Friends Honor Ralph Schmidts At Surprise Going-Away Party

By ALICE PERKIN

Pleasantly deceived last week end by their friends were the Ralph Schmidts, of 1220 Maple St.

What they thought was going to be a small dinner party at The Palms with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Evans, turned out to be a surprise farewell party for them including several other couples! After the group had cocktails and had dined they presented the Schmidts with a waffle iron sandwich combination grill as their "going-away" gift.

Those attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Galen Truesdell, Norm Laverty, Ken Laverty, Charles Hardinhaus, Andrew Janasik, Jack Roberts, P. Peterson, Mrs. Gerry Moore, Mrs. Ed Peters, and Charles Gray.

Guests were welcomed with individual chrysanthemum corsages, freshly picked from a corsage tree, as they arrived at the home of Mrs. James Cassidy, last Tuesday night.

The occasion was a "mothers" coffee honoring Mrs. Mary Gardner as kindergarten teacher. Mrs. Cassidy, of 3325 Opal, is room mother. She served her guests homemade canapes of crackers, chives, cream cheese, and green olives, homemade cookies, prunewhip, coconut, and oatmeal, and tea and coffee.

Helping her with the complimentary tea were Mrs. D. A. Cook, and Mrs. Carl Fredrickson.

Those attending were Mmes. Carl Fredrickson, A. Romero, H. Di Santo, A. V. Turner, V. G. Bliss, R. Hausen, J. Yancy, M. Steele, Mary Links, H. M. Burrows, E. Hugh Von, W. Wilcox, R. H. Tolson, Elliott Nohr, Kenneth Perkin, F. Kelley, Joseph Campazze, and M. Pittenger.

Mr. and Mrs. Galen Truesdell, of 1005 Felbar, entertained last Friday night at a cocktail party preceding the Co-operative Nursery School Dance.

Guests were served hot d'ouvers, cheese-dips, and old-fashioned. Those attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Jack Foyle, Wwane Crowley and Phalen Foley.

The Nursery School Dance was held at the Redondo American Legion Hall and the $200 proceeds from it will go to the worthy nursery enterprise. At the present time the school meets four mornings a week at the Methodist church but it soon plan to expand and raise a building of its own.

The nursery is a Parent Education course.

Taking a brisk and refreshing morning "dip" in 50 degree water in the Desert Hill's Ranch pool were the brave Andrew Janasik family, of 805 Fonthill.

This hardy family, along with three other couples, vacationed at the desert resort in Luuorne Valley last week end. They enjoyed the family style accommodations, the games of shuffle board and darts, the open fireplace, and the chilly, outdoor sports.

Others attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Walt Smith, John Wolfe, and R. Blakley.

Welcoming their third little "Queen" into their family this last Monday were the Charles Coes, of 2854 Eldorado St.

Little Mary Lee weighed 7 lbs., 7 1/2 ozs. and was born at the Hawthorne Hospital. She joins sisters, Marilyn Ann, 3 and Donna Jean, 13 months.

Frosting cowboys rode atop the marble cake served at Steven Freeman's sixth birthday party.

Refreshments were served on the patio, and later, the children played games in the back yard. Along with the cake, ice cream and soda pop, each guest received a special gift. Those attending were Calvin and Dodd Greer, Chuckie Osterlind, Ricky Van Messelen, Pat and Mike and Emmet Freeman (cousins), Roger, 7, Connie and Chris (brothers and sisters), Cissy and Jeff Jackson, and Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Freeman.

A meeting of the pine neighborhood Harbor District Managers of the annual Girl Scout cookie sale was held at the home of Mrs. Carl Osterlind, of 2848 Sonoma St., Harbor District chairman.

Over refreshments of nut bread and coffee, the group discussed plans for the sale and also plans for a Girl Scout show. The show will be held in the Civic Auditorium in January. This will enable the Girl Scouts to present a program, exhibit, and a brochure of the Harbor Area girls participation and accomplishments.

A complimentary tea was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Leech, 905 Teri, honoring Mrs. Buruss. The mothers and first grade teachers were served assorted cookies, mints, tea and coffee.
