Food, fun and prizes will be featured.

Super-Atomic Halloween Carnival at Madrona Oct 29

Goblins, witches and black cats will be on the rampage Saturday, Oct. 29, at the Madrona School playgrounds. On that day the PTA holds its Super-Atomic Halloween Carnival with fun and prizes for all.

In the kindergarten, tossing the hat on the scarecrow will be the attraction. In the first grade booth there will be a bean bag toss into the mouths of clowns. A nail pounding contest will take place in the second grade room, and a fish pond will be the event in the third grade room. Fourth graders will have a hoop toss, gathespin and black cat game and fifth graders have chosen bazooka guns. A balloon dart game is offered by the sixth graders and water pistols for shooting out candles will be the seventh grade attraction. Throwing balls at milk bottles is another fascinating game.

All booths will be decorated and managed by mothers of Madrona School children. Each room mother is responsible for her grade's booth with the assistance of helpers who are: Mmes. T. L. Hayton, R. R. Waddell, H. G. Drake, J. A. Campbell, J. G. D'Ornellas, R. L. Hagenbaugh, William McDade, M. Conta and J. W. Cassidy.

The country store will feature homemade cakes, pies, cookies, cupcakes, relishes, jams, jellies and preserves. Brie-a-brac aprons, pot holders, toys and children's books will be sold. Mrs. E. Vaughn is in charge of the store.

Popcorn will be on sale and homemade candy will be sold by the PTA-sponsored Cub Scouts, under the direction of Mrs. Les Fuller. There will also be hot dogs, cake, pie, ice cream, coffee and soft drinks. Strolling clowns will have balloons of all shapes to sell and at intervals from 5:30 until 8, cartoons will be shown in the Little Theatre.

The affair will raise funds for various welfare and school events.

Carnival planning committee is composed of Mmes. H. M. Burrows, P. Analco, J. B. Brooks, R. L. Hagenbaugh, and H. McCormick.

Family Day to be Noted at Perry Carnival Saturday

The PTA of Perry School will emphasize "Family Day" at their annual carnival, Saturday, from 11 a.m. until 3:30 p.m., on the school grounds. A Halloween costume parade will open festivities, under the direction of John Strom, principal. Mrs. Cloyd Kirkpatrick is chair-

IT'S A FAMILY AFFAIR . . . and the carnival at Perry School Saturday evening will attract all students and their families. The PTA has planned an evening of fun for all ages. Giving a preview of scenes at the affair are Dennis, Dohner, dressed as a bear; Steven Roy-nolds in baseball outfit, and Jan Nelson in Hallow'en garb taking a try at the bean bag throwing. Watching the antics are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dohner. Mrs. Dohner is PTA president.
