Mumps, Measles, Chicken Pox Visiting Ellinwood Residents

By JANET ROBINSON
The time has rolled around again for the Red Cross drive to start. The ball will start rolling on Monday, March 5, with Jeanne Pope acting as sectional chairman from lower Ellinwood and Dorothy Corrin, sectional chairman of upper Ellinwood.

Ellinwood has some unwelcome visitors this week in the form of mumps, measles, and chicken pox. Two children of the James Potters of Highgrove are down with two varieties. Betty has the chicken pox and Jimmy has the measles. Will Potts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Potts has the mumps. All four parents are expecting to be at home for the next few weeks when baby sisters and brother get same.

On Friday, Feb. 17, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glennon, of 4614 Pacific Coast Hwy., welcomed their second son at the San Pedro Community Hospital. Barry Dean weighed in at 7 lbs. 12 oz. and is 20 1/2 inches long.

Dr. and Mrs. Guy Udy, of 4614 Pacific Coast Hwy., are the proud owners of a pair of St. Bernard dogs who have won numerous ribbons and trophies in dog shows all over the country.

At the Silver Bay Kennel Club Show, their dog, "Bomar's Mark Von Der Gerd," or Mark for short, won the "best of breed" ribbon. Mark will be two years old next year.

Community Teenage Club Being Formed

A meeting of a newly formed youth group designed to teach boys and girls the fundamentals of being a good sportsman has been scheduled for the Lincoln School, Plant Ave. and Yall in North Redondo Beach for 7 this evening. It was announced here Saturday by John D. Young, organizer.

The group, which started out recently with four boys, has attracted a large number of youngsters in the few weeks of its existence, according to Young. It is planned to make the group into a unit which represents all communities of the southwest area of the County.

Jerry Vanderville, president of the club (which has no name yet) will preside at tonight's meeting. Among the first things on the agenda will be the preparation of the club bylaws, Vanderville reports.

Other officers serving with him are: Young, recording secretary; Cecil "Jord" Jordan, master-at-arms; and Bob Schwalm, financial secretary.

Young, the organizer of the club, is a National Rifle Association instructor for the Department of Fish and Game and plans to indoctrinate the youths in the proper use of firearms. The instructions will be expanded to include the field of all outdoor sports such as hunting and fishing. Young said.

Any boy or girl of junior high school age through high school is eligible to participate, he said. There will be no other restrictions on membership.

Official Backing
Young said the organization of the group had the backing of the Department of Fish and Game, and that police officers throughout the area had agreed to help in the project.

Assisted Chief Percy Bennett and Detective Capt. Ernie Austin of Torrance Police have agreed to appear before the group at a future date. Other club activities will include films on wildlife and firearms.

Parents also are being specifically invited to attend tonight's meeting with the boys and girls and to take an active interest in the organization.

Evelyn Carr PTA Promises a Top Notch Play Performance

By JO HENCKEN
The Evelyn Carr PTA will present the CARROTTERS in the first of two scheduled performances at the Founders Day meeting Feb. 26th. Director-producer-playwright Irene Allison modestly predicts a shattering performance by her troop. (Nerves, I mean.) This group will also appear at the 1956 Membership Dinner of the Torrance County PTA.

As a charming gesture of welcome to new neighbors, Mrs. Edward Mailoux, 2627 W. 17th St., honored Mmes. Duane Scoble, K. Stapp, and P. Hacker at her home. Mrs. Norman Brumby, co-hostess, and coffee was served to Mmes. Glen Etheridge, Thomas Hauge, John Martin and Robert Clark.

Mrs. Leland Vander Venter surprised the other seven room mothers of Mrs. Booth's second grade Monday school records at her home on Friday, by kidnapping them for a "ooms as you are" breakfast. The same afternoon another group of her friends surprised Mrs. Vander Venter with a decorated coffee to honor her birthday.

Joining forces at a Valentine Dance at Verberg's Barn last Thursday evening were the Girl Scout Troop 1384 and Boy Scout Troop 761. The girls made the cupcakes and the boys supplied the coffee, music, cream and the juke box was varied and good.

Any boy or girl of junior high school age through high school is eligible to participate, he said. There will be no other restrictions on membership.
