

AMID FOLIAGE, ORNAMENTS AND CANDLES . . . the Torrance Terrace Garden Club staged its annual Christmas luncheon and party last Wednesday at Capri's. The festive decorations for the affair were done by Mrs. H. C. Sandberg (left) and Mrs. Claude Hunter (right). Games and a gift exchange followed the luncheon. Mrs. Minot Rugg was in charge of the afternoon's entertainment.

Torrance Garden Club Has Beautiful Yule Luncheon

Sprayed foliage, Christmas trees and brilliant ornaments arranged on star foam decorated the tables at Capri's restaurant last Wednesday afternoon when the Torrance Terrace Garden Club held its annual Yule luncheon. At one end of the table was a beautiful arrangement of green trees and angels, the work of Mrs. Mildred Baine. Table decorations were done by Mrs. H. C. Sandberg and Mrs. John Thuss. After the luncheon, games were played under the supervision of Mrs. Minot Rugg, program chairman. A gift exchange was held. A variegated holly tree was given as the door prize. Those attending the party were Mmes. Betty Turner, president; Victor Benard, Joe Eisenbrandt; Thomas McCutcheon, Ralph Russell, Alma Smith, Dave Blackman, Minot Rugg, Philip Lisman, A. Fiorelli, H. C. Sandberg and Claude Hunter. Others were Mmes. Parke Montague, Alfred Byk, Joe Banks, Victor Benstead, and John Thuss.
