TROOP 914 Los Angeles Girl Scout Troop 914 has a full year of service activity to survey as 1955 draws to a close. Troop 914, composed of 24 ten-year-old girls, has aided the Visiting Nurses Assn. in Torrance during the past year by preparing 100 disposal bags each week for the use of the nurses as they make their home calls.

The disposal bags, made of folded newspaper, are used for sanitary purposes by the nurses. Girls in Troop 914 have organized themselves to render this service for a period of one year in addition to their many other activities. By dividing themselves into three patrols, the girls are able to provide the weekly supply of 100 disposal bags, with one patrol being responsible for producing the disposals each week.

Troop 914 is sponsored by the Central Evangelical Church. The service project is the Scouts' way of accepting responsibility for community welfare and rendering service to their community.

This troop will also render community service on Dec. 22, when the Girl Scouts will travel in a pick-up truck from home to home to sing Christmas carols to the shut-ins in the Torrance area.

Mrs. Betty Woodman, 1333 Engracia, is the leader of Troop 914.

Cub Pack 966C Cub Pack 966C recently held a Christmas party at the Meadow Park School with Mr. Sam San Paulo acting as master of ceremonies.

Judy Holowell led the group singing Christmas carols, followed by a program which included Georgene and Judy Holowell in a pantomime and several dance numbers by Bonnie Kuhn, Tommy and Mary San Paulo, Agatha San Paulo, Carlo San Paulo and Joe San Paulo. Santa Claus (James Anagnost, Cubmaster) then appeared to distribute gifts to the Cub
