

Family to See Famed Artist At Exhibition

"The third time is a charm" is a cliché that was well fulfilled by tiny Ann Victoria Savage.

This little charmer was welcomed into the Savage family Friday morning at 8:41 a.m. at the Centinela Hospital in Inglewood. Weighing in at 7 lbs., 14 ozs. little Ann joins brother Lee, 12 and sister, Cathy, 7.

etted invitations to a private showing of the artist Alexander Cone's famed paintings, are Mr. and Mrs. William Crooker.

The artist, of the realistic school, has apartments in Paris, Rome, New York, a villa in Mexico, and Beverly Hills, where he will display his talents in the painting field to such illustrious company as the Huntington Hartfords, Oppenheims, and Edward G. Robinson, Sr.

Mrs. Crooker, is an amateur painter herself.

Attending the yearly visitation of the Torrance Lodge Elks and San Pedro Lodge in Santa Barbara were the Robert Flowers, of 1315 Hickory. Sixty couples from San Pedro and 20 from Torrance attended the gala week end at the Barbara Hotel.

They visited the presidio, the lodge, and the filming of the General Motors TV Show "The Wide Wide World." Their visit ended with a trip to the Santa Barbara Mission.

Entertaining at a dessert Bridge last week was Mrs. William Casey. Her club, still searching for an official name tried again but as yet are traveling under the name of the North Torrance Bridge Group.

Mrs. Crooker served her guests a 24 hour refrigerated dessert made with marshmall-

Band Readies For Concerts

The 70 members of the North High School band are now getting ready for their concert season, following their first year of football tooting.

The new uniforms—turquoise blue pants with dark stripe, white shirts, and white shoes and socks—were displayed at their final appearance of the football season. A blue tie and ows, pineapples, sour cream, cherries and nuts. Later in the evening they sipped Hawaiian fruit punch (a new one made with wine).

Mrs. Phil Patton won first, and Mrs. William Casey took the consolation prize. Those attending were Mmes. Phil Patton, William Casey, John Moore, Robert Davemport, Robert Emma, Thomas Edmonds, and Wayne Norman.

Sunday Party, Dance Slated By Douglas

Going all out to make it the biggest and most successful party ever staged by a Douglas Aircraft employes' group, the Douglas El Segundo Rod and Gun Club Friday announced plans for its second annual El Segundo Division Christmas Dance at the Hollywood Palladium Sunday.

Open to all employees of the company's El Segundo and Torrance plants, their families and friends, the informal Sunday night event is expected to bring together more than 4500 persons, 1000 more than last year's yuletide pace setter.

Rod and Gun President Bob Vigil disclosed that the Palladium management has selected Russ Morgan and his orchestra to furnish their celebrated "Music in the Morgan Manner," while the Signatures, youthful vocal and instrumental group fresh from the New Frontier Hotel in Las Vegas, will share bandstand honors.

Vigil also reported that the Palladium has just completed a $165,000 modernization program with everything "all new" from foyer to dining terraces.

Marvin Bond, general chairman of the Douglas dance, said employees can purchase tickets to the affair through their supervision or the company recreational offices at $1.25 each. Tickets will also make the holders eligible for several hundreds of dollars worth of valuable door prizes, he stated.

SANTA GETS TICKET... Santa Claus (J. L. Bean, of 4148 W. 172nd St.), gets a ticket for the second annual El Segundo and Torrance Douglas Employes Christmas Dance at the Hollywood Palladium this Sunday from Darlene Hunter, of Redondo Beach.

Nov. 12, by having some of her friends in for an afternoon party. Games included "pin the tail on the donkey," and "drop the clothespin in the bottle." First prizes were won by Becky McLeod and Janet Dee Robinson.

The girls were served birthday cake, ice cream, pop, nuts and candy. Those present were Bonnie and Jeanne Tripaldi, Patty Potter, Janny Robinson, Becky McLeod, and Linda Rogers.

Mike Read, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Read, of 4817 Highgrove Ave., entertained 29 friends in his home on his 13th birthday. The dinner dance was held in the gaily decorated garage from 6:30 to 10 p.m. on Nov. 12.

Dinner was served buffet style and consisted of foods tempting to a teenager's palate. Included were hot dogs, baked beans, potato salad, potato chips, and two large sheet cakes inscribed "Happy Birthday, Cool Cat." Ice cream was served with the cake. Assisting Mrs. Read was Mike's grandmother, Mrs. A. C. Haller, here for the occasion from Lake Elsinore.

Games and dancing filled the rest of the evening. First prizes for the hot potato game were won by Sue Forrester on the girls' side and Jimmy Hawkins for the boys. A glove game was played in which all the girls won ball point pens and all the boys won address books. All the multicolored balloons were disposed of at the end of the party with many happy bangs.

Two people on Green Meadows whose birthdays fell in the same week celebrated with neighbors at a chuck wagon restaurant on the evening of Nov. 12. The guests of honor were Marilyn Forrester and Orville Robinson.

Others attending were Agnes and Roland Rogers, Dorothy and Joe Fry, Janet Robinson and Bill Forrester.

After the delicious prime rib dinner, the couples assembled at the Freys' home where they played cards and were served birthday cakes—a banana nut cake, baked by Agnes and a chocolate cake prepared by Dottie, and coffee.

Bill Read, of 4817 Highgrove Ave. is the new Scout Master of Troop 240. He took the troop over from Robert E. Waegner, master for the past three years. Waegner has stayed on as assistant. We will report more about activities of the troop in later weeks. The Walteria Business Men are the troop's sponsors.

Charles and Helen Hack-Busch, of 4520 Pacific Coast Hwy., spent a very interesting evening last Monday night at the Huntington Hartford Theater watching a full dress rehearsal of "The Rainmaker."

Jan Sterling and Don DeFore are the leading players.

Charles reports that it is a very fine production and it was especially enjoyable seeing it with just a small group who were invited.

Next week we will report on all the Thanksgiving doings. Would you please call FR 5-7063 and let us know what you and your family did over the holiday?

Reflections
By J. HUGH SHERFEY, JR.
WHAT? WHEN? HOW? WHERE?

These four words are prerequisites of all scientists. Our newspapers couldn't exist without them. Police officers solve mysteries with them. We follow a fire truck, stop at a wreck, reply to a blind ad, read detective stories. The Vikings answered "Where" and Coronado answered all three and gave us Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and California.

A letter with unfamiliar handwriting, a telephone call, a greeting, "Where have you been?", a new road or old road, shade-drenched lane, smudge of smoke on the horizon whisper What, Whom, and Where. This newspaper would be a jumbled mass of words if it did not answer these four words.

Curiosity is a driving force for normal people.

P.S.: Let us answer those four words as they pertain to funeral procedure.
