Square Dance Roundup Set

A square dance roundup for children from the fifth grade through teen-age will be held in the Civic Auditorium tomorrow from 7 to 10 p.m.

Sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department, this is the first of a series of such events to be held monthly. There is an admission fee of 25 cents per person, and during the evening refreshments will be served and a drawing for door prizes.

The roundup is not restricted to advanced square dancers. Some instruction will be given, but new dances will be given to the entire group.

Further information can be obtained from Marilyn Jensen at the Torrance Recreation Department, FAirfax 8-4108.

Local DMV Office Has Big Month

A total of 39,600 vehicle registrations were issued at the Torrance DMV office during the month-long license renewal period of Jan. 2 to Feb. 4, it was announced here yesterday by Manager Carlos V. Caldwell.

Three thousand of those renewals were issued on the final day on Monday, Caldwell said. The final number in line arrived at the window at 10:45 p.m.

Previous largest day was the Saturday before when 2309 licenses were issued.

Work which was left at the windows and mail in to be processed is not included in these totals, he said.

Knights Plan Father-Son Dinner Soon

Las Crusades Council, Knights of Columbus, will hold a father-son dinner at the council's clubhouse, 214 Avenue I, Redondo Beach, on Feb. 18, according to Dick Burch, grand knight.

The council has received a certificate of honor from the grand council for increasing its membership recently.

Burch also announced the appointment of John D. Haidinger as publicity chairman for the council.

SLEEP GAINS

An average person is taller when he awakens in the morning than when he retired at night, medical tests indicate.

RECEIVING COMFORT . . . Patricia Lester, 21, of Redondo Beach, awaits the ambulance after she suffered cuts and bruises Monday afternoon when her station wagon overturned following collision with a car at Post Ave. and Manuel. She was treated at Torrance Emergency Hospital. The other motorist, Dayleen Williams, 18, of 25003 Pennsylvania Ave., was not hurt. (Herald Photo)

The North Hi Breeze

By LEILA SANTOR

Phyllis Loveland and Bill Nissen, senior couple, were crowned king and queen of the Sweetheart's Ball last Friday night. They were just two of the many two-somes who danced to the music of the Saxon Dance Band at the annual affair.

Another dance which many couples and otherwise will find their way to is the Valiant staff sponsored after game dance honoring St. Valentine, tomorrow night. Admission is an annual receipt.

Chess Knights of North High have joined the Southern California Chess League. This league consists of Southern California high school clubs having eight man teams. Presently, the Chess Knights are having tournaments among themselves, in order to prepare for several tournaments with Compton High, Leuzinger, and Narbonne.

North High is looking for ward to a "surprise assembly" tomorrow. All that is known is that the Saxons are hosting a guest who is very entertaining.

The Intra-Mural Track Meet was held yesterday. Freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior boys took part in the 100 yard dash, 680 yard dash, 120 yard low hurdles, 320 yard run, broadjump, high jump, 12 lb. shot put and the 440 yard relay. As an added attraction some of the co-eds of North High ran a 50 yard race.

Last Wednesday night was senior "parents' night" at North High. Parents of the senior Saxons held a mass meeting with the senior council members and committee chairmen to make plans for the senior commencement activities and also in order that the parents could be informed as to what the class of 1957 is doing.
