

Tips on Interior Decorating Enjoyed by Omicron Pi Unit

Practical pointers on interior decoration highlighted the program, "Our Own Homes," given by Mrs. Joe Banks when Omicron Pi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met Jan. 11.

"The carpet should be chosen first," Mrs. Banks said, "because it is the most expensive item and the most difficult to change." She explained that wall colors should be selected next and should blend with or complement the carpet, adding that, in small rooms, it is probably better to have the walls harmonize rather than contrast with the carpet.

Draperies and furniture may then be chosen, Mrs. Banks said, and accessories are added last. She went on to discuss color and texture selection in today's homes, concluding with an explanation of period, modern and contemporary furniture and how each should be used.

During the business session of the meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Dooney, 22726 Anza, the chapter voted to send a $15 donation to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, as its part in the Sorority's Long Beach City Council project. Also, the chapter agreed to participate in the coming Sister Elizabeth Kenny drive by furnishing individual canvassers.

Plan Annual Cookie Sale

Annual Girl Scout cookie sale was the topic of conversation at the home of Mrs. E. Carl Osterlind, 2813 Sonoma, on Jan. 17, at 7:30 p.m. Troop managers and troop leaders received instructions for the sale which will be held on Feb. 17 through 25.

The cookie sale is the one council fund raising effort of the year and the leader, troop committee members and parents are asked to help support scouting through the Community Chest and the annual cookie sale. Four kinds of cookies will be sold.

Harbor cookie manager, Mrs. Osterlind, will spearhead the sale on Jan. 25, when a Cookie-O-Rama will be held at the Civic Auditorium. The entrance fee per family will be the purchase of a box of cookies.

Pictures will be shown of the activities of Girl Scouting prior to a program. Handwork of troops throughout the harbor area will be on display. Final plans will be completed within the next few days.

Episcopal Women Will Attend Meet

Annual business meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary, Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles, will be held at St. Paul's Cathedral, Figueroa at Wilshire, Los Angeles, on Tuesday, Jan. 24, from 10 a.m. to 2:45 p.m. Among the Woman's Auxiliary members attending the meeting from St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1432 Engracia Ave., Torrance, will be Mmes. A. C. Turner, H. C. St. Martin, Clarence Andrews, Hugh R. Percy, Arlynn Swenson, Richard Osgood, M. Solomon, Walter Silence, Richard Lennartz, and Robert Sleeth, Sr.

The Rt. Rev. Francis Eric Biroy, Bishop of Los Angeles, will administer Holy Communion to the members, after which he will install diocesan, convocation, and parish officers in a service of dedication. Speaker of the morning will be Sister Daisy Kitchens of the Church Army, a society of laity in the Episcopal church, who is trained for evangelistic and missionary work. Sister Kitchens has worked among the Ute Indians in Utah and has done settlement work in slums and overseas.

Jobies Hold Initiation

Mrs. Edna Babcock, deputy grand guardian paid her official visit to the Torrance Bethel Job's Daughters on Tuesday evening, when the chapter also initiated six new members, Rita Bacon, Deanna Olsen, Sheila Hogan, Anita Stroub, Susan Marie Campbell, Sharon Wood, and Carol Lee Donaher a transferee from the San Pedro Bethel.

The honored queen's theme, "Over the Rainbow," was effectively carried out in the decorations which were done by Margaret Blount, Janalee Bristow, Devona Bilson, Sharon Brase, Phyllis Bryson and Diane Wayt. The presentation was made by Carol Flower and Mary Margaret Blount sang, "My Friend," accompanied by Barbara Alter at the piano.

Two weeks ago, the Job's Daughters drew names of "Secret Dads" from Torrance Masons and from fathers of the girls. During the year, the girls send gifts to their "Secret Dads," and it is not until late in the year that the names are revealed.
