Mrs. Boswell was rewarded for her efforts by winning first prize. Mrs. W. R. Garrity won second high, and

Torrance Democrats Set Halloween Dance

Intruder Puts Freeze On Frozen Food Locker

A hungry thief raided the deep freeze in a garage at 3641 W. 180th Pl., Sunday night, Mrs. Juanita Lee told city police Monday.

The thief got away with nine pounds of butter, a turkey, a chicken, and packages of frozen fish and strawberries in the raid, she said.

Mrs. D. L. Sears was awarded the consolation prize. Enjoying the afternoon were Mmes. J. K. Steinbaugh, M. B. Millar, D. L. Garrity, P. D. Loranger, W. R. Garry, and guest Mrs. F. Kelley.

Mrs. Jack Klinzing entertained friends and neighbors at a morning coffee party last week. She served homemade butter-scotch pecan rolls and coffee. Those enjoying the get-together were Mmes. Elliot Nohr, Vivian Wise, Paul Harstad, William Boswell, William Ray, Gordon Capps, Kenneth Perkin, of this neighborhood; Mrs. E. Jorgenson, of Burlingame Hills; Peggy Allison of El Segundo; and Mrs. Frank McDonald of Torrance. Mrs. Ellen Hosp of Washington D. C. enjoyed a round of exciting activity during our recent southern California hot-spell, as the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Andre, of 3109 Opal.

Between Sept. 4 and 16, the Andre hosted their guest to Knott's Berry Farm, side trips to Santa Barbara, the Long Beach and Santa Monica Harbors, visits with friends, and numerous parties and dinners with relatives. The Andre's have two children, Ellen, 12 and Fritz, 3.

Fritz Andre, incidentally, celebrated his birthday during grandmother's visit.

He saw his third year in with a towering angel food cake decorated with gay frosting birds, and ice cream. The family birthday party was attended by Mrs. E. Hosp, Mr. and Mrs. G. Tuttle, father's parents and Mr. and Mrs. J. Hester, (sister) and children Patty and Michelle.

Some 150 Boys per week between the ages of 9 and 12 were under the care and management of Richard Brown, Jr., of 823 Fayamith, for the past summer. Director of YWCA Green Valley Lake Camp, he had a staff of 50 teachers and high school boys helping him in the program of swimming, archery, rifle shooting, hiking, burrow riding, crafts, and outdoor campfires.

Mrs. Brown helps out with everything, but her official title is "bookkeeper." Working with children is nothing new to Mr. Brown as he is a teacher at the 186th St.

Elementary School.

An amazing coincidence last week. While celebrating their tenth wedding anniversary at the Chandelier Restaurant in Long Beach, the William Boswells, of 2842 Onrado St., ran into friends and neighbors from the tract, the A. F. E. Swalls. Asking the Swalls to join them, they discovered that the other couple were also in the spirit of things. They were celebrating their 30th wedding anniversary!

A coffee honoring Mrs. E. Jorgenson, of Burlingame Hills, was held last week at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Perkin. Guests were served a variety of donuts, chocolates macarons, coconut cookies, candies and steaming coffee.

Those attending were Mrs. Wayne Norman, Mrs. L. Wilbrecht, Mrs. R. Kelsey, Mrs. P. Harstad, Mrs. Gordon Capps, Mrs. Jack Klinzing, Mrs. E. Cantle, Mrs. F. Kelley, Mrs. L. Pulliam, Mrs. Rodney Clark and Mrs. Louis Dyer.
