HALLDALE PTA CARNIVAL SET FOR TOMORROW EVE

It's carnival time and children at Halldale Avenue School are all excited about the big PTA carnival to be staged at their school Friday, Oct. 28. On tap are such festivities as a costume parade starting at 10:30 a.m. Awards will be given out for many types of costumes.

A large crowd turned out at the Halldale PTA's second meeting of the semester. The theme was "Making Every Play Count."

During the brief business meeting, Mrs. Eileen Hough, kindergarten teacher at Halldale, sang "In Luxembourg Gardens" by Kathleen Lockhart Manning; "When I Bring To You Colored Toys" by John Alden Carpenter; and "Star-gazers" by Oley Speaks. She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Lee Warf, second grade teacher.

The membership drive headed Mrs. A. A. Venable brought in 1115 members to the school PTA. D. Heath, A-6 brought 233 percent and Mrs. H. Morton, B-4 brought 143 percent. Assisting with membership were Mmes. W. L. Harvey, Judson Bowers, E. N. Reese, and David P. Goodshy.

Name cards representing pumpkins were prepared by Mrs. Fred Schimmel, registration chairman. She also presented a key to the school to William F. Walton, now principal. Mrs. Mary Michel was guest speaker on Community Chest. Mrs. William Brock, community chest chairman, asked for volunteers to help the Community Chest drive. Mrs. William E. Dunston, craft chairman made a beautiful and gay Halloween table centerpiece display.

The PTA board was hostess for the social, and Mrs. Ruth Adams, and Mrs. F. E. Dye poured.

Fun for All Promised at North Torrance Carnival

North Torrance Elementary School PTA will stage its mammoth Halloween carnival tomorrow evening (Friday) from 6 to 9 p.m. on the school grounds.

The public is cordially invited to join in the fun and the committee has designed all kinds of entertainment for all ages. For the something new in thrills, there will be a "Haunted House."

For those who would like to test their skills, they are offering the penny pitch, the fish pond, Loop-de-Loop, bean bag throw and a balloon game. All of the real carnival fare has been lined up for carnival goers, such as hot dogs, soda pop, hot coffee and all kinds of goodies.

For a rest period, there will be cartoons and a talent show and from there those attending will visit the Old Time Country Store and the Needlework Shop.

Mrs. J. Tardagulla is chairman of the carnival committee. She is assisted by Mmes. R. Green, S. Habif, E. Arrie, L. Briley, J. Blue, J. Begando, E. Tremaln, M. Taylor, N. Mailoux, M. Chance, R. Bell, B. Peters, M. Perella, C. Stauffer, G. Wood, R. Richter, C. Sparling, J. Terney, J. Ashley, F. Stockle, T. Rogers, B. Cook, and R. Payne.

Proceeds from the event are earmarked to aid the welfare projects of the PTA and to meet the general budget requirements for the year.

VISITS BROTHER

Mrs. Clare Schwintek, 2285 Torrance Blvd., has returned from a week's visit in Oakland where she was the guest of her brother and family.

IMPROVING

Friends of Mrs. Arthur Box, 2359 Torrance Blvd., who recently fell and suffered a fractured arm, will be glad to learn that she is improving.

TROOP 1298

Junior High Girl Scout Troop No. 1298, left Torrance on Oct. 15 to head for Culver City and the Sunset Ranch for a gay ride. After the ride the girls and their dates sat around the Campfire and consumed hot dogs and soda.

Chaperoning the group were Mmes. W. W. Jackson, W. R. Lewis; also Elwood Stroman, and William Miller.

Returning to Torrance the Scouts went to Mrs. E. Carl Osterlin's home 2313 Sonoma, their leader, and had ice cream and punch while they danced in the den.

The guests who helped make the event a success were Stanley and Stewart Gonta, Jerry Vanderberg, Jimmy Masters, Dennis Bullock, Robert Wilcox, Billy Miller, Tommy Greer and Allan Ward.

