

Open Hearth's Formal Opening This Week End

Formal opening of the Open Hearth restaurant, 23863 Hawthorne Blvd., near Pacific Coast Hwy., has been scheduled for this week end. It was announced yesterday by Leo Kern and Jim Mumolo, co-owners of the new dining spot.

A smorgasbord will be one of the top features during the Friday and Saturday formal opening celebration, the owners said.

Supper will be served from 4 to 11 p.m. daily, and diners will have continuous entertainment during the supper hours.

The kitchen staff has been completed, and three chefs, tops in their field, have been associated with the spot.

Greeting many friends at the new restaurant is Hal Mosher, who has been associated with other fine dining spots in the area.

Beginning Monday, the Open Hearth will serve a businessmen's luncheon with a menu containing a wide selection of dishes at popular prices.

Kindergarten Roundup Set at Perry School

The kindergarten spring roundup will be held at Perry School, 17831 Prairie Ave., next Monday, Wednesday and Thursday from 9 to 12 and 1 to 3:30 p.m.

Some 100 new students who will enter school next fall will be pre-registered. PTA mothers and teachers will greet the parents and help them register their children. The school doctor and nurse will be present to give physical exams to children whose parents have made appointments this week.

Cornstompers Plan Benefit Square Dance

Cornstompers will hold an appreciation square dance at the Torrance Civic Auditorium Saturday night, April 13, with proceeds going to the recreation department for benefit of teenagers. Gerald Reeser will call.
