The Jack Klitzings, of 2829 Onrado, celebrated their fifth anniversary by dining out at the Beverly Hills Restaurant with the Rodney Clarks and the Gordon Capps.

While at the restaurant, the sextet saw Davy Crockett (Pess Parker) and got his autograph for their youngsters.

The Klitzings exchanged gifts—a pink knit suit for her and a charcoal wool sweater for him.

Straight from Fairyland came the party decorations for Kathryn Jeanne Stewart's fourth birthday celebration.

Mrs. Raymond Stewart, of 2324 Torrance Blvd., served a Mother Goose luncheon consisting of an "old woman in the shoe" cake, humpty-dumpty eggs, festive sandwiches, and steaming chocolate. Games were played and little guests hunted for candies, and fished for individual presents.

Those attending were sisters, Elaine 2½, and Barbara, 1½; Tommy Bowen, Jay and Dean Montgomery, Trudy Sinoock, Wendy and Jill Randall.

The Los Angeles District Assembly of Delphian Chapter Executive Board met for their monthly luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. Allen Pyeatt, 804 Corise, last Friday.

Her 11 guests were served a delicious concoction of chicken, mushrooms, and almonds creamed over hot biscuits, green peas, molded cranberry salad, and strawberry filled angel-food cake.

The group made plans at their business meeting for their next Assembly luncheon meeting to be held on Jan. 19, at the Statler Hotel. They also discussed a men's meeting to be held at the Hilton.

Thanksgiving dinner was held a week early at the Harold Drake home, 2830 Onrado, last Sunday. The family got together earlier because sister, Mrs. Phil Ciasola was leaving the following Monday to rejoin her Marine Sergeant husband who is stationed in North Carolina. After the hearty turkey dinner served complete with trimmings, the family gave the departing sister personal gifts and tokens of remembrance.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. J. Palumbo, parents; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Palumbo, brother; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Martin, sister; Mrs. Dorothy Gossett and son, from Renton, Washington, and Mr. Rocky Palumbo, younger brother. Only "small fry" there were the Drake's children, Harold and Christine.

Tally-Hi Bridge Club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Audrey Pipkin.

Seated at flower-laden tables, guests and members were served cherry meringue whip in tall sherbert glasses and coffee. Over cards later soft drinks and candies were served. A little Santa Claus candle was awarded to Mrs. Pat Clark as winner of the Consolation Prize.

Those attending were Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Madeline Zaborowski, Mrs. Aileen Capps, Mrs.

Charlotte Klingzing, Mrs. Alice Perkin, Mrs. Pat Clark, and Mrs. Beverly Dyer.

Beating a quick retreat from the Desert Shores camping site down by Palm Springs Salton Sea last week end were the H. M. Burrows family, of 2938 Opal St.

The children returned from a swim in the warm desert pool, sporting a dandy array of red spots. Diagnosed as the German measles at a hospital in Indio, Candy, 9 and Susan, 3 returned with the family to Torrance to recover speedily from the outing.

Three brothers were reunited again over the three day week end. Dr. and Mrs. Allen Pyeatt, of 804 Corise, entertained house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Pyeatt, from Abeline, Tex., and Mr. and Mrs. Audrey Pyeatt from Fort Worth, Tex. Dr. Pyeat's brothers and their wives had just returned from an American Petroleum Engineers Convention in San Francisco.

In way of celebration, the Pyeatt's entertained the E. Pyeatt's by treating them to a festive dinner out at a local restaurant.

The tiny tot set was entertained last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Egger, 2767 Sonoma St. Little Debbie, their daughter, celebrated her first birthday.

Her guests were served birthday cake decorated with hopping bunnies, ice cream, cookies and candies. Boys were given gifts of toy guns and girls received doll sets.

All guests enjoyed the party games.

Those attending were Wayne, Lynette, Janis, Kent, and Carl Campazze, Gary Wayne, Lillian Becker, Connie, Stevie, and Cris Freeman, Bonnie Dalton and sister Sylvia Ann, 2.

An after-concert buffet held by the division chairman of the Concert group, Dr. and Mrs. Allen Pyeatt, was held last Monday night for over 32 guests, following the Leonard Pennario concert held at the Civic Auditorium.

Many of those attending assisted in the ticket selling and the general promotion of the cultural affair. Guests were served baked ham, salad, baked beans, garlic bread and coffee.

Those from our area attending were Messrs. and Mrs. Frank Kelley, Lloyd Jones, John Schwartz, Robert Kelsey, and William Boswells.

All the neighbors got together and co-hosted a delightful baby shower honoring Mrs. Paul Hardie at the home of Mrs. A. Armistead, 2759 Onrado St., last Thursday. Mrs. Hardie is expecting her third child.

A unique centerpiece of a tree decoration, laden with miniature cradles and babies, was surrounded by refreshments including sandwiches, a cake in the shape of a baby's saucer, strawberry fruit punch and candies.

Later, as Mrs. Hardie opened gifts selected from a crepe paper decorated basket, guests were served coffee. Everything followed a theme of white and yellow. Games were played of "baby telegram" and others, and prizes were awarded.

Those attending were Mrs. Don Barker, Mrs. Betty Dickson, Mrs. Eddie Unrein, Mrs. Lester Murdock, Mrs. Don Harding, Mrs. Don Bryant, Mrs.

Robert Schooley, Mrs. John Beahan, Mrs. Leon Warne, and sister Mrs. Dorothy Philpott, and mother Mrs. Ralph S. Lamb.

A supper birthday party in the Thanksgiving motif was held last Tuesday for Kent Campazze, of 2765 Sonoma St. Peteing his fourth birthday, Kent's guests were entertained with games of "drop the clothespins in the bottle, and "bean carrying" on the "ever precarious" knife. Dinner was served and guests enjoyed cheese-macaroni, hot-dogs and buns, green salad, ice cream and milk and a birthday cake with Kent's name in yellow frosting surrounded by blue candles.

Take home gifts of balloons, and candies and little baskets filled with peanuts delighted

Garage Scene of Theft

SOMETHING NEW under the sun...and stars

A Dome Car with two decks - and every seat "under glass"

"Sky-wide and handsome" is what you'll say about Southern Pacific's unique new Dome Lounge Car, when you first step inside. It's built on two levels, or terraces, but is open to the heavens from stem to stern. (Incidentally, we've also put in extra capacity air conditioning, and lightly tinted glass, so that it's always pleasant inside, no matter what the weather outside.)

One third of the car is a high-ceiling cocktail lounge, while up a short flight of steps is a terrace deck with many more comfortable seats for enjoying refreshments and unparalleled views of the scenery.

A ride in one of these new Dome Cars is like a ride in a convertible with the top down—but without the wind.

You'll find a new Dome Lounge Car on the San Joaquin Daylight between Los Angeles and San Francisco via the Valley Route, the Shasta Daylight between San Francisco and Portland, and between San Francisco and Ogden on the Overland.

We invite you to try one soon—and we hope you'll find it an indication that, for both passenger and freight, we are trying to do a modern, progressive job of railroading.
