Lion Tamers Explain How They Care for Young Korean Orphan

By ALICE PALCZEWSKI
DA 6-0788

The Lion Tamers raised additional funds for the support of their Korean orphan, Kim Uen Ja, at a recent bingo party for club members. Edna Farrin of the club said their adoption of Kim has created life interests in other clubs. These clubs have written letters wanting to know how to adopt an orphan. This is Mrs. Farrin's answer: The group arranges through the World Vision Inc. to send $10 a month to a Korean orphanage which is used to take a homeless child off the streets. The members also remember her on the holidays and other Founders Day will be celebrated at the Narbonne High school PTA meeting on Feb. 19 at 1:30 p.m. in the Little Theatre of the school.

The program, with the special occasions including her birthday with presents.

The Lion Tamers will meet again on March 5 at the home of Pauline Carter. Eleanor Billings will be co-hostess.

Election of new officers took place during the Feb. 6 meeting of the Chi chapter of Phi Sigma Phi sorority. New officers include Mmes. W. W. Howe, president; Ray Posche, vice president; Peter Tolich, corresponding secretary; H. C. Smith, recording secretary; Keith Mayo, treasurer; William Tretter, historian; and George Nelson, sergeant at arms.

Installation of officers will be held March 6 followed by a dinner at the Plush Horse. During the Phi Sigma Phi sorority mid-year luncheon held recently, the chapter revealed the location of the national convention by using costumes and plaques—it's Disneyland Hotel.

The chapter's next meeting will be held Feb. 20 in the Portuguese Bend home of Mrs. R. P. Kellogg beginning at 8 p.m.

Bill Larsen is the marble champ this week for Lomita Park. Jack Anderson placed second, Larry Brooks third, and Floyd Hale placed next.

The girls champ was Sharon Kay. Following her was Patty Powell.

Belle Foy, supervisor of the park, said the marble contests are held every Wednesday at 4 p.m. and on Saturdays at 11 a.m. for both boys and girls. The finalists will represent Lomita Park at Mona Park in March for the District play-off.

The contests are open to all boys and girls. Weekly champions receive blue ribbons.

Bruce Carlson, president of the Snow Valley Ski Club, returned from a weekend spent at the Club's lodge to report the snow is deep and "just perfect" for skiing.

During the regular meeting of Scout Troop 743 the Scouts and Scoutmaster, Ken Dalton, were invited by the Scout Mothers to be guests at the Cub Scout Pack 243-3C Blue and Gold dinner to be held March 2.

Bill Cut 15%

Policyholders on AMERICAN MOTORISTS INSURANCE COMPANY are currently receiving dividends of 15% on their residential fire insurance... like the surprised bird in the illustration, this means a big cut in their bill.

theme "Pathways to Remember," will be presented by Mrs. O. C. Grubbs, Founders Day chairman. Past presidents of the PTA will be honored. Highlighting the meeting will be the presentation of the honorary life membership. The recipient will be kept secret until that time.

Refreshments will be served by the mothers of the Harbor City area.

Fire-Fly Theta Rho members Patricia Rydstron and Natilie Jones were elected to be delegates at the Theta Rho Assembly to be held Thursday and Friday of Easter week in Santa Cruz.

Following the election, Margaret McCulloch and Phyllis Burkhalter served refreshments.

The next meeting will be Feb. 20 in California Hall. Janice Green will be in charge of the refreshments.

Program chairman of 259th Place School PTA, Mrs. D. E. Dunn, announced today that two skits with fathers taking part will be presented during the Founders' Day program slated for Feb. 21 in the school auditorium starting at 7:30 p.m.

The skits, "Interviews With Children" and "What Fathers Think of PTA," will include the following parents: Clancy Aspitte, Ann Cook, Mary Gar-diner, Mary Christofferson, William Kepley, Jo Trujillo, J. R. Allan, B. A. Gardiner, T. E. Croskrey, and Wes White. D. E. Dunn will be cast announcer.

Ann Cook and Mary Gardiner will sing "Be Kind to Your Parents," followed by a teachers' quartet singing several songs.

During the meeting two honorary life memberships will be presented. The recipients' names will be kept secret until that time. Plans for the presentations are being made by Mrs. C. L. Wilson.

The flag salute will be done by Cub Scout Den 10. Rev. Frank H. Peters will deliver an inspirational message. The 259th Place PTA president, Mrs. Palmer Orseth, will conduct the business.

Mrs. Orseth announced during the recent board meeting that at the Council meeting held Feb. 5 at Pt. Fermin School, 259th Place School won the poster contest with its membership poster made for the drive held in November.

During the Council meeting the following members of the Mothersingers group helped entertain: Mrs. J. R. Allan, chairman; Mrs. F. E. Eggleston, and Mrs. Thomas Kincannon.

The 259th Place PTA will hold its first tee-shirt and scarf sale in four years during the first week in March. The scarfs are white nylon, and the tee-shirts are white with "259th Place School" in blue. The shirts come in small, medium, and large, and are guaranteed washable. Orders will be taken the last week in February.

Theme for the sale is "Prove You're Proud" and proceeds will be divided evenly between the school and the PTA, according to Mrs. Don Bowling, ways and means chairman.

Mrs. Clair Laird accepted the office as president of the Job Daughters Mothers Club during the meeting at Mrs. Peter Jacobelly's. Mrs. Laird is replacing Virginia Basil who is now Guardian of Job Daughters, Bethel 137, Lomita.

Mrs. Pearl Washburn, former Guardian of Bethel 137, was guest of honor at a surprise handkerchief and tea held Feb. 10. The Job Daughters had designed a small tree on which the handkerchiefs were hung. Carmen Gonzales, honored queen of the Jobes, presided at the tea table.

It was decided at the meeting for the members to continue to bring a white elephant to each meet, or to donate 25 cents. The "elephants" will be accumulated and raised at one of the fund raising functions during the year.

Thirty-one mothers attended the meeting and Mrs. Laird welcomed several new members.
