Halldale

Goblins, story book characters and creatures from outer space were seen in abundance, as students of Halldale Avenue School took part in the annual Halloween carnival.

This event was one of the major fund raising projects of the year for the PTA of the school. High point of the carnival was the parade. Meno Phillips, second grade teacher, well known in this area for his wonderful work with the younger set, had charge of this innovation.

PTA officials reported that it was one of the most successful events ever held at the school. A blitz one-day paper drive has been scheduled for Wednesday, Nov. 23. All proceeds of the drive will go into the student fund for current needs.

Parents, neighbors and friends of Halldale students are asked by the PTA to stock pile and bind their papers for the students by Thursday, Nov. 22. String is being sent home by the students who are vying for special prizes for the most papers collected in the upper and lower division grades.

Second round of Salk vaccine shots were given to approximately 232 possibly 250 children at the Halldale School.

PTA members who assisted were Mmes. E. N. Reese, Ray M. Rhoads, Fred Schimmel, Ed Holloway, J. D. Edens, David Goolsby.

The next association meeting will be held this evening, Nov. 10, at 1:30 p.m. Topic, "Home Team Huddle." Program, Floral Displays and Gift Wrapping. Committees featured will be home service, art, and sunshine.

Guest Speaker
Frank Church, noted watch and clock collector of Lomita will be the featured speaker on Dec. 2 at 2 p.m., in the Los Angeles County Museum in conjunction with the exhibit of time pieces by the Southern California Chapter of National Watch and Clock Collectors.

Crenshaw

Highlights of the Crenshaw Elementary Teachers Association included the demonstrations of the right and wrong way to have parent teacher conferences. Those participating in the approach to helping the student through home and school conferences were Mrs. Loren Friester, Kenneth Blake, Ursula Wallace and Mrs. Russell Carroll.

Roy Stugart gave a report on the special meeting called by the Mayor to study the juvenile delinquency problems in Torrance. Mr. Stugart reported that the delinquency rate is comparatively low in Torrance but that a state wide study of the subject is being made. Audience participation consisted of evaluation of existing juvenile delinquency programs, why and remedial suggestions.

Carnival plans for Friday, Nov. 11, were presented. There will be fish pond, cakewalk, movies, hot dogs, chili dogs, tuna sandwiches, games of skill and food and fun for all ages. Parent participation, donations and help was requested of all members of the association.

Mrs. William Atwood was elected secretary at a special board meeting to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Mrs. John Davis.

Junior High Girl Scout Troop 1368, sponsored by the association, presented the colors, choral reading and a short skit on First Aid.

Hostesses for November were mothers from the rooms of Laura Buehler, Virginia Smith and C. Wright.