The troop elected new officers, recently. They are chairman, Kaaren Crist, vice-chairman, Kiyoko Takeuchi; scribe, Linda Lewis; treasurer, Pauline Yuasa.

TROOP 914

The newly organized Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 914, held a Mother and Father's Tea on Sunday, Oct. 23, at 2 p.m., at the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church, who sponsors the group. The leaders Mmes. Harold Woodman and Don Barnard with the girls as well as their parents were introduced to the scout program, by senior scouts from Troop 1299. They outlined the way to earn badges, camp activities, their own as well as those spent at Oso; and they learned of the troop in the Philippines that the girls have corresponded with for many years.

Lomita

A gala fun fair on Friday evening, Oct. 28, will be held on the Lomita Elementary School playground following the annual Halloween parade which will begin at 1 p.m. With all children in colorful costumes, Mrs. Morris Chamberlain is chairman of the fair and will be in charge of the hot dog booth. Mrs. William Rhodes will be in charge of the chaff, beans; Mrs. Al Strange, lemonade, coffee, cake; Mrs. Walter Talley, baked goods; Mrs. Leonard Loy, popcorn, nuts; Mrs. William Hansen, balloons and art sketches, and Mrs. Richard Groverman, surprise packages.

The following committee met with Mrs. Jane Rye, principal, to plan events: Mmes. Walter Talley, Morris Chamberlain, C. Carson Snodgrass, Al Strange, and William Rhodes. Volunteer workers will attend the Community Chest Kick-Off on Wednesday, Nov. 2, in the American Legion Hall at 10 o'clock.

The next board meeting will be held Thursday, Nov. 3, at 9:30 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Robert Oster, 2445 W. 261st St. Plans will be made for a special Christmas board meeting.

The PTA is giving a floating room prize each month to the rooms returning the most signed bulletins informing parents of the association meetings. The October winners were Mrs. Helen Levengood, and Mrs. Ruth Borden.

The membership drive has reached 80 per cent. Eleven rooms have 100 per cent with Mrs. Gleone Ison's having the most parents joining. Mrs. William Rhodes is membership chairman.

259th Place

The first 259th Place PTA Assn. meeting was held on Thursday Oct. 20. The pledge of Allegiance was led by Mrs. T. E. Crookrey Blue Bird Troop. A chorus of Girl Scouts and Brownies sang six songs with Mrs. V. B. Kirk conducting. A Ghost Skit was presented by Den 9 of Cub Scout Troop 118C. Mrs. C. V. Bunch was in charge of the program.

During the business meeting the budget was presented by Mrs. P. E. Orseth and was approved for the coming year. Mrs. H. B. McDonald, membership chairman, announced an 80 per cent membership in PTA. Mrs. W. N. Kely read the associations monthly program for the coming year.

Mrs. W. N. Kely introduced the program with an ambassador for Red Feather, Miss Doris Thompson from Narbonne High School who spoke on Community Chest. Mrs. Fusch explained the ideas and working parts of scouting. She made a plea for scout leaders also for workers for Community Chest. Mrs. C. V. Bunch community youth chairman introduced Mrs. Keyes, who spoke on the Bluebird organization. Frances Dastarac introduced the new faculty members.

The class of Mr. Albano had the highest number of parents in attendance and will receive an ice cream treat.

The 6th grade mothers who served refreshments were Mmes. E. R. Kozakiewicz, R. L. West, J. M. Gasser, R. W. Sutton.

The board members met Thursday at the 259th Place School. Four new chairmen were ratified by the board members. They were: art, F. E. Schad; music, R. E. Torgenson; magazine, Mrs. R. P. Boderman; health and sunshine, Mrs. R. E. Christofferson. Miss Frances Dastarac announced the annual Halloween parade to be held on the school grounds on Oct. 31 from 1 to 2 p.m. All parents and friends of the children are invited to attend.

The executive board ratified Mrs. W. N. Kely as first vice president, replacing Mrs. C. R. Chitwood who resigned because of illness.

The school paper drive will be held in the spring.
