

Virginia Naumann New Prexy Of Seaside Scout Mothers Club

By SUE BURK

Seaside PTA reports the Founder's Day observance meeting held at Seaside School on Thursday, Feb. 9th, to be a whooping big success. Added pleasure and entertainment of the evening was given by the D's Concertarios Choral Group. Many thanks to the room mothers who helped to serve the parents' snack and coffee after-hours in the home-making room. Nice, also, to see Earl Eckert—past principal of Seaside Elementary School. Ending the evening in a flash was Mrs. N. Glass and 15-year-old son, who patiently displayed pictures of honored guests, Principal Lloyd Jones, and members of the PTA board. We were very pleased to see so many parents interested in the meeting and extend a cordial invitation to all of you to be with us during our future Parent-Teachers' meetings. Remember, the school is the PTA, can be a success without the help of you—the PARENTS.

Meeting this month in the home of Mrs. Isabelle Gaul of Linda Dr. in the Rancho, the Scout Mothers' Club discussed plans for a Valentine's party which was given at the Old Ladies' Home in North Redondo on Sunday, Feb. 12th. Virginia Naumann accepted the post of president for the remaining three months of the Scout Mothers' Club year, in the absence of Elinor Berry. Scout mothers welcomed Mrs. Audrey Pipkin into the club as a new member. Mothers present at the February meeting to enjoy assorted cookies and tea were Martha Kollec, Mabel Caudill, Virginia Naumann, Isabelle Gaul, Sue Burk, Margaret Whyte, Audrey Pipkin, Madge Graham, and Pauline Glass.

Broken street lights, thrown rocks, clouds of dirt, cans and trash, plus goodness knows what all has been prevalent in the whole of the Seaside area this past couple of weeks. Naming a couple of the bitter incidents that have happened to two unfortunate families... One lady in the Rancho is still trying to drain sugar from the crankcase and oil filters of the family car. Another family is missing several lines of washed clothing—and they have a fence in yard. So watch, these things could very easily happen to you. Names of persons involved are not mentioned for fear of further vandalism.

Jim McClune, Hughes Aircraft employe and a resident of 830 Doris Way, is residing in Centinela Hospital, of Inglewood under doctor's care. Send a card to Jim at the hospital—Room 201—Inglewood, Calif. We understand he will be there for at least three more weeks. Visitors are allowed to see Jim from 7 p.m. until 8 p.m. Best wishes for a speedy recovery and a real strong heart soon, young fellow.

I am very happy to report to

Best wishes to Sue Cox, Elaine Malan, and Linda Manover who missed a few days of school because of colds; to Gretchen Gattine who has flu; and Kenny Bickford up and at 'em again after a siege with the old virus bug. We are pleased to report that Barby Stenwach is doing nicely with her broken leg.

That infernal revenue will soon be breathing heavy down our backs. Now is the time to start making out the old income tax form and getting it in the mailbox.

The Seaside Hi-Lights Club met in the home of Mrs. A. O'Connor of Doris Way on Tuesday, Feb. 7th, to elect new officers to fill the 1956-57 post. Elected as president is Trudy Bostice of Binkdewald Rd., while her neighbor, Dee Callahan, acts as vice president. Filling in as both recording and corresponding secretary is Rose Lee McClune of Doris Way. Louise Ansley of Macafee Rd. has the job of treasurer. The Hi-Lights plan to celebrate their next birthday on Feb. 21 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Callahan of Binkdewald Rd. Ladies of the Heights area are being invited to attend this celebration.

A double duty stork shower and birthday party honoring Mrs. Noreen Spear, of 5223 Vanderrill Rd., was given by close neighbors, Mrs. Connie Priestly and Mrs. Marion Unger of Vanderrill, and a close friend, Mrs. Beryl Wilson of Manhattan Beach. Guests included Mrs. Olga Hutton, Mrs. Marilyn Tinsley, Mrs. Mabel Caudill, Mrs. Ethel Shriver, Mrs. Linda Gillmer, Mrs. Alma Reid, Mrs. Lee Radney, Mrs. Irene Brady, and Mrs. Cay Theiss all of Seaside. Also, Mrs. Betty Lisle and Auntie Judith of Hermosa Beach, and Mrs. Ann Brusse of Inoa, Mich., were present. The ladies enjoyed refreshments of cake, ice cream, and coffee after the usual baby shower games were played and prizes awarded the lucky winners. The all-exclusive gift presented to Mrs. Spear was a bassinet and pad. We offer our own congratulations to you Noreen and on the coming event.

FEB. 16, 1956 TORRANCE HERALD Seven

This week saw your columnist bidding goodbye to (F.N.) Nils E. Duvall, Jr., as he took off from Los Angeles International Airport reporting to his ship, the USS Philippine Sea, now docked in San Francisco. Friends and neighbors helped Nils to celebrate his 18th birthday in our home early Friday afternoon. A little prematurely as Nils won't be 18 years until Feb. 10th. Guests enjoying cake, ice cream, and coffee were Mrs. B. Frank Renz, Mrs. Richard Grierson, Mrs. Jack Mitchell, and Gene Cruz. Cruz, 17th year old son of Mrs. Irene Hodges of North Redondo, will soon leave us as he takes up a Navy career.

That's all folks, see you next week!
