

TARTARS - LEUZINGER DUEL TOMORROW

Elks Grab Flag Opener

Torrance Elks opened the Midget League flag football season Friday night by trouncing the El Retiro Trojans, 42-0, at Waleria Park.

Jim Hester started the scoring by downing a blocked Trojan punt in the end zone. Glen Ayecek grabbed a pass from Mike Challis from two yards out to give the Elks' crew a 12-0 hidge.

Rickie Gomez raced 20 yards with a punt return and Butch Morris scored on an end around to make it 28-0 at the half. Gomez added two extra points for the Elks during the first half.

The Trojans held the Elks scoreless in the third quarter but a 40 yard run by Gomez and a 25 yard scamper by Challis gave the winners two more tallies, right after the start of the fourth period. The winners added both extra points and topped the scoring by grabbing a safety.

GET SET . . . Tartar cross country runners Bill LaDuke, left, and Don Mitchell wait for word from Coach Joe Stuart to take off during practice session on local field. Both harrriers have been instrumental in bringing recent meet successes to Tartar runners, defending Bay League champions. THIS crew competes in the Mt. San Antonio CIF Invitational Saturday, which tests number of prep cross country teams in the area.

Saxons At Hawthorne

Hawthorne Bees Meet NHS Today

Now that they've tucked a win under their belts, the North High Bees eleven stands ready for Hawthorne when the two squads tangle today at 2:30 p. m. on the THS field.

Coaches Del Nuzum and Herb Blue will go with just about the same gang that sparked the Saxons' win over Morningside a week ago. For the first time this season, the Saxons put together sustained scoring drives and presented a stout defense in the Morningside fray. Previous to last week's winning effort, the locals had been blanked in three games.

Backs Chuck Richardson, Steve Mearing and Ernie Thomson sparked the Saxons' attack, along with end Bruce Stinger. Richardson took passes from Thomson for both scores in the Morningside encounter.

Torrance Hosts So-So Olympians

Gradually picking up speed after a dismal beginning, Leuzinger's Olympians move into town tomorrow night for a Bay League match with the Tartars, who themselves, still are looking for their first win.

Leuzinger, after losses to San Bernardino, Paramount and Westchester, edged mediocre El Cajon, 13-12, and then romped on Redondo last week in league play, 14-6. Although the locals haven't yet registered a win, their opponents, especially in practice frays, certainly were more powerful than Leuzinger's. The Tartars were beaten by Glendale Hoover, California of Whittier, Ventura and Long Beach.

Last week the locals were dumped, 14-7, in their league opener with Inglewood. Rebuild Quarterback Post Coaches Don Porter and Jack Miller set about rebuilding the important split "T" quarter-

Rugged Foe Next For NHS

Only four games are remaining on the North High grid slate, but all four will be rugged performances, with 1954 Small Schools CIF Champion Hawthorne starting off the quartet of toughies for the locals tomorrow night at Hawthorne. Action starts at 8 p.m.

Hawthorne, under the direction of Coach Hal Chauncey, has been ripping through opponents the past few years, turning out good collegiate throwers like Joe Contestabile, now with California, and Jerry Nicholson, El Camino's star aerialist.

But the burly Hawthorne eleven has had its ups and downs so far this term and might just be ready to be "up" again tomorrow evening. They were bumped, 7-6, in their opener with Santa Monica, then outscored Burbank Burroughs, 26-14. A good Bellflower team was extended before downing Hawthorne, 31-26, and last week the defending champs opened in league play and were rudely shocked, 28-0, by Culver City.

Saxon Coach Cliff Graybehl expects Hawthorne will be fighting to remain in league title contention. And Graybehl has his troubles, too, mostly in the starting backfield.

Whitley Out For Season Sophomore Guard Quarterback Jim Whitley was put out for the season when he suffered a badly bruised kidney in practice. He still is in the hospital. There are a backlog Paul Underwood, Ray Grieshaber and Doug Irvine, all with bruises and bumps. But Graybehl and Backfield Coach Bill Ellings don't think this will keep them out of tomorrow's tough one.

Graybehl has switched Irvine, a right tackle, to tailback as a result of experimentation this week with various new offensive plays.

Other changes find Tailback Jim Powers now at right halfback and Jim Thomas at defensive end in place of Jim Hild. But Graybehl said Wednesday he'll use a number of combinations in tomorrow's tussle.

Al Bledsoe, center; Bill Reeves, guard; Bill Warren, tackle, and ends Gene Daimler and Roger Shull have continued to shake off injuries and hold onto their respective positions.

Hawthorne runs from a winged "T" formation.

First Leg of Trot Classic At Hollypark

The first leg of the $75,000 American Trotting Classic on Saturday will headline the rest of the racing week at Hollywood Park with the $5000 added Inglewood Pace scheduled to feature tomorrow's program.

The Trotting Classic will bring out the nation's leading diagonal-gaiters and will determine the national championship. The second leg will be raced on Nov. 12 and unless one horse wins both races, a third leg will be raced on Thursday, Nov. 24.

While several supplementary entries may be named should the starting field be under 10, at least eight of those eligible for the Classic are on the grounds. These include Saul Camp's sensational three-year-old, Scott Frost, Unprecedented winner of the triple crown, which includes the famed Hambletonian, Scott Frost already had set an all-time record for money earnings of $146,254, before arriving at the Inglewood track.

Sentinel JV's Romp Inglewood's Jayvee team defeated a Tartar reserve squad, 26-7, Monday on the Inglewood gridiron.

ECC Runners Face East LA Tomorrow

Long distance runners for El Camino college will face the harriers of East Los Angeles there tomorrow afternoon, following a defeat by forfeit at the hands of Valley JC last week.

Entering only four men in the running contest, the Warriors were one shy of the five-man requirement for team participation.

Of the first four places awarded, El Camino took three. Sherman Soiaas and Gerald Sanger of El Camino took first and second, places respectively, with Valley's Reed taking third place honors.

Clyde Timblin of El Camino was fourth across the finish line; Meese, Buds, Scott, and Holzauer of Valley followed in that order. Robert Keiser of the Warriors, troubled by sore ankles, finished last.

Solaas' winning time over the 3.1 mile course was 16 minutes, 21 seconds.

WHEN IT'S TIME TO MOVE

LEUZINGER IN FAVORED ROLE FOR BEE FRAY

Tartar Coach Dave Dana and Herb Solomon and their once-beaten champions have their work cut out for them today when they meet undefeated and high-scoring Leuzinger in a Bay League duel at Leuzinger. Game time is 2:30 p.m.

The Olympians have maulled four straight opponents, annihilating Redondo, 55-0, and Bell Gardens, 52-12, in a couple of mismatches. They also hold decisions over Paramount, 28-12, and Westchester, 32-0.

Leuzinger coaches believe this is the year for their gang to cup the loop title. Although Torrance and Leuzinger have not met a single common opponent, the Olympians should be favored by at least two tallies in today's game.

The Tartars hold four wins in five contests, including league nods over Mira Costa and Inglewood.
