

Fuchsia Society's Yule Lighting Winners Listed

Winners in the Christmas Lighting Contest sponsored by the North Torrance Fuchsia Society have been released by Mrs. Elsa Stone, publicity chairman, as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Lattin, 16830 Thornburg Ave. won the first prize in outdoor lighting. This was a snow scene with Santa Claus and Rudolph, the red-nosed reindeer approaching the Lattin home.

Second prize was won by Mr. and Mrs. Merle W. Love, 16821 Thornburg Ave. On their porch was the beautiful Madonna holding the Babe beside the manger.

The home door decoration prize went to Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Karr, 16833 Thornburg Ave. This was a spray of evergreens and a huge red and white candy cane.

The first prize in window lighting was won by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Allison, 17039 Glenburn. This was a huge white flocked tree decorated with gold ornaments.

The second window prize went to Mr. and Mrs. James Q. Herturg, 3904 W. 169th Pl. This was a stained glass window of the Madonna and The Child. The shutters, forming the frame were decorated with angels.

The judging, which took place on Dec. 20 was done by members of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, A. K. Muir and W. A. Garrabrandt.

These winners were presented with a living plant for their yards at the meeting of the society held Wednesday evening, Jan. 8.

Activities at McVey Home

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. McVey, 3825 W. 176th St., presided at an open house on Wednesday evening, Dec. 26, honoring Mrs. McVey's parents of Arizona who are holiday guests at the McVey home.

Carrying out a modernistic motif, in black and white, a small ebony Christmas tree with silver ornaments decorated the table. A candelabrum of charcoal driftwood, wrought iron candleholders and white tapers completed the effect. A gumdrop tree of candies of varied colors and Christmas orbs added to the festive decor.

Guests dropping in to renew acquaintance with the honored guests were Messrs. and Mrs. W. R. Wright, T. R. Jackson, Eugene Phillips, Jack Miller, William Boell and Willard Waddell.

On Dec. 27, in celebration of the McVey's 15th wedding anniversary, they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson at a local restaurant.

On Sunday, Dec. 30, Mr. and Mrs. Val R. Hawes and son Randy were dinner guests at the McVey residence. The Hawes, who now live in Long Beach, are school friends of the McVey's.

Fuchsia Unit Stages Party For Children

North Torrance Fuchsia Society staged a gala Christmas party for the children of the members at McMaster Hall, Margaret Clark, vice president, was in charge of the evening's program.

The youngsters began their evening of fun at 7 p.m. with singing and playing games. At 8 p.m., Santa Claus made his appearance carrying his sack of toys and candy.

The hall was gaily decorated for the Christmas festivity. Margaret Clark and Elsa Stone decorated the large Christmas tree and two fireside trees and a beautiful holly tree of sarna bells decorated the registrar's table.

Helen Wood and Betty Dennis decorated the walls and serving table. Barbara De Camp baked and donated the cookies. Serving were Doris

Reunion at Carter Home

A happy family reunion was held at the Dean A. Carter home, 26963 Bolan Lane, Rolling Hills, when brothers and sisters gathered for the Christmas holidays.

Here from Kansas City, Mo., are Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur C. Black and their children, Arthur and Bill. Mrs. Black is Mrs. Carter's sister. Her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Nichols, and their children, Jenny and Matt, are visiting from Woodland, Calif.

Christmas dinner was served on Dec. 24 so that Mr. Carter, a pilot with TWA, could share the celebration before going out on a flight on Christmas Day. Gifts were opened at 4 a.m., Dec. 25, by a crew of wide-awake children including the young Carters, Nick, Chris and John, who joined their cousins.

While here, the visitors made a trip to Ensenada, Mexico, where they spent two days. Disneyland was also included in their itinerary. They were guests at a number of parties given during the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Nichols and their children have returned to their home, but Mr. and Mrs. Black will remain a while longer, returning a few days after the first of the year.
